JULIA MARLOWE GETS DIVORCE

And Alimony of $3000 From Her Husband, Robert E. Taber.

Hyde Park, Jan. 6.—Mrs. Julia Marlowe Taber, better known as Mrs. Marlowe, the actress, was granted a divorce, with alimony, from her husband, Robert E. Taber, the actor, before Judge Taft in the Lamont County Court today. The petition had three charges upon which she based her request for legal separation, but the court threw out the allegations of desertion and refusal to support, and considered and approved of that alleging cruel and intolerable severity. The court said that the petitioner had failed to make a case on the two charges which were ignored, and granted Mrs. Taber's request for alimony, fixing the sum at $3000.

The decision came after a month's deliberation, which followed a hearing conducted very quietly. The case originally was not included in the printed court docket, as it was the desire of all the parties interested to keep the proceedings from becoming public.

Mrs. Taber is about playing an engagement in New York City, and Mr. Taber is in London. Mr. Taber's mother has a residence at Stowe, at which place Mr. and Mrs. Taber for a time lived. From this petition for separation was made.

SHOT AND KILLED HIS WIFE.

Philip W. Rose Also Shot at His Wife's Father—Then Shot Himself—Was Crazy.

New York, Jan. 6.—Philip W. Rose, a young man, who two years ago spent some time in an insane asylum at Jacksonville, Ill., today shot and killed his wife at her father's home in this city, tried to shoot her father and shot himself, inflicting what are believed to be mortal wounds. Rose and his wife were married in 1897, and were married six years ago, when Rose was prosperous. Some two years ago Rose came to New York, and his wife followed him. He found difficulty in getting employment, and his wife came to this city to live with her father. Her husband came here a few days ago, but the two did not live together. It is said she refused to live with him, though he often urged her to do so. Today he called on her and his father-in-law permitted him to see his wife. He put three bullets into her head. He attempted to shoot his wife's father, but the police arrived before he could do so. When the police arrived they found Rose lying in a pool of blood, having shot himself through the head. He was taken to a hospital, where, it is said, he will die.

SUDDEN BUT PAINLESS

Was the Death of Mrs. Higgins of 130 Victor-avenue.

There passed away on Saturday evening, very suddenly, an old resident of Toronto, and one who was highly respected, namely, Mrs. William Higgins of Lurgan, County Armagh, Ireland. Mrs. Higgins came to Toronto with her family in 1850, and had been a resident of the city ever since. Her son, Samuel R., is salesman for the Victoria Harbor Light Company, whose elder brother is of the firm of Higgins & Saunders, Bay-street. Mrs. Higgins was in her usual health at 45 Saturday evening, and had for some time been unusually well. After taking a bath the old lady went to her bedroom, and lay on the side of the bed, and expired in her daughter's arms without a struggle. A remarkable thing is that deceased lady, over 77, Mrs. Higgins was a member of Gerrard-street Methodist Church, and Rev. Dr. Chambers will conduct the funeral services.

A Victory for the People.

Montreal Witness: This victory of the people's candidate for mayor is a most significant, and will impress statesmen with the fact that there is a force ready to rise up against company rule that has now to be reckoned with politically. There is certainly something more in this Macdonald movement than an expression of the discontent of the workers at what seems to them the undue prosperity of capital. It is a protest against the undue political control of capital, and against its hindering propensities. All the corporations are beset by plunderers largely in the shape of other corporations, and are more or less contaminated by treason, which sells the public interests for private considerations. Mr. Macdonald cannot fail to have abundant opportunity to prove or disprove his honesty and capacity as a champion of the people. He must remember that it is not Mr. Macdonald, but the principle of popular rule as opposed to company rule, which has won the victory.

WITNESS ROASTS PATRIE

Minister Tarte's Paper's Attempt to Mislead French Canada About the War.

FAKE HEADINGS IN BIG TYPE

Paris Rumors Given to the Public as News as if It Was From Official Sources.

Montreal, Jan. 6.—(Special.)—This is the way The Witness (Liberal) refers to Hon. Mr. Tarte's paper, "Victory of the Boers." Buller Reported to Have Met With a New Defeat—Colonel Picher Evacuates Duggass and Returns to Belmont—The Boers keep the English in Check at Colberg—The Embarrassment of England—Buller Again Beaten—A Rumor on the Paris Bourse—At Colberg—The English kept at a distance, and so forth. Such are the headlines upon a scrap of La Patrie, Mr. Tarte's subsidized paper. We had proposed to photograph it with its letters, varying from an inch and a half long, but concluded that such a vivid presentation would do harm. Those who read the despatches carefully will realize that they would need to read The Patrie in order to learn the truth. Minutes ago, whose capture the printer glories in such noisy letters, is an outpost railway station held by a body of the Cape Mounted Police. A despatch said it was feared that it had been captured, the Boers having hidden past it as far as Cape Town. A matter of fact, it was not captured at all, and the raiders were immediately driven back by Gen. Gatacre. The true account, which was yesterday's Patrie, after some search, carefully obscured in a three-line paragraph, under the heading, "Bouche de l'ennemi." The words are: "Molveno is today attacked. The account is accurate, as counts, is repeated." The account, so long as it could be imagined to be a Boer victory, was of trumpet-tongued importance. Having turned out to have been a British against odds, it becomes utterly insignificant. The retelling from Duggass with Quebec City, 60 miles from the base, and as far off the line of operations, and, as a matter of ordinary common sense, would be known as the Boers, all the local inhabitants carrying the babies and singing to them when they were "Maple Leaf Forever." Buller's second defeat was a pure invention of the Paris stock jobbing. This sensationalist is interpreted with sympathetic descriptions of the African life of the Boers by French writers.

