81 28TH YEAR

"MINE," SAYS AYLESWORTH SIFTON NOTHING TO DO WITH THE ELECTION BILL

Clause One is Amended So That Opposition Wishes Are Accorded to—New Lists for New Ontario.

OTTAWA, July 2.—(Special).—Mr. Aylesworth made it plain to-day that he would accept the arrangement made by Mr. Wilfrid Laurier in regard to the Manitoba voters' lists as a truly loyal follower of his chief, but that if he had been the boss of the show he would not have given way. At the same time the minister of justice laid on his own shoulders the full responsibility for the bill that has kept parliament sitting for months beyond the reasonable length of time.

He said Mr. Sifton neither drafted nor inspired the Manitoba feature and entered into a long argument to prove that the bill is really a remarkable example of just legislation, and that the need of provision for the making of new lists in Manitoba had been abundantly proven.

The amended clause one is a restatement of the principle of the government so far as Manitoba is concerned. Jackson and Turritt are thrown to the lions, and the only duty imposed on the federal ridings, a proposal assisted to by Mr. Borden and Dr. Roche six weeks ago.

The provisions regarding British Columbia and the unorganized districts of Quebec are dropped altogether, but New Ontario is to have new lists prepared.

Mr. Aylesworth said he was prepared when the bill reached the committee stage, to move the adoption of substitute clause four, which, with regard to Manitoba, he proposed to provide that in certain months of the year there shall be constituted a committee of one member of the county court judges of the province for the purpose of allocating voters. There were seven judges and the committee was to assign to each Dominion electoral division a committee of their own number.

That committee would establish local polling sub-divisions for the next federal election, and would assign to each the voters who ought to vote there.

In the allocating of voters every one would have a right to be heard. The judges would meet and divide the voters' lists and simply distribute the names among the polling sub-divisions.

"In proposing that substitute for the present clause," Mr. Aylesworth said, "I am not losing sight of the fact that it is a substantial departure from that clause of the bill which provides that the work of preparing lists shall be done by men appointed by the government, by men who would be the friends of the government."

Out of Party Hands.

"That feature is eliminated simply because I adhere to the proposition made by my honored leader, who said he was prepared to put the preparation of voters' lists out of the hands of his party friends and place it in the hands of judges above the reach of political influence, and if he is prepared to take that course, and if I am following him in that course, I think we are setting an example that each province will do well to follow."

"I am influenced largely in yielding to the views of my honored leader, by the steps taken by the Manitoba government to remove to a degree the objections to the manner in which the statute has been administered."

"I am influenced very much by the fact that steps have been taken to make the list less objectionable, and even if these steps do not entirely remove the objections, we can afford to wait and see."

Mr. Aylesworth went on to say that this parliament retained the right to dictate its own franchise, and if experience showed no betterment of conditions in Manitoba the parliament had the power to redress the grievance.

"I am content," he said, "to abide by what the leader of the house said and the limit in the Province of Manitoba amendment to the establishment of voting places and the allocation of voters, adopting for the present at least, the provisions of the present act."

Speaking of the acceptance of Mr. Borden's proposal to ask the judges to allocate the names, Mr. Aylesworth said: "The leader of the house closed with that proposition, he did so, as he said, after consideration, after consultation, and he did so, so far as I am concerned, with my full consent. Whether that consent proceeded upon conviction or upon the persuasion of my honored leader does not signify."

Miller Defends.

When the bill was called this morning H. H. Miller was put up and when he concluded a long speech, which was a defence of the bill, which had been attacked so vigorously by the opposition, it was expected that Mr. Aylesworth himself would announce the terms of the settlement.

He, however, nodded to Mr. Conmee, who continued the discussion.

Mr. Conmee summarized the objections to the Ontario lists in this way: "No notice of any kind was given of enumeration, and the enumerators had two or three weeks' start before the Liberals knew it; the enumerators are all extreme partisans; the time for appeal was cut down from 30 to 15 days; the enumerators posted up notices 50 or more miles from the riding affected; the statute in many other instances bore the mark of haste and the lists improperly prepared."

In one case in Ontario the list was posted on June 5 and there could be no appeal in that case.

He believed that the conditions in other Northern Ontario ridings were as bad as in Rainy River. It was impossible to have a fair list under the new law in Ontario. Mr. Conmee thought 60 days was little enough for the work.

Mr. Wright (Muskegon) combated

DAYLIGHT BILL MAKES A HIT

Reception of British Measure Augurs Well for Passage When it Comes Up in April.

LONDON, July 2.—The Daylight Bill, a measure by which the United Kingdom is to be turned into a day-light country, has received the unqualified blessing of the select committee of the house of commons and all indications point to its being effective next April. The bill proposed to advance the clock one hour in April in order to promote the greater use of daylight and to give the masses one hour more playtime by light of day.

