NOVA SCOTIA CROPS.

High Prices Make Up for a Product Smaller Than Usual.

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 8.—B. W. Chapman, secretary for agriculture for Nova Scotia, has issued his autumn report of the crops of the province. He says:

"The result of the harvest this year does not bear out the prospect foreshadowed in my report of June. The season was unusually early, and up to the first week in July the weather was favorable for the growth of all kinds of crops, but a drought set in about that time and retarded the growth of the grain. Except hay, all other field crops in Nova Scotia are under the average and not quite up to the season of 1900. The long continued dry weather in the summer months told strongly on grazing lands, consequently there was a decrease in the products of the dairy, and live stock is not quite in as good a condition as last year.
While there is a falling off in the quantity of crops, values are much higher and farmers having potatoes and grains and dairy produce to sell get such good prices that they are in a great measure compensated.
The fruit crop varied to a considerable extent in different parts of the fruit valley, some orchards giving an abundant crop, others very light; but taking it as a whole it has been fairly large and the quality excellent, and owing to the failure of the apple crop in the upper provinces and parts of the United States, prices have been high and bid fair to go higher. The apples in some orchards were sold on the trees at prices unparalleled in the history of the province.

LOST MINES DISCOVERED.

HUCSON, Ariz., Nov. 8.—A Star special from Guaymas, Mexico, says: The lost Tayapa mines, celebrated in Spanish annals, having produced eighty millions of dollars in silver and gold in the seventeenth century, described on Spanish maps as being situated in Northwestern Mexico, about fifty leagues from the sea, near Dos Pillars have been found. As far back as 1858 Robert L'Aunelle, a celebrated French expert, declared the location of the Cieneguilla, in the Saburba district Sonora, to be identical with the lost Tayapa. The Spanish owners are said to have been murdered by their Indian slaves near the close of the seventeenth century, and it is stated, that for 100 years thereafter no one was allowed to enter that region. Explorers who, however, recently returned from Cieneguilla report having discovered the old stone prison, old smelters and also stupendous work accomplished by the ancients.

ALLEGED STEAMSHIP DEAL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—When an attempt was made to interview Emil Bauer, in this country of the Hamburg-American, regarding the report that Herr Balin, director of the Hamburg-American company, is in London trying to arrange the sale of eighteen steamers, it is believed, to J. Pierpont Morgan, an expressed surprise at the information caused and would only add: "This is all news to me. I have not heard a single word from Hamburg to indicate this. I cannot discuss it at all."

VERY PLAIN TALK.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—The trial of Dr.
Stephen W. Pollard and Mrs. Julia Thompson, charged with committing a criminal operation upon Mary Smith, was concluded yesterday. The jury, after being out over an hour, returned a verdict of "not guilty." Dr. F. B.
Johnston, K. C., counsel for Dr. Pollard, in his address to the jury, strongly attacked the morality of the department, which he said had used the "spy" system in endeavoring to convict the prisoners, and had in the endeavoring to lay a trap for them aided in the crime if a crime existed.

A NAUGHTY LORD.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Lord Neville was released from Parkhurst prison on ticket-of-leave yesterday. He was sentenced to five years penal servitude Feb. 15, 1898, for fraud in connection with a promissory note. His lordship spent most of the time during his incarceration in wheeling a barrow on the prison farm.

TERRIFIC GALES.

QUEENSTOWN, Nov. 8.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, from New York, Nov. 2, for Liverpool, which arrived here this morning was delayed twenty-four hours by terrific gales.
The weather was so violent that the steamer only logged two hundred and forty miles Nov. 5.

THE DEATH ROLL.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 8.—Hall Refat Pasha, the grand vizier, died this morning and Abdurrahman Pasha, minister of justice, has been appointed to succeed him ad interim.

HUBONIC PLAGUE.

GLASGOW, Nov. 8.—The authorities are satisfied that the bubonic plague has been stamped out. The last case of the disease reported was placed in hospital Nov. 1, and the period of incubation expires today.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

TONTHILL, Ont., Nov. 8.—William Tice, 25 years old, and unmarried, of Ridgville, was found dead in the bush with two bullet wounds in his head.
The case was one of suicide, the cause being continued ill-health.

