A STRANGE GIFT. Probably the most strange present ever given to a bride was that which an eccentric old gentleman sent on the occasion of the marriage of Edward Ridley, formerly Mr. Justice Ridley. It was the skeleton of an Austrian grenadier!

The donor had once seen the future Lady Ridley making a study from a skull and vowed he would send her a whole skeleton when she married. So among the presents was a tall oak box containing the skeleton, a greivous addition to Miss Bromley Davenport's other charming gifts—London Chronicle.
