

POOR DOCUMENT

MC 2035

20

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1923

The Evening Times Pictorial Page

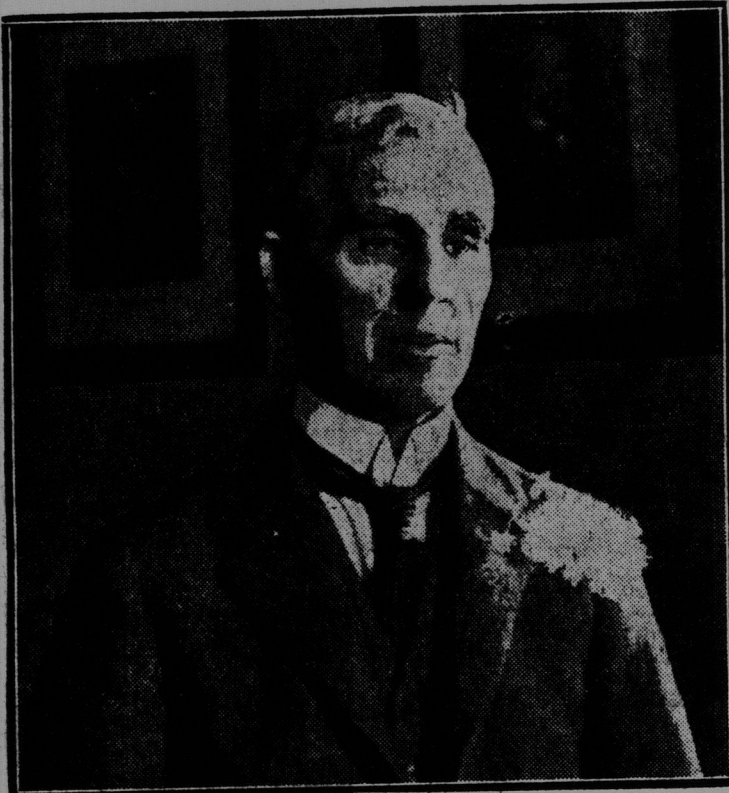

POILU ON GUARD IN ESSEN—France Looking Down on Keduig Strasse in Chief City of the Ruhr, Where Trouble Is Feared at Any Time.

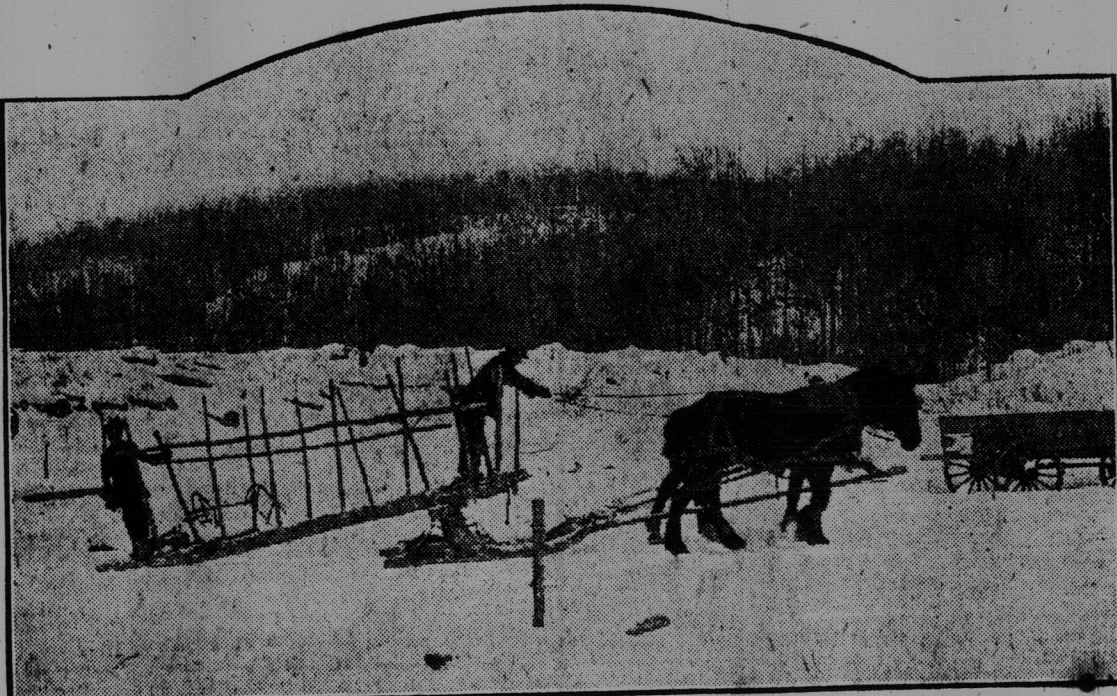

A BLUENOSE CONTESTS THE RACE — "Miss Halifax" Leaves Her Home by the Sea to Enter the "Miss Canada" Competition at Montreal.

