JOHN H. PARKS, DIED TODAY.

Passed Away at 11.30 After a Long Illness.

One of St. John's Best Known Manufacturers—In Him the City's Poor Lose a Friend.

In the death of John Hogan Parks, which occurred at his home on Mount Pleasant this forenoon, there passed away one who for many years was a prominent figure in the commercial life of St. John and a citizen whose name has been widely known in connection with manufacturing interests.

Mr. Parks has been prominently connected with the cotton industry, first established by his father, Wm. Parks, in St. John.

During the past year Mr. Parks has been in poor health although at times able to enjoy a drive about the city. Within the past week or so his illness assumed a more serious form and ended fatally at half-past eleven this forenoon.

LABOR CHIEFS AT WAR.

Extensive Fraud Charged in Chicago Federation of Labor—A Disgrace to Unionism.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Following the direct charge that money thus far collected by assessment from the labor unions of Chicago had been wasted and consumed in salaries, the Chicago Federation of Labor yesterday abolished its defence fund committee after a stormy session, during which lies were passed, incriminating charges were made and fistuffs were narrowly averted.

HUMOR OF THE DAY.

The Enthusiast—What's that! The Reliance a mile ahead? Oh, yes, that will never do. Give the Britisher a chance. By gum, I'd like to see him win this time! That's right. It would advance the interest of the sport. We're making it monotonous grabbing the cub every time. The Shamrock ought to win. (Ten minutes later.) Eh! What's that? Lipton is creeping up on him? Oh, come, that will never do! What's the matter with those dudes on the Reliance? Do they want to disgrace us? By gum. We ain't ready to give up that cup. No, sir—er. That blamed Britisher ain't man enough to come and get it, either. When we get ready to give it to him we will hand it over on a silver platter. The Reliance forever! Hooryay!

LABOR UNIONS HONOR LABOR'S HOLIDAY.

Fifteen Hundred Men in Grand Procession March Through Streets. Good Sport and Baseball.

The laborers and workmen of St. John turned out in grand style this morning. There were fully 1,500 men in line. Long before the hour fixed for the starting of the procession crowds had gathered in the vicinity of King street, East, eagerly awaiting the coming of the different unions.

The procession, which formed along the north side of King square and the rear of which extended almost to the rear of King street, East, did not, however, get under way until fully ten o'clock. The judging of the tenement's houses took up some of the time.

The men of the Hod Carriers' and Mortar Men's Union came next. They were preceded by a barouche, carrying John E. Welsh, of the International Laborers' Union, of Banor, Me.; James G. Corbett, financial secretary of the Hod Carriers' Union, and D. Murphy, treasurer. The hod carriers, about 50 in number, were dressed in suits made up of black shirt, dark trousers and white caps.

The bakers, dressed in immaculate suits of white, came next. There were 42 bakers in all in the procession. They were followed by the plumbers, who had with them a very pretty float. The float was a good representation of a bath room appointed with all up-to-date improvements in the line of plumbing.

Then came the Shingle Punchers' Union, about 25 all told. They were dressed in suits of gray. Following them came the employees of Hilyard Bros' mill. The men were in force, there being 109, besides 15 horsemen, in the procession. Hilyard Bros' men who were dressed in blue suits, were preceded by their own flag and drum band.

Next in the procession came the lime burners and quarrymen. They numbered 43 and were dressed in suits made up of black trousers, blue sweater and black hat.

The carpenters, of whom there were more than 100 in line, presented a neat appearance in their suits of black. They had with them a float symbolical of their craft. It was a pillar of wood, about ten feet in height, standing on a pedestal. On the top of the pillar was a curved piece with the legend "Carpenters' Union, No. 919." On the sides of the float in large letters was the motto "We Build Your Homes."

The men who came in for a large share of public admiration were the ship laborers, in and in their white shirts on the front of which were the letters "L. S. A." They looked the very embodiment of manhood and strength. They had two beautiful floats with them. The first was the model of the old sailing ship Robert Red. On the body of this float were the dates "1853-1903." The second float was the model of a modern steamer, called the "Edward VII."

The Freight Handlers' Union came next. They had with them a very pretty float, representing an engine and a train of passenger coaches. They were followed by the Carleton Cornet Band.