The greatest objection to the measure came from the stock exchange, which presented the argument that business with America would be disrupted. For this work only two hours are available under the present conditions and under the proposed bill this time would be cut in half.

The committee of the house think this difficulty can be obviated by the adherence by those concerned to their present hours.

For scientific purposes and navigation Greenwich time is to be maintained.

In order to make the exhibition more national than ever, besides the fact that exhibits from every province will be on view, the executive have decided to engage bands to play from the different cities of the country, such as Winnipeg, Halifax, Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, St. John, Charlotteville and so on. There will be something like thirty of these bands engaged.

MR. CHARLTON IMPROVING.

Recent Critical Stage in Illness Successfully Passed.

LYNEDECH, July 2.—(Special).—The condition of Hon. John Charlton, who has been seriously ill for some months, has passed a somewhat critical stage.

On the 10th of April circulation ceased in the right leg below the knee. Physicians then held out little hope, but they had not placed the full value on Mr. Charlton's constitution. The limb, however, withered until on June 11 it simply came away. The wound is almost healed and Mr. Charlton's condition is now more hopeful.

AUSTRALIAN MAY MAKE EXCHANGE

Com. Ross, Home From Antipodes, Sees Hope of Reciprocal Trade Arrangement.

VANCOUVER, July 2.—There is a very good prospect of reciprocal trade arrangement being negotiated between the Dominion and the Australian Commonwealth, according to D. H. Ross, Canadian Trade Commissioner to the States of New South Wales, West Australia, Victoria and Tasmania. Mr. Ross arrived to-day after seven years in the antipodes.

It is understood that on his approaching visit to Ottawa he will be in a position to advise the Dominion Government respecting the extent to which the Commonwealth Government will be in a position to accept the offer made last August by Mr. Ross on behalf of the Ottawa Government. Also the Commonwealth Government has adopted a high protective tariff, preferential treatment is accorded to the British manufacturer.

Mr. Ross said: "There has been a wonderful development in trade between Canada and Australia during recent years and the possibility for the future is even greater."

If Sir James Mills, chairman and managing director of the Union Steamship Co., operating lines in the Orient between New Zealand and Australian ports, and between Vancouver and the Antipodes, is successful in securing an extension of the contract existing between his company and the Dominion Government for the subsidy granted for the carrying of mail and other transportation facilities between the port of Vancouver and Australian cities, three new million dollar steamers will replace the present steamers on the line. This statement was made by Sir James, who is on his way to Ottawa to consult the Dominion Government, and also to confer with the C. P. R. officials at Montreal.

PRIVATE BILLS COMMITTEE DECLINE TO GIVE DOMINION POWER

Co. Permission to Go Anywhere it Likes.

OTTAWA, July 2.—(Special).—With only Liberal whip Lavergne dissenting, the private bills committee to-day killed the preamble of the remarkable bill of the Dominion Power Development Company.

As presented, the bill proposed that power be given the company to appropriate the property and utilize the streets of any municipality in Canada, without its consent, nothing being stated as to the particular locality in which it was intended to operate.

The Union of Canadian Municipalities became interested and W. D. Lighthall, secretary, with Controllers Spence and Harrison of Toronto and the mayors of several Canadian cities came down to a fight for provincial rights.

This morning Mr. Georrison, the promoter, consented to confine operations to that part of Ontario east of Cornwall, the Province of Quebec. This proposal did not in the least mollify the western Ontario representatives. The Union of Canadian Municipalities pointed out that a bill next year to give similar powers west of Cornwall would be justified by the fact that they had already secured powers in the east of the province. The City of Toronto, it said, insisted on retaining control of her own streets.

Thos. Mulvey, assistant provincial secretary of Ontario, representing the attorney-general, opposed the principle. His chief objection was on the ground that it was an invasion of provincial rights. The bill merely made a loophole for anyone who wished to defeat the provincial law.

The clause referring to regulation by provinces was entirely misleading. Legislation of the provinces to regular companies incorporated by federal authority would be ultra vires. The principle of the bill was utterly bad.

City Solicitor Doherty of St. Thomas, which owns and operates all its utilities, argued that they should not be given to any private corporation to use the streets of the municipality without its consent. The streets were already encumbered with poles and wires.

Mayor Stevely of London urged the committee to throw the bill over till next session.

Moloney, M.P., said he had wires and letters of protest from the mayors of St. John's, Halifax, Montreal, Stratford and Guelph protesting against the threatened loss of control of streets.

Edmund Bristol, M.P., had a letter from the Niagara Power Union opposing this legislation. It was improper for a bill of this kind to be introduced at this stage. It was too general and indefinite and no one could tell where it was proposed to operate.