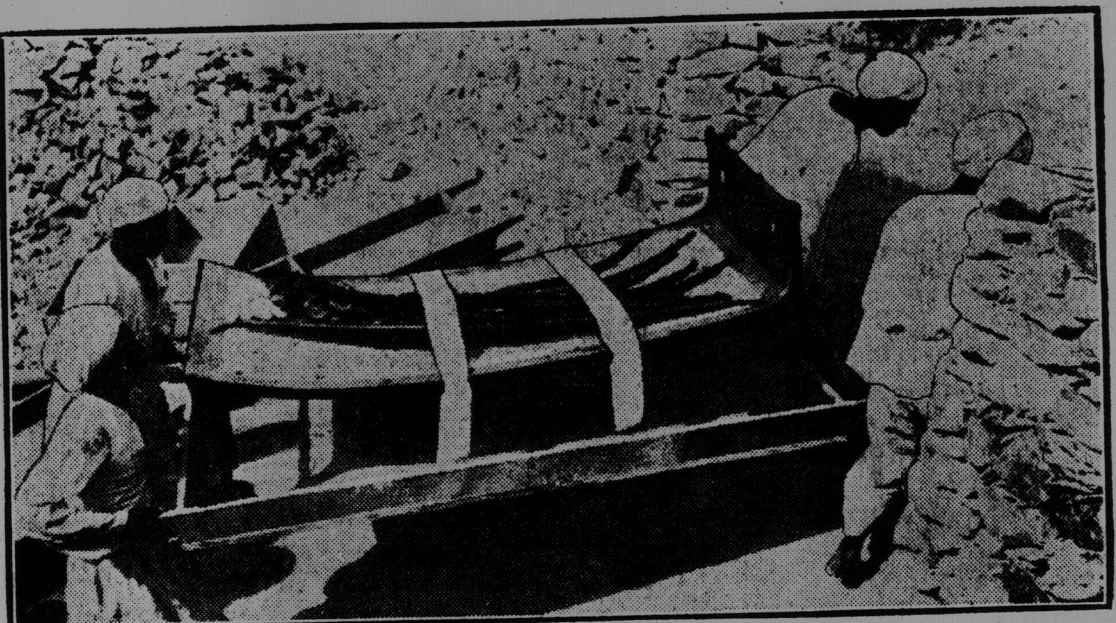

GOOD-BYE TO RHINELAND!—Last of American Army Marches Out of Ehrenbreitstein With Colors Flying.

FEDERAL MINISTERS' RIGHT-HAND MEN—Mr. J. H. Saunders, Deputy Minister of Finance, in His Office at Ottawa.

RESEMBLES INDIAN'S TRAVOIS—Habitant's Sleigh for Hauling Cordwood, Near Coaticook, Que.

A NOT TOO DOWNY COUCH—Bed of King Tutankhamen, with Bows and Walking Stick, Being Removed From 3,000-Year-Old Tomb in Valley of the Kings, Egypt.

