A CALAIS MAN DIES OF HEART DISEASE

George McConnell Fell Dead in a St. Stephen Saloon This Morning.

St. Stephen, N. B., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—George McConnell, a well-known resident of Calais, where he drove a fish cart, expired very suddenly here this morning at about seven o'clock.

He had just crossed from Calais and was entering Tyrrell's saloon, when he fell to the floor. Medical aid was summoned but the man was dead when the physician arrived.

Heart disease being the cause. His remains will be sent to Eastport, his former home. He was about fifty-five years of age, and is survived by a wife and three children.

RAND GOLD OUTPUT

The gold output of the Rand is steadily expanding. The July yield of $84,000 ounces constituted a new monthly record.

This means that approximately $2,500,000 new gold is being shipped to the London market every week, where it becomes immediately available for the great banks of Europe.

Less than one month elapses from the time the gold is brought to the surface of the mines until it is taken over the counter of the Bank of England.

About 85 per cent. of the lumber mills in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Arkansas and Texas are in operation, and the percentage will be increased steadily.

CONDITIONS IN COURTENAY BAY

No Rock Has Been Discovered Yet and Bay is Believed to be Suitable for Docks.

So far as the dredging operations in Courtenay Bay have gone, it has been demonstrated that the bottom is adapted for dredging. It has been stated by those acquainted with conditions at the outside of the mouth of the bay that no rock will be found there either.
