

WESTMORLAND CO. LABOR OBJECTS TO A. E. TRITES

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Moncton, Sept. 25.—The Independent Labor party which met here yesterday afternoon to receive the report of the committee on the U. F. Labor convention which nominated A. E. Tritts as candidate in Westmorland on Monday last refused to adopt the committee's report and declined to endorse the Farmer candidate. In a heated discussion it was maintained that the 40-60 basis allowed by the Farmers was unfair to the Labor party and a resolution was passed staying action by the Labor party until a new United Farmer-Labor convention was called and the choice of a candidate made on a 50-50 basis.

YESTERDAY IN CITY CHURCHES

Eloquent and stirring addresses on Sunday school work were given at a largely attended meeting at the Baptist church at Mac's Bay last evening. C. W. Wasson, president of the St. John County Religious Education Council, presided, and led in the opening devotions. Robert Reid, treasurer of the Maritime Religious Education Council, made a strong appeal for support of the work of the Maritime Council and of the Sunday schools inside its domain. He referred to the golden jubilee convention that will be held in St. John in October. W. J. Shivers Durham, of Chicago, International Sunday school union, gave an address on Sunday methods, speaking under the three co-operation, organization and education. The speakers motored from St. John and back again. They were greatly encouraged by the interest and enthusiasm shown at the meeting.

At the main street Baptist church in the morning, the sermon was delivered by Rev. R. O. Morris, editor of the Maritime Baptist. A Sunday school rally in the afternoon was held in the auditorium of the church with the superintendent, W. J. McAlary presiding. The choir was composed of members of the Sunday school and led the singing in excellent manner. The primary department gave a selection that was specially pleasing.

The prizes were awarded as follows:

Those who made perfect attendance, Sherwood Armstrong, Dorothy Price, Elma Hamilton, Florence Welch, Marion McLean, Jessie Burk, Welsley Price, Elva Chapman, Beatrice Chapman. The prizes were rings and books. L. H. Thorne, one of the teachers, also made perfect attendance and he was given a special award. Those who were only absent one day were given special mention. They were: Arnold Hamilton, Alfred Welch, Herbert Lilley, Dorothy Christie, Donald Harris, Helen Thompson, Laura Knorr, Marion Cowan, Robert Morrell, Alice Morrell, Mabel McDonald, Elsie Chapman, Jessie Scott, George McDonald and Margaret Akkerley of the primary department, Miss M. D. Morrell and J. W. McAlary, a teacher.

In the German street Baptist church at the morning service, J. H. McGorman, a member of the congregation, son of William McGorman, gave an excellent sermon on "The Unchanging Christ." Mr. McGorman has been the assistant pastor at Amherst Baptist church for the last year and he will leave soon to continue his studies at Acadia Theological College.

The sacrament of Baptism was administered in Trinity Episcopal church in the afternoon and in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at the morning service.

The Methodist ministers in the city observed their usual monthly interchange of pulpits yesterday morning. Rev. Neil MacLauchlan, of the Queen square church, exchanged with Rev. R. G. Fulton, of Crutcher church. Rev. H. E. Thomas, of Exmouth street church, exchanged with Rev. H. B. Clarke, of the Portland Methodist church. Rev. E. Styles, of the Garnant street church, exchanged with Rev. J. H. Heaney, of the Carleton church.

In the Anglican churches yesterday reference was made to the illness of His Lordship Bishop Richardson, who is to undergo an operation in Montreal today. Prayers for his speedy recovery were offered.

A St. John branch of the Anglo-Catholic Union of Canada was formed last night at the parish hall of the Mission church of St. John the Baptist. Addresses were given by Rev. Father J. V. Young, chairman of the meeting; H. B. Schofield, Ronald Pith and E. E. Blair.

Genuine!

WHEN it comes to settling vexing questions finally and in brief phrases, our old friend the dictionary is often of greatest service. Of the work "GENUINE", for instance, the first comment of such an authority as the "Standard" is this: "GENUINE—OF THE ORIGINAL OR TRUE STOCK".

Well over thirty years ago, the process of gripping brush bristles everlastingly in hard vulcanized rubber was originated by the proprietors of Rubberset Company.

Then followed the adoption of the trade name RUBBERSET and of the practice of imprinting it plainly and permanently upon every brush so made, to distinguish it among all brushes throughout the world as the product of Rubberset Company.

These processes—widely imitated but never successfully duplicated—are to this day practised in absolute faithfulness in the factories of the originators, and to the brushes so made is affixed YOUR PROTECTION the old original trade name.

