SON OF FITZSIMMONS

JUST LIKE HIS DAD

"Just like the old man!"
That was the expression heard on all sides Monday night at the Metropolitan A. C., in Newark, where Bob Fitzsimmons, Junior, made his professional boxing debut. Young Bob met Ed. Kinney, a light heavyweight of Harrison, who is reputed to have raised merry hob with such good ones as Charlie Weiner, Clay Turner and Battling Levinsky, among others. When the eight-round contest was over Young Fritz stood on the winner by a margin so great that only a knockout could have made the victory more complete.

Physically, Young Bob's resemblance to Old Bob is most striking. He looks only the conspicuous freckles and knee-knees of his illustrious dad. He has the same ruddy color. His general architecture is the same. He is slim-waisted. There is something about his profile, general contour of head and style of carriage that is reminiscent of "Rube" Bob. The chief difference is that the youngster is built on bigger lines. He weighs 170 pounds, and stands slightly over six feet.
His dad was many pounds lighter in weight, and about an inch shorter in stature.

The Carleton skating rink opened last night, with a large number in attendance. The band furnished a delightful programme of music.

FOR RELIEF OF FIRE SUFFERERS

A splendid response to the appeal sent out by the Women's Council committee for the relief of families made destitute by the recent fire in Mill street, has been made. All day yesterday the committee was busily employed in receiving donations of clothing, bedding and other necessaries, as well as cash gifts, and just as busily engaged in their distribution.

Rev. Father Young, of the Mission church St. John Baptist, gave valuable aid in helping locate the fire sufferers, all of whom, with the exception of the Craig family, were found by the workers.

Aside from clothing and other donations, $229.50 in cash was received by Mrs. A. J. Mulcahy, treasurer of the committee.

SENTENCED TO PRISON.

In the county court on Thursday, Judge Armstrong presiding, a sentence of two years for stealing and seven years for breaking and entering was imposed on Arnold Reed, alias George Thomas, and two years and six months on the same charges on Walter Axel. They were tried under the speedy trials act on a charge of breaking and entering the shop of Sterling E. Kennedy and stealing therefrom.

SIDELIGHTS ON SPORT

With weather conditions favorable for good ice local skaters are daily training for the meets which are to be held in St.
John this winter. From the present outlook competition will be keen and fans should see some of the best racing in years.

The bowling enthusiasts are all out practising for the contemplated Christmas prizes of turkeys. The pin fall artist who is lucky enough to get one of these birds this year will have every reason to be proud, for they are well worth winning.

There is a movement on foot among former hockey players to hold a match game on Christmas day, if weather conditions are favorable. They are hoping that the ice on Lily Lake will be good enough to allow them to enjoy their favorite pastime.

Although this is not the season for baseball, fans are still discussing the possibility of minor league ball here next year. To a baseball fan or player there is only one game; other lines of sport only fillers in.

H. L. Worden had the honor of firing the first stone on the Hampton Curling rink last night. The ice was in fair condition and arrangements are being made for the opening on Christmas day. Other curling rinks are being put in condition for the opening.

Bob Martin must have discovered Jack Dempsey's method of hitting a man so hard that he cannot come out of his corner for the next round. Bill Bresnahan should seek out Jess Willard and have a confidential chat on their respective feelings after that blow.

FOR THE WOMEN IMMIGRANTS

At a meeting of the St. John branch of the Canadian Council for the Immigration of Women for Household Service held yesterday in the board of trade rooms, encouraging reports were submitted as to the work for the opening of the women's hostel in Britain street.
Mrs. H. A. Powell, president, was in the chair. The appointment of Mrs. J.
Gordon as matron of the hostel, was ratified. It was announced that the building had been taken over from the Salvation Army, that it was in fine condition, and that $150 worth of furniture had been installed, while the house committee expects to have it ready for occupation next week.

Mrs. H. Lawrence, member for New Brunswick on the dominion branch of the council, told of the work being done in connection with women immigrants passing through the city. She gave an interesting address, and on motion of London, Dec. 20.—The negotiations be-

Britain, and a Russian plenipotentiary, on behalf of Soviet Russia, with a view to bringing about repatriation of prisoners, have not been definitely broken, but postponed to permit the two representatives to return to their respective countries and confer with their governments.

A Thrilling Tribute to the Heroic Police of Every City

"THE MIDNIGHT PATROL"

—OR—
"BLUECOATS vs. THE WILY CHINEE"

ONE of the most exciting and swiftly moving dramas to be shown on the screen is the great special attraction "The Midnight Patrol." It is a story of life in the colorful Chinese quarter of a western city, produced by Thomas H.
Ince. It shows the work of the police in the district, the bravery of the bluecoats in facing great danger, and the cunning and stealth of the Orientals and white men of the underworld who live by their wits and the misfortune of others. Although melodramatic, the story is told with line restraint, and it is never mawkish or overdone. In the estimation of the film trade and exhibitors it is one of the greatest melodramas in the international market.
