London, July 22.
The English Ministry has decided to preserve the Irish Church Bill, notwithstanding the heavy vote against it on Tuesday, and to night it was brought up in the House of Lords for further action. The debate which ensued revealed the fact that a compromise had been effected, both parties seeming agreed that the differences concerning the preamble and the 68 clause shall not be an insuperable obstacle to the passage of the Bill.

By the French Cable.
London, July 24.

It will be gratifying to all Americans that one of the earliest messages by the French Atlantic Cable communicates to them the intelligence that London to day, for a time (and that time the hour of "change") met to do honor to G. Peabody, the distinguished American philanthropist. Midway between his office and the Royal Exchange the grateful citizens have erected a large bronze statue in his honor which to day was uncovered before the Prince of Wales shortly after 4 o'clock. His Royal Highness spoke in deserved eulogistic terms of Mr. Peabody, and was followed by Mr. Moile, who was most enthusiastically cheered. His speech around the Exchange was entirely suspended until nearly half past four o'clock.

London, 6:10 P. M.
A cable was introduced in the telegraph bill protecting submarine cables landed on the shores of the United Kingdom, and binding post offices to collect and distribute messages.

After Wednesday's Cabinet Council, Lord Granville and Cairns, Dr. Ball and the Irish Attorney General met to discuss compromise terms. The Government and Opposition accepted the conditions after the Premier's statement yesterday. The Irish Church Bill only awaits the Royal assent.

Mr. Granville Murray has been ejected from his club by a vote of 190 to 10.

It is reported that a new cable is projected direct from Milford to the American continent.

DESTRUCTIVE CYCLONE IN INDIA.—The two cyclones, or hurricanes, which visited India, one on May 16, and the other on June 9, were very destructive in their effects, though they were far inferior in violence to the terrible storms of 1864 and 1867. The plain crop was ruined, but most of the other crops escaped. At Calcutta business was entirely suspended. Few merchants were able to reach their places of business, and those who did found themselves minus their native employees. The roof of the Lock Hospital fell in, killing two women and wounding nine others. Trees were blown down, brick houses were injured, and huts were generally leveled with the ground wherever they were not sheltered. The shipping rode out with few exceptions, but cargo boats were swept away, and some lives must have been lost. In the country the huts of the peasantry were blown down in all directions, except where they were protected by thick trees. No news of shipping disasters have been reported. One paper asserts that ten thousand lives were lost by the first cyclone—that of May 16.

WEATHER TALK.—By common consent, among all civilized people, the state of the weather is one of the primary topics of conversation. A person meeting his friend gives to this the preference, because he knows that though on many other points they may entertain differences of opinion, on this they will be pretty sure to agree. A dispute between them will hardly arise as to whether it is raining, whether it is hot or whether it is cold. How much would the spheres of this style of conversation be enlarged, and how much would the pleasure of each other to morrow morning the weather would be good for skating, or that the present rain would cease, at two o'clock, and that their families might join at three for a pleasant excursion to the Central Park, but that they must be back at six, as the thunder-storm is present occurring at Buffalo would arrive in New York at that hour.—J. W. DRAPEL, in Harper's Magazine for August.

UNION OF THE WESLEYANS AND METHODISTS IN IRELAND.—After more than half a century's separation, says Saunders's News-letter, the Wesleyan and Primitive Methodist bodies in Ireland are likely again to become one. It appears that at the Wesleyan Conference, which has just met in Cork, communications were received from several district meetings to the effect that practical steps should be taken to promote a Union of the two bodies. It was resolved that the Conference should appoint a Committee to confer with a Committee appointed by the Primitive Society.

London, July 23.
The building of the Railway has at last commenced in Northumberland. On Monday last we noticed the track being laid along the coast of the New Brunswick Steam Company and we are informed that the depot is to be right at the head of the Wharf. There has been a good deal said about the Intercolonial, but there will be considerable deal carried along this track. The company are staves at pushing ahead.—Union, Advocate July 22.

The Standard.

