

IMPERIAL OPENER IS EXCELLENT BILL

Week Starts With "The Splendid Road" and Solos by Kathryn Gallivan

"The Splendid Road," latest of the Frank Lloyd-Fox National releases, which opened a run at the Imperial yesterday, has its hilarious moments and its moments of suspense and thrill—and also its moments of sorrow and despair.

With Anna Q. Nilsson, Lionel Barrymore and Robert Frazer featured in a romance of the California gold rush days of '49, the master of entertainment is something to be taken for granted.

Miss Nilsson as Sandra, has probably never been seen in a sweeter, more demure character role. Robert Frazer as Hankley is a delight. Lionel Barrymore as Dan O'Connell gives a sterling performance in a part which might easily be unappreciated. All down the line in the supporting cast one can list excellent performances.

Edward Earle as Dr. Edgewell is superb as is Pauline Garon as a jealous dance hall girl with considerable fire.

THIS WOMAN NOW WELL
 Her Suffering Relieved and Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ontario.—"I am certainly very grateful for the benefit I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, also the Sensitive Wash and the Liver Pills. In the early spring I was suffering so much from loss of blood that I thought I would never be any better as doctor's medicine relieved me only for the time being. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in the "Toronto Star," and I find the Vegetable Compound Tablets the best for me. I have been taking them since Spring, and I intend keeping them by me all the time. After reading your private text-Book I saw it was necessary to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sensitive Wash, and I can safely say I feel a different woman. My friends remark how well I look. I am a very bony woman, but I am as trim as all times to boost your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES GIFFIN, 945 Lansdowne Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

You may be having an experience similar to Mrs. Giffin's and will be interested to know who she did. Every sick woman can feel confident that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help her, since we are told that it does help 98 out of every 100 women who take it.