FOR AMERICAN READERS.

Of Course England is Represented as About to be Powerless.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The Sultan's yielding to the French demands brings out the full gravity of the possibilities of the effect of the French seizure of Mitylene upon the crumbling edifice of Turkish despotism, says the Constantinople correspondent of the World.
The whole of European Turkey is seething with disorder. In Armenia the annual butcheries have been in full swing for the past three months and in the remainder of the empire there is the perennial violence, corruption, waste and lawlessness. From the army down to the magistracy every part of the machine of government is in a hopeless condition. In the opening of the diplomatic body at Constantinople any attempt at patching things up will be merely futile efforts. The news of the French intervention was suppressed at Constantinople for three days, but the Sultan's cabinet being in constant session showed that a serious crisis had arisen. The Sultan has been in a condition of epileptic fury, and his ministers, who live in perpetual terror of their lives, at his hands, were helpless and afraid to do or suggest anything.
It is believed in Constantinople that Russia is behind France in this business, and it is felt that the present trouble is inevitably destined to lead to developments in the Eastern question in which England will be powerless to make her influence felt.

THE KING'S BIRTHDAY.

The Duke of Cornwall is Now Prince of Wales and Chester.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The King in spending his birthday at Sandringham with the queen, the Prince and the Princess of Wales and the rest of the royal family. There has been no official observance of the day, with the exception of the customary salutes at Windsor and at the naval and military headquarters and the ringing of church bells.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Commenting upon the announcement that King Edward has conferred the title of Prince of Wales and Chester upon the Duke of Cornwall and York, the Tribune's London correspondent says that King Edward appears to have a happy knack of doing the right thing at the right moment, and his action in conferring the title on the Duke of Cornwall and York meets with a chorus of approval.
The duke has richly deserved the honor. It is a reward for the skillful manner in which he has accomplished his difficult mission to the British dominions beyond the seas. When the duke and duchess returned from their seven months' tour, it was stated in these despatches that many days would not elapse before the heir apparent would be created Prince of Wales, and the only reason why the announcement was not officially published a week ago was because the king wished it to be made known on his birthday.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Discovers More Trouble Ahead for the British Government.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—During the lengthy cabinet conference this week, a representative of the Associated Press learns the question of re-enforcing the old ballot laws came up for discussion. Many of the cabinet ministers were strongly in favor of putting in practice this form of conscription, for which certain obsolete laws already provide. Thus new legislation would be obviated. War Secretary Brodrick already has caused guarded feelers on this matter to be circulated in the press, for it appears to be almost impossible to keep the home forces up to adequate strength and supply the necessary reinforcements for South Africa on the volunteer system of enlistment alone. Such a strenuous measure, however, would doubtless cause a storm of disapproval in Great Britain, and it will not be enacted unless the war situation shall become graver.
What changes have come over the state of the country in two years can be judged from the fact that the war office has examined closely the old ballot laws, and has prepared an elaborate plan by which they can be sprung upon the public at a moment's notice.

ANOTHER NEGRO HANGED.

MADISON, Fla., Nov. 8.—Will Jones, a negro desperado, who recently killed three men in one day, two blacks and one white, and shot several other members of the sheriff's posse, was publicly hanged here shortly before noon today. There was no excitement, though extra guards had been provided. The desperado showed no weakening of nerve and made no confession or speech of repentance.

COLONIES REPRESENTED.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The first Lord Mayors show of the present century and of the reign of King Edward took place today and was more than usual interesting with a number of new features. Special attention was paid to the colonies, which were represented by attractive cars. The decorations of the streets were of the customary character. Big crowds lined the whole route of the procession. After the usual reception at the law courts, the procession completed its tour of the city and returned to the Guild hall.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Eastern and northern New York—Partly cloudy tonight; Sunday, fair; light westerly winds, becoming variable.

IS HE PRO-BOER?