SAINT ANDREWS, JULY 28, 1859

A portion of the Nova Scotia Press has really become rabid; it comes out in such unmistakable language as leaves no room to doubt of its strong annexation feelings,—anything it says but confederation. We happened to meet some gentlemen from Halifax a few days ago, and upon enquiring of them the true state of feeling in that Province, was surprised to learn that a minority of the people were blindly led by political mountebanks, to support and advocate a feeling of hatred towards Canada, and a love for annexation to the United States.—See annexing emigration to the States. There are sufficient confederates to counteract such an unwise and ruinous policy, and to advocate a larger union among the Colonies. Mr. Howe comes in for a large share of abuse from his anti-confederate friends; who urge that it was his speeches and efforts that led them to oppose a union of the Colonies. But he has changed his mind and returned to his old policy of cementing the Provinces together by a threefold bond of union; and other leading men are also "accepting the situation."

The crops generally throughout the County look well, but are not as far forward as usual in July. This is said to be owing to the cool spring and summer—true, there are occasionally hot days, with a bright sunshine, but the mornings and nights are cold, and very few showers have fallen to moisten the parched earth. The grass crop in many localities is not as heavy as it was last year, but the yield is believed, will be sufficient for the keep of the present stock. Potatoes look well, but we regret to learn have been attacked by the "disease" which for years past, proved so ruinous to a good supply of this indispensable esculent.

MURDER AT CALAIS.—A sailor belonging to a schooner at Calais, while passing along the street near the railway bridge on Saturday night last about 11 o'clock, encountered a lot of roughs and after passing them, was struck by a large stone on the back of the head, breaking the skull. The man fell, and while insensible, the miscreant jumped on him cutting deep gashes in his face and otherwise disfiguring him. After some time the unfortunate man was able to crawl back to his vessel. Early on Sunday morning medical aid was procured, and his wounds dressed, but the poor fellow only lived a couple of hours, when death put an end to his sufferings. The authorities succeeded in taking up some of the gang, and lodged them in the lock up, and it was said on Monday evening, after their examination, that they would be committed to jail at Machias, to be tried for murder. A coroner's jury was held on the body, but we have not heard their verdict. The citizens of Calais were very much excited at the horrible act, and are making efforts to bring the remaining perpetrators of the deed to justice.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.—In another column we publish Mr. Neill's card. This Hotel is neatly furnished, the tables well supplied with the best articles which can be purchased, and attentive waiters are ever ready to attend to the wishes of travellers. In addition to this the proprietor is attentive and obliging and spares neither expense or trouble to make his patrons happy and pleased.

New Potatoes raised in Woodstock by Daniel Jones, appeared on the 12th inst., for sale.

AGRICULTURAL.—At a meeting of the Directors of the Charlotte County Agricultural Society, held last week, they decided to hold the Annual Ploughing Match on Tuesday the 12th of October next, and the Cattle Show & Fair of the following day, 13th. A list of the Penitents will be published in a few days.

NEW JUDGE.—We believe that the present Attorney General, Hon. A. R. Wetmore, will shortly be elevated to the Bench. No doubt some of our contemporaries will put it that "the Standard" is reviving the report, &c., be this as it may, we generally have good grounds for publishing such information. The question arises who is to be appointed to Mr. Wetmore's office? Some two or three gentlemen have been named, and a good deal of banter has been written as to "the claims of certain sections" to fill seats at the Council Board. There is altogether too much of this village politician argument, in matters of Provincial import, and we are sorry to add a disposition also to make unfavorable comparisons—while it is generally acknowledged that "comparisons are odious." Candidly speaking, there is a selfishness in politics which cannot honestly be denied, and it generally follows that the "party in power" will advance the interests of their supporters in preference to those of their opponents; this is natural, and an old tried stage, possessing the necessary abilities is usually selected to fill an office when it becomes vacant. This brings us to the consideration who is to be Mr. Wetmore's successor?

The question can be easily answered. One of the Government's most powerful supporters' last Session, was W. H. NEEDHAM, Esq., whose legal, political, professional and administrative standing is equal to any of those persons we have heard named for the office, and in some cases beyond them. It has been promised that Mr. Needham has been promised the office; we trust the report is correct; his appointment would add a powerful debater to the Government; and we may add that he is familiar with the duties of the office having for some years conducted the criminal business in several counties, and was the active secretary to the Law Commissioners to revise the Laws of this Province in 1853, which duty he performed to their satisfaction.

