KILLED BY HIS SON

Shot While Out Hunting Grouse and Succumbs to His Injuries

Armstrong, Oct. 31.—A most painful and distressing accident, accompanied by fatal results, occurred here a few days ago. Henry Ehmk, the victim, accompanied by two of his sons, went out for a walk, and on the chance of seeing some grouse took their guns with them. When down on Cox Street, near the intersection of the Victoria and Esplanade streets, the three were walking through some brush, a 22 rifle in the hands of William, the youngest son, aged 16 years, accidentally went off, the bullet striking Mr. Ehmk near the base of the skull and coming out near the left ear. Medical assistance was sent for immediately and as soon as possible Dr. Van Kleeck was on the scene, and having made a hasty examination of the wounded man, ordered him to be carried to his home. A stretcher was procured and with all possible haste he was conveyed home. Upon arrival an operation was performed by Dr. Van Kleeck and Thompson. The bullet, which had entered the head, was passed away at 6.30, never having regained consciousness.

At the inquest evidence was given by Herman Ehmk and William Ehmk, and by Dr. Van Kleeck. The jury on conclusion of the proceedings handed in the following verdict: "That the deceased came to his death through the accidental discharge of a rifle in the hands of William Ehmk, and that no blame attaches to anyone in the matter."

The jury added a rider expressing sympathy with Mrs. Ehmk and family in the great loss which they have suffered. Henry Ehmk was born in the province of Schleswig-Holstein, on the 27th day of May, 1856. After the closing of this province to Germany he enlisted in the Prussian army and took an active part in the stirring Franco-German war. He and his wife emigrated to Canada in 1885 and came to reside in the hands of William Ehmk, and that no blame attaches to anyone in the matter."

HINTS FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Cold rain water and soap will remove machine grease from washable fabrics. Fish may be scaled much easier by first dipping them into boiling water for a minute.

Milk which has changed may be sweetened or rendered fit for use again by stirring in a little soda.

Boiling starch is much improved by the addition of sperm or salt, or both, or a little gum arabic dissolved.

Thoroughly wetting the hair once or twice with a solution of salt and water will keep it from falling out.

One teaspoonful of ammonia to a teaspoon of water applied with a rag will clean silver or gold jewelry perfectly.

Salt will curdle new milk, hence in preparing porridge, gravies etc., salt should not be added until the dish is prepared.

Fabrics which are dry and old may be removed from cotton or woolen goods with chloroform. It is a good plan to first cover the spot with olive oil or butter.

Clear, sublimed water will remove tea stains, pour the water through the strainer and thus prevent it spreading over the fabric.

Charcoal is recommended as an absorbent of gases in the milk room where foul gases are present. It should be freshly powdered and kept there continually, especially in hot weather when unwholesome odors are most liable to infect the milk.

Apply kerosene with a rag when you are about to put your stoves away for the summer, and it will prevent them from rusting. Gas heaters treated in this manner will possibly smoke a little when first lighted in the fall, but will soon be cleared.

The Dalles, Ore., Oct. 31.—In the presence of his father and brother, William Gilman, aged 45, a sheepherder, stabbed and killed his aged mother, who had remonstrated with him for his alleged intemperance. The stabbing occurred at the family home on a ranch near Antelope.

TURMOIL IN THE MEXICAN REPUBLIC

Supporters of President-Elect Madero Alleged to Be Aiding Revolutionists

Mexico City, Oct. 31.—Torn with dissension, her capital surrounded by bands of armed rebels who threaten to burn and loot the city; her president-elect accused of fostering the revolt in order that he may obtain the glory of quelling it; her provincial government disrupted by internal disturbances and threats of external war, Mexico faces one of the greatest crises in her career.

Following the open accusation by several Mexican newspapers that Francisco Madero was back of the Zapata rebellion, the de la Barra government added authenticity to the rumor when it openly accused Madero of making false promises to the rebels in order that he might prolong the revolt until early in November, when Madero would take office, and it is alleged, "put down" the rebellion for his own personal glory. In reply, his enemies charged that he would have died a natural death weeks ago had it not been financed by the Maderist faction.

In addition to this alleged plot of the Maderists, Dr. Francisco Vaqueria, secretary of the ministry of public education, is accused of plotting for General Reyes, and is reported to have a small army in readiness to take the field should the aged general decide to fight for the president. This Gomez denies, but the government warned him not to leave the city; so that he may have no opportunity of furthering any of his schemes.

The last federal detachment sent out to the suburbs has not been heard from, and it is thought that the Zapataists have cut the telephone wires leading into the city thus preventing any news from being received, except that brought by messengers. From present prospects, it is probable that Madero's inauguration will take place November 8, instead of November 5, as planned.

CRAZY MAN FOUND.

Search Party Rewarded By Locating Man.—Was Wandering in Woods.

After a hunt extending over three or four days the search party, which has been scouring the woods in the neighborhood of Cobham for a reputed crazy man, who was said to be wandering about muttering to himself and otherwise acting foolishly, was rewarded by locating their man on Saturday afternoon.

He was seated on a stump and looked half starved and altogether disreputable. When questioned he refused to answer and nothing could be learned as to his history or how he came to be wandering about in the condition he was in. In appearance he looked like an ordinary laborer of about 35 or 40 years of age. He had apparently not eaten for two or three days.

He was escorted by a constable to Duncan, where inquirers will be instituted and friends of the man, if he has any, located.

This morning she appeared in court in answer to the charge but in view of the gravity of the case a remand was given the prosecution until Friday.

A disturbance at the home resulted in the neighbors summoning the police. Police-Sergeant Claydars, when notified, went to the house and seeing the injured husband's condition, ordered her to be taken to once to the hospital. He was shot in the back, the bullet entering beneath the shoulder. The woman was arrested and has not been given bail. He was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, to commence at the expiration of his other sentence, making 15 months in all.

The young Seattle man named Bernard, who was remanded on Saturday on a charge of forgery after having been found guilty, that the attorney-general might be asked to allow a special sentence, was presented again this morning and sentenced to serve six months' imprisonment. The attorney-general declined to interfere. Bernard forged two cheques, one of which he passed to the proprietress of the Waverley rooms but shortly afterwards made good when she demanded the money back.