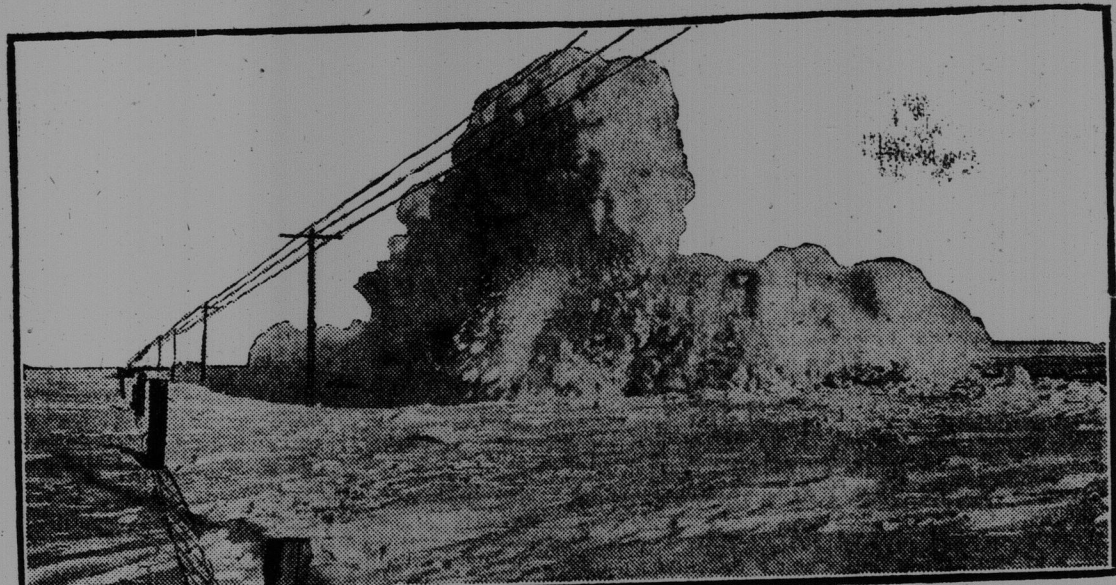

JUST A LITTLE TUMBLE While Snowshoeing in Suburbs of Toronto.

AN OUTPOST HOSPITAL, Established by Ontario Division of Canadian Red Cross, at Wilberforce, Haliburton County, Ont.

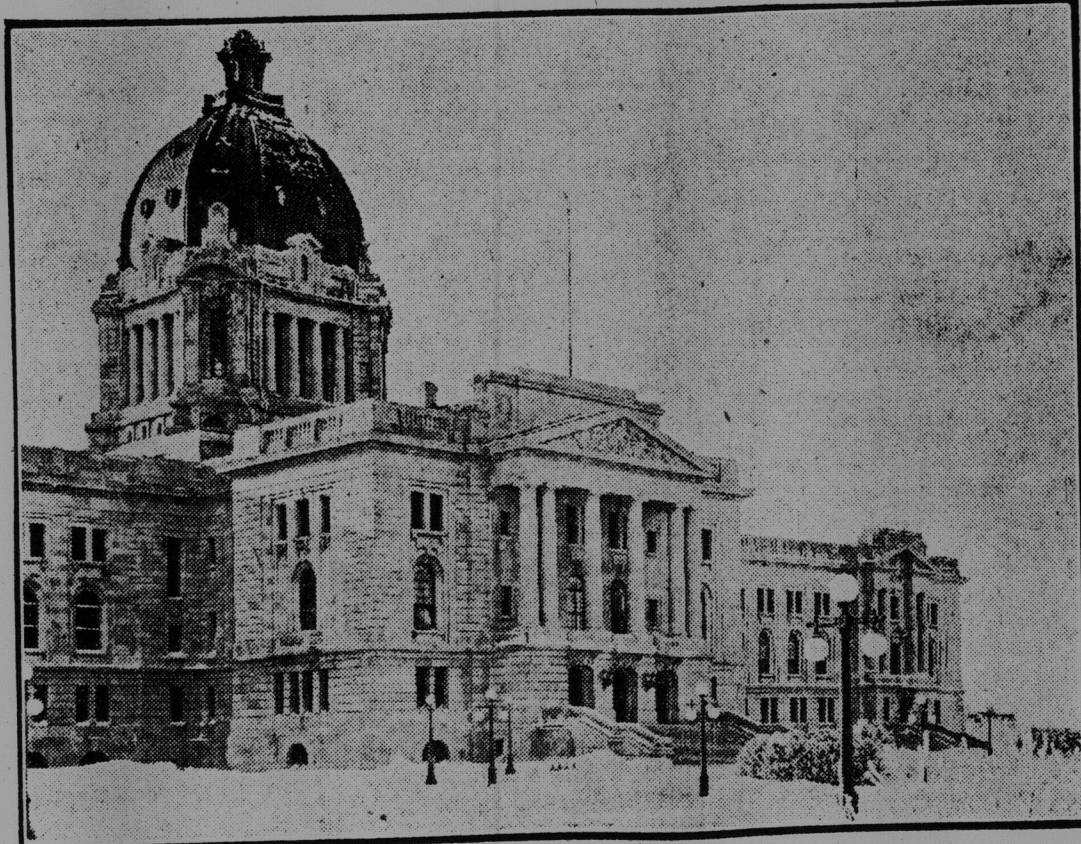

A FUTURE KING — Prince Michael, Son and Heir of Crown Prince Carol of Rumania.