"GENUINE" RUBBERSETS, then—"of the ORIGINAL or TRUE STOCK"—can be none other than those brushes produced in our factories and bearing no trade name other than that most famous of all brush trade names—RUBBERSET.

Insist upon seeing it, as illustrated herewith, upon every brush you buy.

PRICE OF TICKETS GOES TO HUNGRY

New York, Sept. 26.—Rev. Clifton Macdon, rector of All Souls' church, sent to a newspaper a check for the amount which he had planned to pay for tickets for the coming world's series, and asked that the money be used to feed hungry men and women.

He said he had been a baseball fan for years, but his conscience would not permit him to use the money to buy tickets of the series when the unemployed were unable to get enough to eat. He intends later to give for the aid of the unemployed the money he had planned to spend in a shooting trip next month.

He suggested that a world's series between teams finishing second be held for the aid of the unemployed.

PROTESTANTS AND CATHOLICS UNITE

Sydney, N. S., Sept. 25.—Rev. B. H. Hamilton, secretary of the Sydney Social Service Council had received an offer of the permanent secretaryship of a similar council now being organized in Trinidad, by the combined Protestant and Roman Catholic churches.

CLASSICS POOR PAY.

New York, Sept. 26.—Percy T. Jones, a tutor of Greek and Latin, was arrested for stealing and selling furniture. "I had to do it to live," he said. "I can't make enough from tutoring to pay my board."

SAY POLICEMEN ARE BOOTLEGGERS

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Federal officials today had started an exhaustive investigation of the Chicago police department as a result of an appeal last night by Chas. Fitzgarris, chief of police, who declared that, in his belief, "half of the city's 5,000 policemen were bootleggers, plying their illicit liquor operations much more industriously than they watched over the city."

FAIR VALE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The closing of the Fair Vale Sunday School took place for the season yesterday. A general review of the season's work and the presentation of the prizes won during the summer by the children were the chief features of the day. The various reports showed that the school had enjoyed a successful season and that there was a balance of $30 on hand which it was decided to turn over to the St. John Protestant Orphanage fund. Just prior to closing a short address was given the school by W. H. White.

G. M. Henry delivered a powerful sermon last night at the Edith Avenue Hall in East St. John on "Fighting for Christ." This meeting marked the close of the summer work and was largely attended.

A special congregational rally was held in the Fairview Methodist church yesterday afternoon and a representative from each department of church work gave a short address. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. C. Rice. A Sunday School rally was also held in the afternoon under the direction of assistant superintendent, Harry Sweet.

A rally was held yesterday in the St. David's Sunday School although the affair was held in the auditorium of the church occurring to the school rooms be as yet uncompleted. Robert Reid, superintendent of the school was in charge of the affair. During the afternoon the badges won by the C. S. E. T. boys at Camp Galahad this summer were presented to—T. W. Royden Christopher, Trill Rangers, Donald Donnelly, Gordon Malcolm, Harry Mason, Edwin McGowan, Harold Pheneey, Donald Smith and George Turner.

Miss Eva Mitchell had charge of the exercises in St. Mary's Sunday school and the rally was one of the most successful in the history of the church. In all, 450 attended, making a record for a Sunday school rally in St. Mary's. The programme opened with a selection by the band. Rev. R. T. McKim led the devotions. Those taking part in the programme were—Margaret Adams, Bertha Barton and Helen Hurd.

An address was given by Rev. W. B. Williston of West Chatham.

In the Charlotte street Baptist church the choir appeared for the first time in surplices and numbered twenty-two. Rev. J. H. Jenner conducted the services. The music was of a special nature. A. C. Smith and Mrs. James Patterson were the soloists and S. M. Stout, the organist. D. C. Clark presided for the rally exercises. Those who took part were—Ruth Rockwell, Donald McLeod and S. E. Fisher.

Y. W. C. A. INDOOR-OUTDOOR CLUB TENNIS TEA

The Indoor-Outdoor club of the Y. W. C. A. brought a successful season of tennis to a close with a tennis banquet tea on Saturday afternoon in the recreational centre. Miss C. C. Whitefield, physical director, was the convener, and under her direction was a small corps of workers which added materially to the success of the function. Miss J. Pile, Miss MacFadden, Miss S. Mithers and Miss E. McKinnon were in charge of the decorations. For the excellent programme Miss Pile, Mrs. R. Ryan and Miss G. Johnston were pianists, and Wilfred Daldell was the violinist. Mrs. J. A. McAvity and Mrs. E. C. Weyman presided over the pouring of the tea and coffee. Mrs. J. D. Hunter, Miss H. Carpenter, and Miss Jean MacAfee were the fortune tellers.
