DECENT LIBERALS

Enraged Over Stuffing of Rothesay Non-Resident List.

How the Grit Scheme to Submerge Kings Co. With St. John Voters was Worked.

A Matter that Kings Municipal Council Will Deal With Next Week in the Interest of Outraged Public Opinion.

(From Saturday's Daily Sun.)

the part of the hundreds of persons whose names the Rothesay revisors have added to the Kings Co. non-resi dent list of voters. It is understood around Hampton that for some months mest an effort was in progress in Rothesay and St. John to make some 20 acres of land, more or less, owned by E. J. Armstrong, the qualifying basis of a colony of voters, and that the effort was meeting with a considerable degree of success. The names of Messrs, Gilliland, Carter and Armstrong were freely mentioned as pro-were the local spirits there were more powerful provincial and federal spirits behind them, who felt that in this was not necessary to consult any of the rank and file as to placing their names on voting lists. Hence it came to pass that the list was fattened with the names of good liberals, who are now righteously indignant over the publicity given to the list. Some of these men were seen by Sun re-

A. P. Barnhill said he owned property in Kings county, in the parish of Norton, and supposed he was en titled to a vote on it. He did not think, however, that he had any right to vote as a non-resident of Rothesay, because he owned no pro-

Joseph N. Ellis assured the Sun man that he did not know he had a vote in Kings till he saw his name in the list published in the papers. He had

Robert Marshall said he had been on the list of electors of Kings county for 30 or 40 years. He sold out the p operty on which he voted not long ago, but had since that acquired an he had a perfect right to vote.

E. H. McAlpine gave the reporter a very cordial reception and assured him that the first time he knew he had the right to vote in Kings name among the list of electors in said Mr. McAlpine, "I called upon the attorney general and suggested an investigation. I found that he had already taken steps to investigate, the matter, and, in fact, was working at it when I called. I own no pro-

C. H. Ferguson assured the scribe that he owned no property in Kings county. He could not understand

C. M. Bostwick said he owned property at Rothesay and presumed that

Ald. John McGoldrick having purchased a building lot at Rothesay, took it for granted that his name was properly upon the list. The genial alderman assured the reporter that he

Col. Wm. Cunard said he had no property in Kings. Why he was on

In reply to the Sun reporter's request to state the location of his property in Kings Co., Henry Brennan stated that he was unaware of its existence until he saw his name on the published voters' list. He said it was possible there might be another man of the same name in the city, but personally

T. J. Durick, the north end druggist, said he, in connection with others, owned sufficient property in the

W. H. McQuade of the Grand Union declined to make any statement whatever to the reporter in reference to the matter. From other sources the Sun learned that Mr. McQuade is an

Frank B. Ellis said he was not properly qualified to vote in the parish of Rothesay, and he had not made any application to have his name

F. Herbert J. Ruel said he understood that the list contained the names of non-resident voters for the whole county of Kings, and not the parish of Rothesay alone. If so, he was qualified to vote, as he purchased property at Woodman's Point formerly owned by the late Hon. David McLelian. He had made application to have his name added to the list of Kings non-resident voters, and had been informed that they all voted at Rothe-

Richard O'Brien said he was not had not made any application to have the matter. To a Sun reporter who saw him yesterday afternoon he sim-ply said: "I'm not talking."

was on the list of Rothesay non-resi-he owned any property in that parish

A Sun reporter called at the resi-his name added to the list.

franchise in Kings.

ply said:

added to the list of non-resident vot

Model Farm, near Rothesay, to en-he did not know of any.

title him to a vote.

the list was a mystery to him.

e had the right to vote there.

perty in Kings county.

was no swamp voter.

why he should have a vote.

Thursday's Globe. "This morning," nterest in another property, on which porters yesterday.

no property in Kings.

perty there.

of this scheme, but if they

The creation of over 400 new voters | ing to the acquisition of real estate on in the parish of Rothesay is a work of such magnitude as to shock the most stilwart liberals in the good county of Kings, and, if current reports at Sussex, Hampton, Westfield and other centres in that riding go for anything, there will be wigs on the green at the meeting of the Kings municipal council next week.

