

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1924

LORD MAYORS AND MAYORS INSTALLED

London Chief Magistrate and His Sheriffs are Catholics.

London, Nov. 11.—The annual installation of the lord mayors and mayors in this country usually is held on Nov. 9, but as this date fell on a Sunday this year, the installation ceremonies were held on Saturday.

The new Lord Mayor of London is Sir Alfred Bower, wine merchant, who holds high office in many of the ancient city guilds and companies. The sheriffs, whose duty it is to attend the Lord Mayor wherever he goes, are F. A. Bartholomew and H. G. Downer.

For the first time since Protestantism was restored to England by the accession of Queen Elizabeth, the holders of these three high offices in London are Catholics. In the course of the year the Lord Mayor of London, accompanied by his sheriffs, attends church in state on many occasions and it is not anticipated that any departure from the usual customs will be necessary in the present case. The Lord Mayor has appointed an Anglican clergyman as his official chaplain.

The new Lord Mayor of Manchester is Alderman F. J. West, a director of the ship canal and other large undertakings. Hull has chosen A. D. Willoughby as its civic head, and Huddersfield Alderman L. Taylor, labor member of the Huddersfield town council, in occupation a postal superintendent.

Other mayors are as follows: Blackburn, Councillor James Staworth; Carlisle, Ald. Robert Burns, Halifax, Ald. J. H. Waddington; Ripon, Ald. W. Hemsworth; Leeds, Charles Gibson, leather merchant; Sheffield, Ald. Bailey, trades union leader; Birmingham, Percival Bower, trades union leader; Liverpool, Ald. Dowd, fruit merchant; Bristol, Councillor Brookhouse, and Bradford, Ald. Palin.

Mayor Palin of Bradford is a trades union official, and he announces that he will refuse to use the civic automobile unless the driver is a member of the union. This will be the first time for Bradford's mayor to insist on this.

Many of the old-time, quaint ceremonies connected with the mayoral elections still persist.

At Bourne-mouth and Hapley the retiring mayors confirm their successors' elevation to office by a solemn laying on of hands.

The chief magistrate of Grantham has his robes stripped off him and the town clerk taps him on the head with a mallet on the expiration of his mayoralty.

The mayor of High Wycombe, after his election, accompanied by his aldermen and councillors proceeds to the borough department of weights and measures, where all the members of the council are carefully weighed. Their weight is duly noted in the civic records.

Of great antiquity is the custom of tracing a ring upon the finger of the mayor of Lincoln upon his election.

At Cheltenham the chief magistrate upon accepting office, is given a gold-mounted cane.

The mayor of Cork, as a symbol of his authority as admiral of the port, with the members of his council, used to beat the boundaries of Cork harbor and finally cast to the waves a bronze-tipped arrow. This ancient ceremony, however, and practically lapsed in recent years.

DOCTOR ADVISED AN OPERATION

Read Alberta Woman's Experience With Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Provost, Alberta.—"Perhaps you will remember sending me one of your books a year ago. I was in a bad condition and would suffer awful pains at times and could not do anything. The doctor said I could not have children unless I went under an operation. I read testimonials of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the papers and a friend recommended me to take it. After taking three bottles I became much better and now I have a bonny baby girl four months old. I do my housework and help a little with the chores. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and am willing for you to use this testimonial letter. —Mrs. A. A. ADAMS, Box 54, Provost, Alberta.

Pains in Left Side.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my left side and back and with weakness and other troubles women so often have. I was this way about six months. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in the Montreal Standard and I have taken four bottles of it. I was a very sick woman and I feel so much better I would not be without it. I also use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I recommend the medicines to my friends and am willing for you to use my letter as a testimonial. —Mrs. M. W. ROSE, 580 Notre Dame St., Lachine, Quebec.

PEPS

Colder weather soon finds out any weak spot in throat or chest, and neglected colds simply invite bronchial trouble. Peps ward off cold and chill dangers. They invigorate, strengthen and

QUAINT CEREMONY

Quit Rents, Observed in England, Most Ancient Now Kept Up

London, Nov. 11.—The ceremony of Quit Rents, due to the crown by the Corporation of the City of London, has just taken place at the Royal Courts of Justice before the King's Remembrancer. It is believed to be the most ancient rent service now rendered in this country.

These services were formerly rendered before the Curia Regia or the Exchequer, and at the same time the solemnity of presenting the new sheriffs of London at the Exchequer Bar by the Recorder, or other council of the city, for the approval of their election by the Sovereign, was observed.

The property in respect of which the first service is rendered is a piece of ground called "The Moors," in Salop, the rent of which is paid by the City Solicitor cutting two bundles of faggots with a bill-hook and hatchet, one of which is sharp and the other blunt.

Ancient Records.

Equally curious is the second service rendered in respect of a tenement called "The Forge." The original grant of the forge was made to Walter le Brun, a farrier in the Strand, who was to have a piece of ground in the parish of St. Clement Danes to have a forge there, he rendering six loaves for it. The shoes in the ceremony are 700 years old.

The record appears in the Great Roll of the Exchequer of "19 Henry III." This entry gives no clue to the exact locality of the forge but, although the small plot of land granted by Henry III. cannot be identified with certainty, it is thought to have been in the immediate neighborhood of Milford-lane, Strand, when the district beyond the city's liberties was open fields.

Tradition attaching to this quaint grant is that an itinerant farrier had established himself on the Knights Templars' tilting ground so as to be in readiness to replace the cast shoes of horses or to repair damage to the knights' armor. His debt and prompt services came to the notice of the King, who rewarded him with the grant.

GETS A MOOSE.

Dr. Frank Boyaner returned to the city yesterday from a hunting trip and he was in quite a happy frame of mind, as he had the good fortune to bring down a fine moose weighing between 600 and 650 pounds and with a magnificent head. Dr. Boyaner went into the woods near Clarendon and the monarch of the forest was laid low by a shot which Dr. Boyaner fired early on Saturday morning when he had been out only a very short while. The carcass is to be brought out today. Dr. Boyaner will have the head mounted.

WINDSOR CARING FOR FIRE VICTIMS

Facing Problem of Providing For 42 Families Rendered Homeless

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Windsor, N. S., Nov. 10.—The town of Windsor was today facing the problem of caring for the forty families rendered homeless in the conflagration that swept through the business and residential section yesterday morning. Many of those who lost their homes must be cared for until able to get re-established and for this purpose a relief commission was formed today composed of the mayor and town council. Already gifts of money have been received, including one thousand dollars from the City of St. John and a like amount from Halifax while the Nova Scotia Red Cross Society sent a check for $300.

Insurance underwriters checking up the losses today were unable to give out any definite figures but it was apparent that the damage would approach $350,000 and that the insurance would cover but a small fraction of the total.