CAPT CAMPBELL.—We notice that our young friend Capt. Howard Campbell, son of the Postmaster of this Town has received the command of a splendid new Barque named the "Aphrodite" of 830 tons carpenter's measure, or 440 tons Register, and classed A 1 6 years in French Lloyd's. The ship is owned by St. John and Liverpool merchants. Capt. Campbell, had the advantage of a thorough nautical education at the naval school in England, has made several voyages to the East Indies, and other parts of the world, and is said to be a most competent master mariner.

A new line of Railroad was recently opened on the Island of Jamaica, which was celebrated with a grand banquet, attended by the Governor and principal officials. There are now twenty two miles of railroad lines on the Island.

HARD RIDING.—A man in New York is reported to have ridden a velocipede five hundred miles in fifty consecutive hours less twelve minutes. He made the first fifty miles in 3 hours and 37 minutes. The purse was $250, which was dearly won.

The new mail arrangement in Maine, goes into operation this day. The mail for Calais leaves Bangor at 6.45 p. m., these changes have been made owing to the facilities afforded by the E & N. A. Railway.

THE NEW YORKERS are making an effort to get up a monster Jubilee, to celebrate the completion of the Pacific Railroad. It is anticipated that it will be composed of nearly double the number of vocalists and performers, present at the Peace Jubilee in Boston.

Persons indebted to this office for one year and upwards, are notified that their accounts must be paid without further delay.

We notice the introduction of several Mowing Machines and horse rakes here this season, they do the work rapidly and well.

"Colonel" Hagerty of Fenian fame, who was appointed U. S. Consul to Glasgow, has met with the refusal of the British Government to recognize him. The Washington Government will consequently remove him elsewhere. The Imperial authorities, have done what was expected.

ITEMS.

Prof. Bailey is in Town; he is engaged on a geological survey of this County.

Mr. Elder of the "Daily Telegraph" was here on Tuesday last for a few hours.

INTER COLONIAL RAILWAY.—The Commissioners are now visiting those portions of the line under contract, and will take preliminary steps for the immediate letting of the other sections.

POTATO RUST.—We learn that the potato rust has made its appearance in King's County. On Friday Mr. John Belyea of Greenwich noticed some of his potatoes had been struck, and at once proceeded to dig, when he found that not only had the disease affected the stalk but had reached the potatoes, some of which were rotten. The appearance of the disease at so early a period, and the destruction of the potato immediately after the top was affected, are Early Blows.—[Daily News.]

THE COMING ECLIPSE.—The coming total eclipse of the sun, which will occur the 7th of August next, is the only one since 1834 which could be observed in any considerable portion of the country, and no other total eclipse will be visible in America during the present century. As a partial eclipse it will be visible all over the northern parts of this continent.

The Express brought among her passengers on Thursday night Sir James Anderson and Lord Sanford Cecil. In company with Wm. Thompson, Esq., they left again yesterday morning in the New York to be in time to witness the completion of the landing of the French cable at Duxbury, Mass.—News.

KNOCKED DOWN AND RUN OVER.—L. H. DeVet, Esq., while crossing Prince William street yesterday morning was knocked down by a wagon which was being driven very fast down King street and around the corner, and one of the wheels passed over the upper part of his arm, but fortunately without breaking the bone.—Id.

ANOTHER FOG TRUMPET.—The Halifax Express understands that the Dominion Government intend placing a Fog Trumpet on Seal Island, and that Mr. Smith, Inspector of Steamers, will proceed at once in the Steamer "Druid," to the Island, to make the necessary arrangements. In connection with this, we may say that the Trumpet at Sambro has, to a certain extent, proved a failure, and we hope that the Government will see to this matter, and have it put in good working order.

Queen Victoria is said to be in failing health. The London Medical Times and Gazette says the presence of a crowd or a succession of persons who are presented at court produces on her nervous system the piddleness and other symptoms common to land-men at sea. The Gazette adds that, considering her Majesty's habits of punctuality, and the hard labour she has undergone during her happily protracted reign, it can not be a matter of surprise that the nervous system should become fatigued.

DIED.
On the evening of the 21st inst., Julia A. beloved wife of the late C. R. Hatheway, Esq., aged 77 years. Thus within a few hours of each other, were those old and respectable inhabitants called from the things of time to those of eternity. As in life they were united in loving affection, so in death they were not parted. Their remains were interred together on Saturday last, and were followed to the grave by a large number of the inhabitants. On the 21st inst., Mary Cathrine, aged 19, third daughter of Capt. Hugh Maloney.
