WAR SITUATION AS SHOWN IN SUNDAY NIGHT CABLES

Saloniki, via Paris, Nov. 14.—The Italian cruiser Piedmonte, bombarded and destroyed the railroad station at Dedegatch, Bulgaria, on Friday. The warship also destroyed two trains made up of eighty cars loaded with war munitions.

London, Nov. 15.—The Italian cruiser Piedmonte has arrived at Saloniki, according to a despatch from that place to the Daily Telegraph.

London, Nov. 14.—The Serbians are falling back from mountain range before the advance of the Austro-German forces, losing 1,000 or more prisoners daily, a few guns and quantities of stores. They are fighting continuously, however, and are inflicting considerable losses on their pursuers.

Along the eastern front the Serbians appear to be holding their own against the Bulgarians and are making a stand on the western bank of the Morava river. So stubborn has been their resistance, the Bulgarians have had to call for assistance from the Austro-German artillery in their effort to drive the defenders out of Katschank Pass. Thus far they have been unsuccessful.

ALLIES ON OFFENSIVE IN BALKANS.

The British and French troops, which are receiving reinforcements, are also meeting with some success, and besides repelling the Bulgarian attacks, have undertaken small offensive movements with good results. The Austro-Germans and Bulgarians, however, made such progress from the beginning of the campaign that it will take serious work now to check them.

For the moment the political situation is graver than the military. The Central Powers have again protested to Greece against the landing of Allied troops at Saloniki. King Constantine is reported to have replied that as Saloniki is an open port there has been no infringement of Greek rights in the landing, and that Greece will remain neutral until one of the belligerents has transgressed against these rights. France and Italy, the latter having now joined her Allies in sending a warning to Saloniki, are particularly anxious as to the attitude of the Russians, here, definitely, repelled. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's drive toward Riga and Drinsk, and along the Dvina river, and have themselves taken the offensive, but apparently, owing to the state of the ground, have been able to make only slow progress in the marsh region west of Riga.

Along the Stry river, in the south, the Austro-Germans, by a counter-attack, have pierced the Russian lines and captured 1,500 prisoners, according to the Berlin official statement. These strokes are about all that can be expected on the eastern front, while the soft weather continues.

On the western front there have been no events of importance.

Petrograd, Nov. 13.—The following official communication from general headquarters was issued today:

"On the western (Russian) front our troops in the Sholk region, pursuing the enemy, inflicted severe losses on him, and advanced west of Kemmern."

"Almost everywhere on the rest of the front there were merely exchanges of shots and encounters between outposts."

"There is no change in the Caucasus."

Petrograd, via London, Nov. 14.—The following official communication was issued from general headquarters today:

"On the western (Russian) front the Germans attempted to take the offensive against the Bessarabia front, in the Hukal district. They were repelled by our artillery fire. In the Divinsk district, farther to the south, as far as Frippet, there is nothing to report."

"Desperate fighting continues near the village of Medvujie, northwest of Castrorysk. The enemy's attempts to advance in the direction of the river Sty were stopped by our fire. Near the village of Pégacie, west of Castrorysk, there was desperate fighting."

"On the Caucasus front, on the west shore of Lake Ouzumli, our troops repulsed Kurdish forces."

Heavy German Losses in Labyrinth.

Paris, Nov. 14.—The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight:

"In Artois, in the Labyrinth, the Germans, by a sudden attack this morning succeeded in penetrating, near the road from Lille, one of our first line trenches. Our counter-attacks immediately drove them out. The enemy left all his wounded on the ground."

"Around Loos, and Souchez there has been merely cannonading."

"To the north of the Aisne, we concentrated what appeared to be a very effective fire on the German organizations on the plateau of Nouvron."

"A somewhat intense artillery action has continued in Champagne, in the region of the Butte Du Mesnil, and on the heights of the Meuse, in the Chevaliers woods."

200,000 RUSSIANS WOULD BRING IN ROMANIANS

Russian Army Would Turn Scale in Favor of Allies—Greece Would Come in Also

London, Friday, Nov. 15.—The Times Balkan correspondent, telegraphing from Bucharest, expresses the opinion that if Russia could send into the Serbian campaign a force of 200,000 men while the French and British troops are landing on the Aegean coast, the hesitation which prevails in certain quarters in Roumania would be dispelled and both Roumania and Greece would throw in their lots with the Entente allies.

"In this event," says the correspondent, "Roumania could fall on Bulgaria in the rear with 200,000 men and simultaneously attack the German front with 400,000 men. Roumania feels safe in the Carpathian passes, which she regards as impregnable. The scene of action in such a case would probably be Eastern Bulgaria or Thrace, where Field Marshal von Der Goltz's army is assembled, but lacks munitions."

"The distance of the Entente Allies' naval base from the scene of the hostilities in Serbia and the necessity for guarding the long line of communications in a difficult country and in the face of a hostile population are regarded by the correspondent as rendering a northward march from Saloniki inadvisable. The concentration of forces farther east is held by the correspondent to be imposed by military conditions."

SOLDIERS AT SUSSEX.

Camp Sussex, (N. B., Nov. 12.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir—A few days ago someone from Sussex wrote to your paper saying that Sussex was equal to Saint John in amusements. Now, will you please tell us where they can find such? There is one moving picture show in this town, and that is the only thing there is here to go to in the evening. "Sussex" (as the letter was signed) says it was the bar-room that the soldiers likely wanted to get to St. John for, and that the only thing Sussex lacked and St. John had was the far-rooms. Well, we thought this was a hard thing to say, for among the thousands of soldiers who have been at Sussex this summer there has been very little drunkenness. In fact the conduct of any of our men, or of the 64th either, has been so small that it could hardly be noticed, for those who want liquor can buy it here just as well as in St. John.

We men from St. John feel that it is only fair for us to be there, near our homes and families while we are here. And we do not propose to spend our time in the bar-rooms, as that sarcastic "Sussex" letter said. We only want to be near our homes and families and to be where we can go some place to spend a social evening. Many of us will never come back, and is it not fair that we can have our time where we can amuse ourselves while we are here?

There is a soldiers' recreation club in St. John, and several other places have been opened for their comfort and benefit, while there is practically nothing to go to here to put in the time.

It is fair enough for the men from Sussex and around this section to stay here this winter, but it is not fair for them to keep the St. John men here. And there must be 600 or more St. John men here now, together with those who enlisted at St. John.

Yours very truly,
A ST. JOHN MARRIED MAN IN THE 104TH.

NEW YORK WOMAN DRAGGED INTO HALLWAY AND ROBBED

New York, Nov. 15.—Mistaking her street while coming home from a party, Mrs. Helen N. Vasey, 38, formerly a moving picture actress, was seized by four men in front of 516 West 128th street, dragged into a hallway, attacked and robbed. The robbers took her hat, coat and pocketbook.

A policeman who was in the vicinity arrested two young men but Mrs. Vasey was unable to identify them as among her assailants.

The woman was attended at the Knickerbocker Hospital and held at the West 128th street station for further investigation of the holdup.

DO THIS FIRST—YOU!

You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs.

Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the concentrated, blood-making oil—food in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat.

Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion after sickness. Nurses everywhere advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without injurious drugs.