Mayor Bowly of Brantford, and A. Globensky, representing Quebec, also protested and the vote was taken just at 8 o'clock when the bill was killed by a chorus of "Noes."

CARRIES 330 LB. LOAD AND WINS $55 WAGER

THREE OLD MEN ARE BRUSHED UNDER WHEELS

Italian Fruit Dealer Performs a Difficult Task in the City Streets.

To carry a sack of sugar weighing 330 lbs. on his shoulder for nearly a mile.

Such was the feat of endurance which Sam Scoleto, an Italian fruit dealer, set himself to accomplish early last evening.

He finished comparatively strong, though his knees were wobbling on the home stretch, and won a wager of $55 which Salvatore Badali, 428 East King-street, had staked against him.

Badali is a good sport, however, and seemed even enthusiastic over Sam's success as he surveyed the crowd which followed.

The walk began from the fruit market at the foot of Scott-street, Scoleto, who is of stout build, about 35 years of age and weighing 150 lbs., said he could do it with 400 lbs. His fellow countrymen thought he couldn't.

The sack of sugar was as near the desired weight as could get.

He was assisted in getting the sack in place, resting well over the head and shoulders. A small pillow of hay protected the head. His hands held the sack well forward as he started north via Scott and Victoria-streets.

He was stipulated, but the stop made at Richmond-street lasted but eight minutes, and the procession continued north. Three wagons, with interested onlookers, followed the procession.

North to Gould-street, west to Yonge and across to Elm, and then proceeding to the corner of Elm and York, the procession proceeded, a crowd of some 300 filling the street.

In the last block or so, Scoleto's friends excitedly encouraged him as he was unable to look ahead at all to see his way.

Then as he crossed Terminus-street the crowd began to cheer, and as he placed his burden in Badali's wagon he was given a conquering hero's acclaim.

Requests for a speech he modestly declined, but after a minute's rest he sprang into the wagon and proudly surveyed the field.

His time for the distance was given by a watch as 22 minutes.

WILLIAM WALTERS WILL DIE AND TWO OTHERS ARE INJURED IN COLLAPSE OF CHATHAM BUILDING

CHATHAM, July 2.—(Special).—The walls of the boiler room of the Wm. Laidler box factory on Grand-avenue collapsed this afternoon at two o'clock, mortally wounding one man and seriously injuring two others.

Wm. Walters of Selkirk-street, aged 67 years, had his left arm mangled from the top of his fingers to the shoulder, face badly cut and side injured.

The three men were at work when the walls came down upon them with out any warning. The loud crash soon attracted other workmen to the spot, who hurriedly extracted their comrades from beneath the ruins. Four local doctors were called, and after they had received medical attention, the injured men were removed to the hospital.

The collapse of the building is said to have been caused by defective masonry in the walls.

PRESIDENT ROY WAS BANK'S BIG CREDITOR

Notes Backing Banque St. Jean Prove to Have Been Those of Its Chief.

MONTREAL, July 2.—(Special).—More sensational revelations have come to light in connection with the collapse of the Bank of St. Jean.

It will be remembered that in the famous "black list" which was published as being reported to the finance department as good values, there was a large amount, representing notes of C. S. Roy, the president's brother.

It now transpires that the discovery has just been made that a great many of these notes were the president's, and that others bearing the name of C. S. Roy had been substituted.

This makes Hon. Mr. Roy's position even worse than was at first supposed. There does not appear to be any hope that the project to revive the bank will succeed. Three gentlemen in St. John, Gabriel Marchand being of the number, have made good values, there was a large amount, representing notes of C. S. Roy, the president's brother.

25,000 HANDS NEEDED TO HANDLE HARVEST

Preparations Are Under Way to Handle Big Army of Men in West This Year.

WINNIPEG, July 2.—On account of the very optimistic reports that are being received regarding the yield from all parts of the Canadian west, it is confidently asserted that 25,000 farm laborers at least will be required to garner the crop.

Arrangements are now being made for the handling of this vast army of men, and special trains will be run from various points in the east.

The Canadian Northern crop report issued to-day shows grains of all kinds going splendidly. Prospects for a banner year were never better. The weather at the present time all over the country is all that could be desired.

TO LOOK US OVER

Representative of British Manufacturers Spies Out the Land.

VANCOUVER, July 2.—Representing the Manufacturers' Association of Great Britain, Ben. H. Morgan of London, England, has just completed an important mission to Australia and New Zealand.

He was entrusted with the task of investigating the trade outlook and opportunities for investing British capital in manufacturing enterprises in both countries in view of their recent adoption of high protective tariffs.

He will undertake similar work in the Dominion.
