Officer Brown reported for duty last night and was ordered home by Chief Clark. The officer denies the charge against him and demands an investigation, which will probably be held soon.

This morning, John Sargeon, 164 Adelaide street, took his father's trunk to the Union depot, early, as the old gentleman was leaving on the "peep-o-day" express at six o'clock. Mr. Sargeon drove a brown horse with a silver harness, and the trunk was one that had formerly been used on a morning machine. While going along the trunk checked and seeing his father aboard the train, Mr. Sargeon's sign disappeared, and has not as yet been found. Sergeant Baxter was notified of the loss.

OLD ROUND HOUSE WILL STAY

General Manager Polinger of the I. C. R. has decided for the present not to demolish the old round house, as was intended. The plan was to attach a steel tower to the tower of the building and the other end be attached to a locomotive. The engine would then be forced ahead and result in the dragging of the tower from its position.

As the building stands now, the tower is something of a menace to people and the removal would mean increased yard space, but as matters are at present it is very uncertain when the structure will come down.

MEMORABLE FURNITURE

During the past four weeks hundreds of people took advantage of the furniture sale at Amland Bros., Waterloo street, and as this is the last week of this memorable sale, no doubt there will be even larger numbers who will take advantage of their reduced prices. The Messrs. Amland Bros. carry a beautiful stock of parlor and bedroom suites, sideboards, extension tables, china closets, buffets, dining chairs, ladies' dressers, brass and iron beds, etc., and those who are repairing their homes for the fall and winter, or going into housekeeping, should buy their furniture now. See ad.

BACK TO ST. JOSEPH'S

The following students returned to St. Joseph's University, St. John, N. B., on Monday: Arthur McCourt, Louis McDonald, Urban Sweeney, John McCarthy, Frank McDermott, Leo Doherty, Harry McDermott, John Louis Flanagan, Harry McDermott, John McDermott, Chas. Tippet and Louis Slattery.

Mr. Ryan and Charles Conlan members of this year's high school graduating class, and Charles Haly, who for the past few years has been attending college at Montreal, also went up and will enter the University.

ANOTHER FAX COMING

Those who have laughed themselves sore at the absurd caricatures of Rueben Fax, who in his inimitable portrayal of the city character in "Bonnie Brer Bush" has touched the heights of greatness, will be interested to learn that there is still a greater than Rueben in the Fax family. This is James Fax, who has during his fifteen years before the public well earned the distinction of being at least peer to any character entertainer in America. His work is similar to that of Greenleaf of England. Mr. Fax's name is a household word in Upper Canada, where his name is sufficient to draw a large audience, whether announced in the smallest hamlet or in Toronto. This popular artist has the distinction of appearing no less than 200 times in Massey Hall during his career, which is an evidence of his popularity in that large centre. F. G. Spencer has engaged Mr. Fax for an engagement of ten days, opening in Matine, and including the three provinces and Newfoundland, and the committees in each place included in the itinerary who are fortunate in securing his services will be well pleased. Mr. Fax will be accompanied by a small company.

EPIDEMIC OF CHOLERA

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Vienna says that two hundred deaths in recent weeks from cholera in the provinces of Galicia and Bukovina have been concealed by the local authorities under the description of European cholera.

RASTENBURG, East Prussia, Sept. 5.—One new case of cholera was reported here today.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, Sept. 5.—No cases of cholera have occurred in Russian Poland and the general opinion is that the disease started in Germany. The Russian authorities have ordered a strict disinfection of the baggage of passengers and trains arriving at the frontier station of Alexandroff and at all the frontier custom houses.

BRONBERG, Prussia, Sept. 5.—Cholera has spread among the convicts in the penitentiary at Krone, on the Brabe. One certain case and six suspected cases have been reported.

SOCHESZEW, Prussia, Sept. 5.—One death from cholera has occurred here.

INTOLERANT UNION

OTTAWA, Sept. 5.—(Special)—In the Labor Day parade yesterday the 4th's band withdrew because the Champlain Guards had no music in their band and committees refused to interfere with non-union men and the 4th withdrew.

WEDDINGS TOMORROW

Several Happy Events in Which Many Are Interested.

Although June is usually considered the popular month for weddings, it would appear from present indications that the number of September brides will outstrip that of the "balmy summer month."

Quite a number of weddings will be celebrated in the city tomorrow, among which are the following:

Guthrie-Smith

What promises to be the most brilliant wedding of the present season will be celebrated in St. John's (Stone) church, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when Miss Amy Smith, second daughter of Mrs. George F. Smith, will be married to Norman Guthrie, a prominent Ottawa lawyer.

Elaborate preparations are being made, and, as a large number of invitations have been issued, the event has been looked forward to with considerable interest in society circles of St. John.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Leslie Smith, Miss Westbrook, Miss Harrison and Miss Guthrie, while Mr. McCowan will support the occasion.

The waters will be Alex McMillan, Guy Robinson, W. H. Harrison, A. Chipman of St. Stephen, and Herbert Adams of New York.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Gustav A. Kuhling, the rector, and the choir, under the direction of the organist and choirmaster, Dr. Arnold Fox, will render music appropriate to the occasion.

After the ceremony luncheon will be served, after which the happy couple will leave for a wedding tour to the United States. On their return they will reside in Ottawa.

Roden-Nagle

A quiet house wedding will be celebrated at five o'clock tomorrow morning, when Miss Nellie Nagle, daughter of W. J. Nagle, will become the wife of Frank R. Roden, of the office staff of T. McElroy & Sons.