Then followed the Sheet Metal and Tin Workers, who, in their peculiar suits, looked like warriors of old. Their suits were made up of black trousers, blue shirt, tin cuffs and tin helmet. On the front of the shirt was a shield representing a pair of shears and a solder iron. They held in their hands wooden mallets. About 50 in all were in the procession.

The printers, dressed in black suits and silk hats, came next. There were 38 of them in line, representing both the Pressmen's Union and the St. John Typographical Union.

Following the printers came the cigar makers in two barouches. Next came Oscar Silberstein's float, a very pretty make-up, intended to advertise Mr. Silberstein's cigars. The Ragmen's Union brought up the rear. They were out in strength, there being four all told, mounted on the top of an elaborately gotten up float.

R. C. Sharkey, Charles McCristall, John Killen, J. Donovan, and D. Gibson. The programme includes horse races, late arrivals, greased pole contests, hundred yard dash, hop, step and jump, boy's race, high jump, hurdle race, standing jump, 220 yards dash, and a match race. A feature of the sports will be a tug of war between union teams.

BASE BALL.

"ROSES 12-LOVELL 1.

There was a fair crowd at the Shamrock ground this morning to witness the baseball game between the Lovells of Massachusetts and the Roses, St. John's crack locals. The game did not start till 11.47 o'clock, owing to the late arrival of the Boston train, which brought the Lovells.

The line-up of the teams was as follows: Lovells: Banderstein, left field; Wolfe, 3rd base; Love, catcher; Daley, short stop; Barnstead, 2nd base; Simons, pitcher and 1st base; McHugh, right field and 4th base; McDonald, right field and centre field; Sullivan, 1st base and 3rd base.

Roses: Finnemore, second base; McFarlane, left field; Hayes, catcher; Frisley, 1st base; Cunningham, centre field; White, short stop; J. Malcolm, right field; Titus, 3rd base; G. Malcolm, pitcher.

In the first inning the Roses made two runs as a result of two wild pitches on the part of the twirler for the visitors, and a muff on the part of the catcher. In this inning the visitors were blanked.

In the second inning the Roses pulled in two more runs. The short stop and the first baseman of the Lovells made two bad errors. The Lovells were again blanked in this inning.

The third inning was a merry-go-round for the Roses, every man in the team having a chance at the bat. The Lovells made five errors in this inning, which together with one stolen base and four pretty errors on the part of the visitors, had the effect of netting the home team six runs.

The Lovells were blanked in the fourth inning both teams were blanked. In the fifth the Roses were blanked, while the Lovells got their first and only run.

The Roses were just beginning their sixth inning at the bat and had succeeded in getting two men safely across the plate when Umpire McCarthy was forced to call the game in consequence of the rain, which began to fall at 12.15. The game was called off at precisely 12.30.

The score was twelve to one in favor of the home team. The game this afternoon started at 3 o'clock with Glueh in the box for the Roses and McHugh for the visitors.

FRANKLINS 9-TARTARS 8. This morning's game on the Victoria grounds between the Franklins and Tartars was an extra inning affair. It took ten innings to decide the contest, the Franklins winning 9 to 8. Briggs and Mills for the Franklins, and the Hughes and McDonald for the Tartars, were the batteries.

There were over 500 people present. McAllister umpired. The teams are playing again this afternoon.

LABOR DAY IN THE STATES. BOSTON, Sept. 7.—Organized labor celebrated labor day with two parades in this city, the first by the Knights of Labor, with 5,000 men in line and the second by the Trades Union, numbering upwards of 25,000 members. Both parades were reviewed by Gov. Bates at the State house and Mayor Collins at City Hall.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—Labor Day was celebrated here with a monster parade, followed by a mass meeting. About 20,000 marchers were in line. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 7.—President Roosevelt arrived in this city this morning. He was escorted by the 41st committee to Hanover Square, where he reviewed the labor parade and the parade of the National Association of Letter Carriers. Later he opened the state fair and delivered an address.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The middle states regatta under the auspices of the Potomac River Regatta Association was held here today and was witnessed by a large crowd. In all there are 18 races scheduled, the first beginning at ten o'clock and continuing until late in the afternoon.

LEICESTER, Eng., Sept. 7.—The Trades Union Congress opened its session here today. There were 468 delegates representing 25 trades, and a million and a half of unionists present.

The match game of golf between the Woodstock and St. John teams began this morning. The game was called off for lunch and was resumed about one o'clock. The score has not yet been made up, as some of the players have still another round to go.

