Long Line of Eager Fans Kept Places Through Night to Get Tickets for Pavilion and Bleacher Seats

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Today is the great day in all the baseball world. This afternoon at two o'clock the New York Giants, champions of the National League, and the Chicago White Sox, champions of the American League, are to meet for the world championship.

All night a long line of two or three hundred persons, including a few women, stood waiting for the ticket office to open at ten o'clock this morning, when 15,000 remaining pavilion and bleacher seats were to be put on sale. It was cold and most of the night there was a drizzle of rain, punctuated from time to time with a pelting gust that penetrated to the marrow. Some quit to re-appear before dawn.

During the long hours a line stretched its length along the fence of Comiskey Park. Electric lights showed dimly through rain washed globes, banners hung limp from neighboring bill boards. The only cheerful thing in sight was the flickering of the gas flame under coffee boilers in a makeshift canvas shelter across the street, the owners of which did a thriving business throughout the night. The reluctant grey of the morning had not appeared when newsboys came shouting on the scene with "all about the world's series," and were relieved of their supplies in short order.

At 7.30 tarpulines were removed from the base lines and the grounds were pronounced reasonably fit for the game. At this hour also the score card salesmen brought new brightness into the lives of those in line with their cries "you can tell the players without a score card." Most of the dyed-in-the-wool fans could have told the players in the dark, but they bought the cards anyway. It appeared from these that the line-up for the game would be as follows:

New York Nationals:—Burns, 1. f.; Herzog, 2b.; Kauff, c. f.; Zimmermann, 3b.; Fletcher, s. s.; Robertson, r. f.; Holke, 1b.; McCarthy, c.; Schuppe, p.

Chicago Americans:—J. Collins, r. f.; McMullen, 3b.; Collins, 2b.; Jackson, 1. f.; Felch, c. f.; Coughlin, 1b.; Weaver, s. s.; Schalk, c.; Cicotte, p.

Umpires—Evans and O'Loughlin for American League; Klem and Riegler for the Nationals.

After a night of cold and rain the skies cleared this morning and the prospect for the first game of the world's championship games between the Chicago Americans and the New York Nationals was for fair weather and a temperature of about 55 degrees.

Ima Jay Wins in Seventh.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5.—Ima Jay, owned and driven by Harvey D. Earnest, of Kama, Ohio, won the twenty-eighth renewal of the Transylvania at the Grand Circuit here today, after seven hard heats which lowered the world's record for a seven heat race. Four heats were trotted Thursday, Ross B. Early Dreams, Royal Mac and Ima Jay having each won a heat the first day. Ima Jay came back today winning the fifth and seventh heats and the race. Royal Mac won the sixth heat. Though having to be content with third money, Early Dreams trotted a high class race, but was ruled out at the close of the sixth heat. He had won one of the heats and finished second in four others. A break a short distance from the wire placed him tenth in the opening round.

The racing today was the best of the meeting, each race proving a stiff battle with the exception of the Lexington Stake, which was a gift to Peter June, driven by Geers. This was Geers first win of the meeting.

The Blue Grass stake for 2.09 pacers, the 2.12 pace and 2.21 trot, were unfinished at sundown and will have to be finished tomorrow.

During the morning the half mile track champion, Harry J. S. was given a time record of 2.05 1/2.

Signs Net Players $5,050

The Bull Durham Company, through the medium of signs which are located in 100 baseball parks throughout the United States, has given to the players the sum of $5,050 in cash. This money is the reward for 101 hits registered up to September 15, each player who hits the "bull" receiving a fifty-dollar check. The signs in the National League were hit 14 times, netting these players the sum of $700.

The Order of Michael the Brave, with which King George has been decorated by the King of Roumania, says a writer in the Fall Mail Gazette, derives its title, I believe, from a great medieval patriot who for years enabled the Danube principality to retain her independence. A beautiful equestrian statue of him stands, or stood, in Bucharest—that is to say, I hope it has not come to grief since loyal Roumania entered the war.

MAY REPLACE DONOVAN AS MANAGER OF YANKEES

New York, Oct. 4.—Wild Bill Donovan's job as manager of the Yankees, is said to be slipping fast away from him. Also, Miller Huggins, brainy little leader of the St. Louis Cardinals, is said to have been considered in his place. No semblance of truth can be attached to the rumors, save for the indefinite statement accredited to Huggins, saying he has received "some kind" of an offer to take charge of the New York club.

Col. Jacob Ruppert has stated once that he will not dismiss Donovan, but since that time the Yankees have been going from bad to worse. He may change his mind.

The owners of the Cardinals could hardly do anything worse than to allow Huggins to slip away from leadership of the Cardinals. The little leader is making noises like a pennant winner, and if given time may put some baseball prestige into St. Louis that will make that city the same good old baseball town that other cities have been made by pennant winners.

If Col. Ruppert wants Huggins he