Appointment of New Bishop of Worcester Severely Censured.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The appointment of Rev. Charles Gore, canon of Westminster, to be Bishop of Worcester, has raised both a political and an ecclesiastical storm. Only a few days previous to the announcement of his appointment Mr. Gore came out in the Times with a strong letter condemning the concentration camps and other severe measures in South Africa. Several of the government organs immediately stigmatized him as a pro-Boer and deplored the fact that such a talented author should have been so hopelessly misled. Their astonishment over Lord Salisbury's almost immediate afterwards elevating Mr.
Gore to the bishop's bench was so great that it took away their breath and, so far, appears to have stifled adverse press comment, though the matter continues to be the subject of keen private criticisms among lay and clerical supporters of the government. The Evangelical party in the church also bitterly upbraids Lord Salisbury for selecting a man so prominent in high church circles.

In less prejudiced quarters the affair is taken as one more example of Lord Salisbury's extraordinary cynicism and utter lack of interest in current events; though others see in it another instance of nepotism, as the former head of Tufton House, Oxford, and editor of Laur Mundell is a connection of the premier's family.
Among the curious features of the case is the fact that Canon Wm. John Knob Little, of Worcester, who replied to Mr. Gore's letter in the Times, bitterly abusing the writer and intimating that Mr. Gore was almost guilty of treason and was threatened with insanity, now comes under the jurisdiction of the new bishop.

A BANDIT SHOT

In Sensational Attempt to Hold Up Group of Gamblers.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 8.—One bandit was killed and one injured as the result of an attempt by three masked robbers to hold up the gambling house of Deel & Co. at Naco, Ariz., last night.
The dead bandit has been identified as Will Cravens of Dog Springs, N. M.
A group of gamblers and loungers obeyed when the desperadoes entered the saloon at a late hour and ordered "hands up." Cravens approached the roulette table and proceeded to fill a bag with the bank, cash which amounted to several thousand dollars. E. Ellis drew a revolver before the movement was detected by the robbers and Cravens fell dead when shot. The other bandits were demoralized and fled. One of them was wounded by another bullet from Ellis' revolver.
They reached their horses, which were hitched in the bush, and rode for the mountains, closely followed by a posse.

LONDON DAILY NEWS.

Makes a Violent Attack on the System of Concentration Camps.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Daily News today exhaustively surveys the concentration camps in South Africa, with the following conclusion:
"The truth is that the death rate in the camps is incomparably worse than anything Africa or Asia can show.
There is nothing to match it even in the mortality of the Indian famines, where cholera and other epidemics have to be contended with."
Statistics are produced in order to prove this assertion.
The government's advertisement for teachers to camp children, setting forth that "the term of employment will be one year certain," is prominently displayed as evidence that the authorities have no intention of ending the "wholesale destruction of human life." The Daily News urges all humane men not to wait for official reports, but to insist "on the camps being broken up and the people distributed among their friends, or removed to districts where a fresh attempt can be made, under competent organizations and with due regard to the preservation of life."

A DRUNKARD'S CRIME.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Sister Superior Agnes of the Academy of St. Mary of the Lake, at Lakewood, N. J., was shot in the shoulder and painfully injured today by John Lawlor, a former employee of the institution. Lawlor was employed as janitor of the academy, and was discharged for drunk-ness. He refused to leave until he had bade Sister Agnes good-bye. As she approached him Lawlor, who was still drunk, extended his hand, which she took and said good-bye. The man then turned away as if about to leave, but suddenly turned again, and before the sister could realize what he was about to do, he leveled a revolver at her and fired. Lawlor was arrested.

THE SPECTATOR'S OPINION.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The weekly papers tomorrow will have a good deal to say about the defeat of Tammany hall. The Spectator thinks that Mr.
Roosevelt's succession to the presidency, giving all reformers hope and confidence, weighed heavily in the contest, adding that it may be expected that his influence will be felt in other great American cities, like Philadelphia and Chicago, which, the paper says, are hardly in better condition than New York, though they are less closely watched by Europeans.

W. M. MACKAY'S BIG PURCHASE.

(Monroton Transcript)
W. M. Mackay of St. John has purchased from Hon. C. W. Robinson of this city several lots of timber land at Diligent River, Cumb. Co., N. S., paying $30,000 therefor. The negotiations were made by W. B. Dickson, the well known representative of that firm. It is also reported that Mr. Mackay, through Mr. Dickson has purchased 100 acres, called the Lower Lewis property at Dover. The price is said to be in the vicinity of $3,500.