Mr. Potter (with great presence of mind)—So I did, my dear. The reason Hicks didn't see me was because he wasn't there himself. Trying to deceive his wife, probably.

Mrs. Potter—The wretch! And he would try to rob me of the confidence I have in you. I always did see something about that man I didn't like.—Tit-Bits.

TORTURE AND MASSACRE.

Turkish Troops Commit More Terrible Atrocities.

Survivors Living on Grass—Priest's Son Flayed Alive—Turkish Ambassador Denies Report

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Malls correspondent at Monastir, telegraphing under Sunday's date says: There is no doubt that a Turkish war of extermination is proceeding in the Okrida district. The massacres of a century ago are as nothing compared with those occurring daily in the vilayet of Monastir. I have obtained substantial evidence to prove that the Turkish soldiers, Nizams (Turkish regular troops) are committing unheard of atrocities, which are not solely the work of Bashi Bazouks as the authorities are seeking to prove.

The plight of the survivors is terrible. Not daring to leave their houses and subsisting on grass and water, they resemble people in the last stages of famine. The Turks are also losing heavily, judging from the number of wounded arriving here. Among the instances he gives in support of his statements, the correspondent relates that a priest's son in one village was flayed alive and kept in this horrible condition for several days to the delight of his tormentors until a merciful Turk shot him dead.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—In an interview published in the Gaulois, the Turkish ambassador declares the published stories of atrocities and massacres in Macedonia to be grossly exaggerated. Though such acts may have been committed by Turkish soldiers, he says they are mere isolated instances and acts of reprisal for similar deeds committed by the insurgents. Turkey wants peace and has mobilized a sufficient force to crush all opposition which is the best way to prevent bloodshed and secure peace. Mumin Pasha does not believe there will be war with Bulgaria as Prince Ferdinand desires peace. He asserts that much of the money of the insurgents came from the ransom of Miss Stone.

MEN TURNING TO MONKEYS. British Governor Tells of New Tribe of Men Living in Trees and Losing the Use of their Legs.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A Melbourne despatch to the Daily Chronicle says the administrator of British New Guinea reports the discovery of an extraordinary tribe of marshland dwellers in the island of Papua. Among swampy ground and tangled tropical undergrowth, walking and canoeing are almost impossible in the district, so the native dwellings are built in trees and as a result of the condition, the natives are gradually losing the use of their lower limbs, and are unable to walk on hard ground without their feet bleeding. Their bodies have developed enormously, while their legs and thighs have become atrophied.

R. L. BORDEN RECOVERING. OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 7.—Word from Caledonia Springs states that R. L. Borden is rapidly recovering from his recent attack of rheumatism. He expects to be back at Ottawa within a few days in better condition than ever.

FOR THE BIBLE SOCIETY. At the Opera House yesterday afternoon, Rev. Archdeacon Madden, of Liverpool, and Rev. G. H. Bonfield, delegates from the British and Foreign Bible Society of London, England, addressed a large gathering.

Archdeacon Madden spoke on the history of the society and pointed out the need of financial aid if good results are to be obtained. On the 7th of March next the society will be 100 years old and for that reason he and the Rev. G. H. Bonfield had set out to inform the people of that important fact and see what benefit it would do to their society. He understood that New Brunswick had pledged itself to give at least $5,000, and he sincerely trusted that the contributions from the province of New Brunswick would be worthy of its Christian character.

The purpose of the society, the speaker said, was to give the word of God to every tribe and nation under heaven. Today there are over 200,000,000 Bibles in existence. Rev. G. H. Bonfield spoke briefly on the work of the society. In China the Bible is given to the people in their own tongue. Last year there went out no less than 1,082,000 copies from the society's headquarters in Shanghai.

The reverend gentlemen leave today for Moncton.

NEWS IN BRIEF. VIENNA, Sept. 7.—Special despatches give an unconfirmed report of an attempt on King Peter's life at Nish on Saturday. It is said that stones were thrown at the royal carriage, one striking the king in the face and that a pistol was fired from a neighboring window. It is also rumored that the sixth Serbian regiment, notorious for the part it played in the recent regicide, has been ordered to Nish.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 6.—A trolley car on the Wilkesbarre and Harvey's Lake R. R. returning from the lake this afternoon, was wrecked in a mountain gorge, five miles from this city and plunged down a thirty-foot embankment, killing one passenger and injuring eleven others.
