Loyal Britishers Dine at the Tecumseh.

fhirty-First Anniversary of the Society.

Strong Sympathy With United States Expressed-Significant Reception to the U. S. Consul, Mr. Culver-Union Jack and Stars and Stripes Entwined Together.

A brilliant banquet at the Tecumseh House last night marked the thirtyfirst anniversary of St. George's Society in London. Over 100 guests were present, and in every particular the affair predecessors it certainly possessed one feature which in the history of the society will always distinguish it, and lish-speaking people would get nearer and nearer together. Their aim was give it a unique position. These sentiments furnished inmoniously arranged, and the whole scene was most pleasing. Charming music was furnished by the Seventh Band, the spread was in Mine Host Davis' best style, and it was indeed a very jolly company which surrounded the festive board. THE GUESTS.

The president, Mr. R. A. Jones, was at large. chairman, and to his right sat Rev.Geo. Fowler, his Honor Judge Wm. Elliot, and Rev. Provost Watkins. At his left were Hon. Henry S. Culver, United States consul; ex-Ald. Edward Parnell, jun., and Mr. T. H. Purdom. Among "Senate, House of Commons and jun., and Mr. T. H. Purdom. Among the others present were Messrs. and others. "The Queen and the Royal Family" company sang the "National Anthem," and cheer after cheer was given. Capt. Williams sang "God Save the Prince of Wales."

Secretary Cadwallader read regrets from Sir John Carling, Thomas Beat-tie, M.P., Col. Leys, M.P.P., George Tuckett, president, St.George's Society. Hamilton; St. George's Societies of Ottawa, Guelph, Kingston, Montreal, and other places.

"The President of the United States" was proposed by Vice-President Chairman George Taylor. He extended to the representative of the United States present, the Hon. Mr. Culver, a cordial welcome, and assured him that in these troublous times he was perfectly safe right here in London. The toast was honored by a great demonstration, the band playing "The Star-Spangled Banner." Then, as Mr. Culver rose to reply, he was warmly cheered. He spok ably and was frequently applauded. He was not far removed from being an Englishman, he said. His grandfather had sung in England those very songs which had so stirred them tonight. Yet the speaker was an American, and loved his country. (Applause.) He was glad to have this opportunity of saying that he believed London one of the finest places on earth. (Cheers.) The linger as one of his pleasantest recollections. Continuing, he said that at this time a great deal of interest vas centered upon the United States, especially by English people all over the world. and he believed they approved of the course taken by the United States. He regretted that some of the press-not here but scattered throughout the universe, had charged the United States with being actuated by mercenary motives in bringing about this war. Several Bills Go Over. Ottawa, April 26.—Before the orders f the day were called in the house yeserday, Sir Adolphe Caron asked whether it was true that Major-Gen. Gascoigne had resigned.

"I am sorry," Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied, "that the minister of militia is not in his seat today, but I can tell my honorable friend that Gen. Gascoigne has offered his resignation, and it has been accepted, but he remains in command until his successor is appointed." PRIVATE BILLS. Three private bills were put through the final stage, namely, to incorporate the Klondike and Peace River Gold Mining and Transportation Company; to incorporate the Montmorency Cotton Mills Company, and the Edwin Heyward (Toronto) divorce bill. THE TARIFF REFUNDS. In reply to Mr. Foster, who asked for the several amounts paid in refunds of duty collected upon goods subsequently entitled to the reduction, Mr. Paterson said: "It is practically impossible to give the required information, for the reason that the certificates of origin which accompany the goods imported from England, which are the growth produce or manufacture of other countries, do not give specific information as to the country or origin of each particular item of goods mentioned in the shipment, it being merely set forth in said certificates that the goods in shipment are the growth, product or manufacture of certain countries which are entitled to the benefits of the reciprocal tariff." The minister intimated, however, that he might be able to give the total amount of said refunds. QUESTIONS ANSWERED. Mr. Roche was informed by Mr. Tarte that Mr. Thomas Cote, parliamentary correspondent of La Patrie, is not in any way in the employ of the public works department. Mr. McCleary was told by the solicifor-general that the government had appointed Collector Lawson a special officer to enforce the alien labor law in the Fort Erie district, his instructions being to enforce the law whenever the alien labor law is enforced by the A RIDICULOUS COMPLAINT.

SEDUCTION AND ABDUCTION. Mr. Charlton's bill for the punishment of seduction and abduction was read a second time and lost, only two members standing to ask for a division. THE CIVIL SERVICE. Mr. McMullen moved the second reading of his bill for the appointment of a board of civil service supervisors. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, while expressing approval of Mr. McMullen's intentions, did not think the bill should be pressed to a second reading just now. Mr. Paterson, minister of customs said a board of three men could not begin to make an inspection of the customs houses of the Dominion in year, yet Mr. McMullen would have given them the offices of two other departments to look after besides. Mr. Paterson observed that when one got charge of a department and understood its responsibilities, his views of the duties of the officers thereof were enlarged. MOUNTED POLICE PENSIONS.