The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride, 183 Carmarthen street, and the nuptial knot will be tied by Rev. A. D. Dewdney, rector of St. James's church.

The bride will be attended and will wear a travelling costume of navy blue with hat to match. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Roden will leave by the early train for a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia, taking in Halifax and Annapolis Valley.

The presents, which are numerous and beautiful, attest to the popularity of the happy couple.

Bishop-Finley

Tomorrow morning, about 5.30 o'clock, George Bishop, bookkeeper for the McClary Manufacturing Co., Ltd., will be united in marriage to Miss Ethel Finley, daughter of Mrs. Besse Finley, 78 Sewell street. The ceremony will be performed in St. Andrew's church by Rev. Mr. Lang.

In Fredericton

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 5.—(Special)—The marriage of Rev. George D. Ireland, pastor of Woodstock, and Miss Jessie Vincent, of this city, will be solemnized at Christ Church Cathedral tomorrow afternoon.

Chancellor Sangster, of Vancouver, and Miss May Cliff are to be married at the bride's home tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent are both prominent business men in Fredericton.

The bride will be attended by her mother, Mrs. Vincent, and her sister, Miss Vincent.

The ceremony will be performed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The happy couple will leave for their honeymoon trip to the West Indies.

The bride will wear a white gown with a blue sash.

The groom will wear a dark suit with a white shirt and tie.

The reception will be held at the bride's home.

The wedding will be a quiet affair.

The bride and groom will be accompanied by their families.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Mr. Vincent.

The bride will be attended by her mother and sister.

The groom will be supported by his father and brother.

The wedding will be a simple affair.

WHAT JAPAN AND RUSSIA ACCEPT AS PEACE TERMS

The Celebrated "Treaty of Portsmouth," Which Now Only Awaits Signature, and Which Will End the Bloody Conflict in the East.

PORTSMOUTH, N.H., Sept. 5.—The peace treaty opens with a preamble that his Majesty the Emperor, the autocrat of all Russia, and his Majesty the Emperor of Japan, desiring to close the war now subsisting between them and having appointed their respective plenipotentiaries and furnished them with full powers which were found to be in form, have come to an agreement on a treaty of peace and arranged as follows:

Article 1—The plenipotentiaries of the two empires and plenipotentiaries of the subjects of Russia and Japan respectively.

Article 2—His Majesty the Emperor of Russia recognizes the preponderant interest of political, military and economic points of view of Japan in the development of the empire, and stipulates that Russia will not oppose any measures for its government, jurisdiction or control that Japan will deem necessary to take in Korea in conjunction with the Korean government, but Russian subjects and Russian enterprises are to enjoy the same status as the subjects and enterprises of other countries.

Article 3—It is mutually agreed that the territory of Manchuria be simultaneously evacuated by both Russian and Japanese troops. Both countries being equally desirous to enjoy the same rights acquired by private persons and companies shall remain intact.

Article 4—The rights possessed by Russia in conformity with the lease by Russia of Port Arthur and Dalny together with the lands and waters adjacent, shall pass over in their entirety to Japan, but the properties and rights of Russian subjects are to be safeguarded and respected.

Article 5—The plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan engage themselves reciprocally not to put any obstacles to the general measures (which shall be alike for all nations) which may be taken for the development of the commerce and industry of Manchuria.

Article 6—The Manchurian railway shall be operated jointly by Russian and Japanese at Kouang Teheng Tse. The two railways shall be operated for the benefit of Russia keeping her branch line with all rights acquired by her concession with China for the construction of that railway. Japan acquires the mines in connection with such branch line which she may wish to exploit.

Article 7—However, the rights of private parties or private enterprises are to be respected. Both parties to this treaty shall be free to undertake what they deem fit on expropriated ground.

Article 8—It is agreed that the branch line of the Manchurian railway shall be worked with a view to assure commercial traffic between them without obstruction.

Article 9—Russia cedes to Japan the southern part of Sakhalin Island as far north as the fiftieth degree of north latitude together with the islands depending thereon. The right of free navigation is assured in the bays of Laptev and Laptchev.

Article 10—This article recites the situation of Russian subjects on the southern part of Sakhalin Island and stipulates that Russian colonies there shall be free and shall have the right to remain without changing their nationality. Per contra, the Japanese government shall have the right to force Russian convicts to leave the territory which is ceded to her.

Article 11—Russia engages herself to make an agreement with Japan giving to Japanese subjects the right to fish in the Russian territorial waters of the sea of Japan, the sea of Okhotsk and Behring Sea.

Article 12—The two contracting parties engage themselves to renew the commercial treaty existing between the two governments prior to the war in all its vigor with slight modifications in details and with a most favored nation clause.

Article 13—Russia and Japan reciprocally engage to statute their prisoners of war on paying the real cost of keeping the same, such claim for cost to be supported by documents.

Article 14—This peace treaty shall be drawn up in the languages of French and English, the French text being evidence for the Russians and the English text for the Japanese. In case of difficulty of interpretation the French document to prevail.

Article 15—The ratification of this treaty shall be communicated by the plenipotentiaries of the two states within 30 days after its signature. The French and English plenipotentiaries shall be intermediaries between the plenipotentiaries of the two states to announce by telegraph ratifications of the plenipotentiaries of the two states.

Article 16—The plenipotentiaries of both armies shall be complete within 18 months. The two parties will limit the number of soldiers per kilometre.

Article 17—The boundary which limits the parts of Sakhalin Island which Russia and Japan in Sakhalin Island shall be definitely marked off on the sheet by a special limnographic commission.