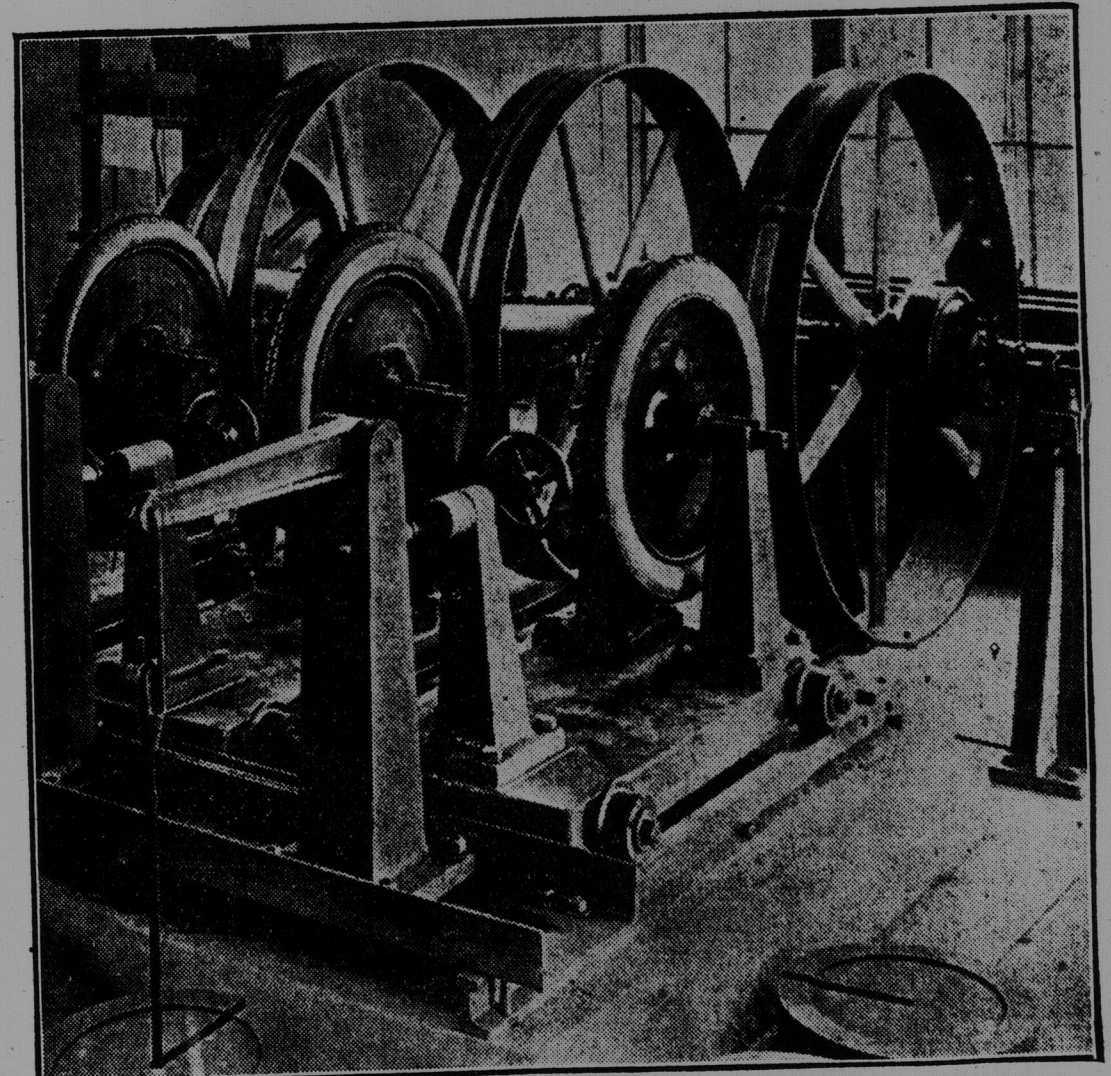

RAILWAY FIGHTS KING WINTER—Snow Plow in Action on Western Canada Lines of Canadian National.

AMONG THE POMERANIANS—Miss Melba Proctor With Two Pets at the Waldorf Astoria Roof Garden Show, New York.

SASKATCHEWAN'S PRIDE—Parliament Buildings at Regina in Their Winter Setting.

HOW LONG WILL TIRES LAST?—Testing Them Out in Washington, With Pressure Against Wheels, With Road-like Surface, Bumps and All. They Are Run Day and Night Until Worn Out.