ANKLES AND KNEES.

In the dear dead days when to exhibit three inches or so of ankle was the limit of daring allowed respectable girls, mere men were wont to rapsodize on ankles and one artist declared that they were woman's most lasting beauty, remaining unchanged from maturity to extreme old age. One might be inclined to think that, now feet and ankles no longer represent the total length of visible extremities, the cult of the limit of of the dear dead days when to exhibit three inches or so of ankle was for a certain action. The story is told that on one occasion King other reasons King Henry IV entered a small French town. No salute was fired, as was customary when His Royal Highness visited the towns in his kingdom. The mayor of the town was greatly exertised and worried. He approached the sovereign tremblingly to offer an explanation and apology: "Sire, we did not fire a gun for three reasons. The first is that we have no gun—" "Why trouble me with the other reasons?" and will make living conditions in the formerly advantageous to the formerly and wall make living conditions in the country comparable with those in the country comparable with those in the city.

Costs Cut Below All Competition By Cornering and Developing Deep Water Coal Docks

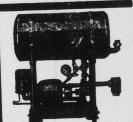

The 131/2 p. c. shown on the money invested in Preferred Stock of Eastern Coal Docks, Ltd., will reach a larger amount through the bonus common after the completion of dock and equipment.

They have a combination of rail and deep water dock without possible duplicate. They are thus improving their ability to charter steamers and unload coal cheaper than competition for local markets. And they are also able to wholesale coal to provincial points and Upper Canada better than Portland and other winter routes, through more economical rehandling facilities.
