THE NEW YEAR.

A Pleasant Holiday quietly spent in St. John.

There has never been a finer New Year's day in St. John than the one that is now rapidly passing away and will soon be a thing of the past.

The weather has been delightful, with a bright sun and a mild temperature. The day has been quietly spent by many people being on the streets, but with little drunkenness or rowdiness.

The holiday has been thoroughly enjoyed and opens the year in the most auspicious manner possible. The special events of the day will be detailed in our local columns.

NEW YEAR SERVICE.

Rev. Geo. Franco preached in St. David's church this forenoon on the text "All things have become new; old things have passed away."

At the Y. M. C. A. rooms this morning a concert service was held. It was led by George Young and was an extremely interesting and instructive nature.

There were several members of Mistletoe Lodge as well as other visitors present. The members turned out in force to perform their duty. Brother Copp was 77 years of age, and was one of the oldest members of the 8th of Northumberland Lodge, Newcastle, Advertiser.

Quite a number of men are now at work in Herby's shipyard at Harvey Bank. The dimensions of the bark which Mr. Turner is building are: length, 120 feet; breadth, 34 feet; depth, 10 feet. Her stem and keel are of copper fastened and iron-banded to built under French Lloyd's rules and class 12 years. C. F. Lee, who has a good world-wide reputation as a shipbuilder, is master builder, and expects to launch the vessel about the 1st of May.

LEAVING THE R.I.C.

Some time ago the train employees' union between Moncton and Newcastle petitioned the railway authorities to divide the run, which was altogether too long, especially in the winter season. An exchange says that "it is understood the railway authorities have granted the request of the men running on special between Moncton and Campbellton, and will divide the run from Moncton to Newcastle making one trip and Newcastle to Campbellton another. Many of the young and unmarried trainmen belonging to Moncton will be put on the route between Newcastle and Campbellton for the winter, while the married men will to a large extent, be put on the Moncton and Newcastle route." - Advertiser.

A LADY FROM THE FAR NORTH.

Miss Ota Kræmer, a native of Greenland, lectured in the Eleventh Baptist Church of Philadelphia, recently on Greenland and the dwarflike people of the North.

The lecturer entered the church by a rear door, and having removed her wraps in an ante-room, was escorted to the platform by the Rev. J. Newton Ritter. As she entered the room a buzz of surprise swept over the audience. Preacher Ritter is not a tall man, but beside him the Esquimaux lady was a pigmy.

She was assisted to the platform, and assistance was necessary, for she climbed the steps with difficulty and with the tolling steps of a baby. Backed up against a carved pulpit chair that towered over her, she stood with her hands on the chair's top. But no body listened to the music. The tiny woman on the platform monopolized attention.

Forty inches is her exact height. On the platform she looked slightly taller. It needed no camera to photograph her features on the minds of the audience. A dark face, but not swarthy, crowned with a tuft of light hair, and a golden hair, parted on the forehead, without bangs, and brushed back with a resolution, revealed her eyes, which were large, but strangely quiet, chubby lips, with arms unmanly short and curved, and a figure almost comical, strikingly displayed in dark green plaid, close-fitting and draped in fashion's latest mode. Her costume, however, and jewelry was suggested by bracelets and a heavy gold ring and a heavy gold watch chain ornamented with jeweled pendants.

She was introduced by Mr. Ritter, and, leaving her post beside the big chair, advanced to the front of the platform to a sign of hesitancy or diffidence. Her hand was extended and she lifted the fingers laid upon a low table, the other lay upon her watch-chain. This was her position throughout the larger part of the lecture. She rarely smiled, never gave vent to a word, and rarely spoke. More than once when speaking of the hardships of her country people, her eyes glistened and her voice trembled. Her face was pale, and her hands were cold. Her eyes were full of tears, and her hands were cold. Her face was pale, and her hands were cold.