Accordingly, from Monday next the night train which reaches Levis at 1 p.m. will be discontinued, and the train which leaves Montreal at 7 o'clock will be cancelled, and will reach Levis at 5 p.m. The exact hour will be published hereafter." (Signed, Wilfrid Laurier.)

WANTED A SICK BENEFIT.

John Cardie Under Arrest Charged With Attempting to Get Money By Fraud.

John Cardie, who gives his address as 124 York-street, was placed under arrest on Saturday afternoon on a charge of attempting to obtain money by fraud from the Ocean Accident and Guarantee Company. Cardie, up to a few weeks ago, was employed as a bartender in the G. T. R. Restaurant at Niagara. He came to Toronto on Saturday and made an application for $25 at the company's office, which was in the People Building, stating that he had been laid up at his home for over nine weeks from injuries received by him while opening a bottle. He backed up his application by producing a letter from a physician, which, the police say, was forged by himself. The company's officials suspected something was wrong when Cardie claimed only $25, while, under the policy, he would be entitled to nearly $50. They notified the authorities to make an investigation, with the result that Cardie was locked up by Detectives Black and Cuddy.

WHAT THE GERMAN GAME IS

London Spectator Says That South America is the Objective Point of William

BUT THE MONROE DOCTRINE BARS.

The United States Must Keep Up a Bigger Army and Navy Than Germany.

London, Jan. 6.—The Spectator publishes today an article entitled, "Germany and the Monroe Doctrine," in which it says: "America and not England is the rival in German opinion. It is with America and not England that Germany realizes she must struggle for supremacy. We do not say for a moment that Germany regards America as an enemy, but Germany realizes it is America that at the moment lies across Germany's path, and that unless she is able to reckon with America on equal terms she will not become the world power of the future that she desires to be."

The Monroe Doctrine a Bar.

The Spectator goes on to declare that Germany's objective is South America, but that the Monroe doctrine bars her way. How to get around this is puzzling, but Emperor William counts upon the German vote in the United States to help him when his new navy is ready to carry out his plan of South American expansion, especially in Brazil.

It Means Money.

The Spectator says the United States that "if it intends to uphold the Monroe doctrine in the future it must not go to sleep over it now, but prepare to support a navy and an army equal to the strain of maintaining a policy so tremendous. It is not, she is certain to suffer great humiliation at the hands of the patient, efficient and persistent Germany, adding: 'When the hour comes Germany will be bluffed into respect of Monrovia. She will call the American fleet, and if the fleet is no higher than hers, Germany will act.'

ING E-SAM NOT CONCERNED.

French Government Not Likely to be Interfered With in Dealing With Santo Domingo.

Washington, Jan. 6.—At the present time the United States Government has no concern in the attempt of the French Government to settle a long-standing claim against the government of Santo Domingo by a naval demonstration. What the future action of the United States may be will depend entirely upon the developments, it may be stated that there is a growing disposition here to shelter Governments from the consequences of their disregard of the rule of law and international obligation. There is a possibility that the United States may ultimately become involved through what is known as the Santo Domingo Syndicate, controlled by New York capitalists, which in return for defraying interest on the public debt and otherwise assisting the Government financially, is entitled to collect all the customs revenues of the island.

THE VANDERBILT BEQUESTS.

Cornelius and the Others Have Been Settled—About $75,000,000.

New York, Jan. 6.—One of the executors of the Vanderbilt will said to-night: "All the bequests under the will of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt have been settled. From the time the bequest was made to Cornelius Vanderbilt has received almost all of the $80,000,000 which Alfred agreed to pay to the party of his choice. Cornelius received part of this sum in cash and part in marketable securities. One of the executors also said that the original estimate of the Vanderbilt estate's value, made by De Witt De Peew, and announced on Oct. 27 last as being about $100,000,000, has been practically verified. The estate will probably not exceed $75,000,000."

Berlin, Jan. 7.—It is said that a worse case than that of Prince Ardenberg, charged with killing a subordinate in South Africa without provocation, or fiendishly torturing his victim while dying, is still pending in German East Africa.

Captain von Dannenberg of the Colonial Troops, who ordered several blacks shot and burnt alive, is now being tried for the same crimes.

The Demon Drapage—in other times it was a popular belief that demons rode invisibly through the ambient air seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a valuable friend to do battle with him will be found in the Vegetable Pills, which are every ready for the trial.