Small bunches of swamp voters have been worked successfully on the borders of Westmorland and Albert, and the scheme has been tried with more or less success in Kings, but never before has such a wholesale importation of non-resident voters been projected in this prevince

The audacity of the thing is, however, but the legitimate outcome of the manner in which Mr. Blair's liberal organizer for New Brunswick has been running ante-election work in various parts of the province for the past three or four years. Possibly Mr. Milligan would not have made such a wholesale mistake as to crowd 400 voters on to a bit of very common farm land not over twenty acres in extent. He would have tried to attain the same end se far as the ballot box was concerned by methods that bore the guise of plausibility. But Mr. Milligan, unfortunately for his reputation, has in the liberal fold some very wicked partners, who will stop at nothing to debauch the elec-

The parish of Rothesay is, apart from politics, about as decent a spot as can be found in the maritime provinces. Its people live together in harmony and the only complaint ever raised against them is that the residents of the village proper are said to be socially very exclusive. But that charge has no connection with

And it is politics that has given Rothesay a black eye. It is the poll at which the bulk of non-resident votes for the county are deposited, years made it a point to capture the bulk of that vote, if every ward healer in St. John city had to be forced to the front. The good people of Rothesay have lively memories of the scandals enacted there every time a provincial or federal contest is

The success that attended these liberal tactics evidently led the boss minds of the party in Kings to believe they could not only swamp Rothesay, but control the verdict of the entire electorate of the county. Hence their present attempt to plant over 400 voters in the parish. When it is taken into consideration that the qualification for an elector is at least one hundred dollars worth of real estate, it will be seen that it would require quite an acreage of unimproved land such as exists near Rothesay to cover a value of $40,000, provided that the assessors and revisors held the scale even as between this particular spot and other parts of the parish. Just how these names were placed on the list of electors is susceptible of only one explanation. They reached the county secretary of Kings in the regular way from the revisors of Rothesay, signed by these revisors, and bearing their certificate and affi-

We, the undersigned revisors for the parish of Rothesay, do hereby certify, make oath and say that we have not intentionally entered the name of any person oa the above list which should not have been entered, nor have we intentionally made any entry in any column opposite any name which should not have been made, nor have we intentionally omitted the names of any which should have been entered on the above list, neither have we intentionally emitted to make any entry in any column opposite any name which we should have made.

A Sun reporter interviewed Secy. G. O. D. Otty yesterday. Mr. Otty said he had as an officer of the municipality asked Mr. Gilliland for a copy of the revisors' report for Rothesay parish, and that gentleman stated he had already mailed the document to his address. A few days later, meeting Mr. Gilbert, another revisor, on the train, he mentioned the matter to him, and Mr. Gilbert kindly forvarded to him a copy of the list he had in his possession. A little later he (Otty) again met Mr. Gilliland, and told him that the cepy he said he had mailed had not yet reached his office. Mr. Gilliland replied that he would look into the case at once. The next day Mr. Otty received the list, signed by the three revisors and duly certified as above. Mr. Otty declined to furaish the Sun reporter with a copy of the list of names he had received from Mr. Gilbert, stating that it was not a lie document, but merely an ac-medation in the matter of work, given in a friendly way by Mr. Gil-

It may be here remarked, however, that the Sun reporter gathered from other sources that Mr. Gilbert's list was but a skeleton as compared with the list sent in to Mr. Ofty by Mr.

Enquiry at the registry office, Hampton failed to bring to light any property changes in Rothesay parish within the past twelve months point-

THE REASON WHY "Shiloh" Cures Consumption.

Consumption is not meetly a disease of the lungs, as so generally supposed, but before the lungs become affected the blood has—from various causes—been rowded with the bacillus of Consumption. These gerras are deposited in the lungs by the blood, causing ir damation, coughing and the spitting up of diseased mucopurulent matter. Shiloh's Cure arrests the ravages of the germs by destroying them-it purifies the blood and enriches it-allays the inflamation and irritation ar d sets up a healing process, which causes the sore parts to get well and cicatrize. Shiloh's Consumption, Cure strengthens and tones up the whole system ar a makes it particularly repellent to the dreaded germs of Consumption.

It is guaranteed to accomplish this. If dissatisfied when 3/3 of a bottle has been used, return the remaining portion and the whole purchase money will be refunded.

J. H. Caldwell of Malta, Idaha, writes as follows to S. C. Wells & Co., Toronto. "I have used Shilon's Consumption Cure many different times, and always received great benefit from it. I believe it saved my life in a case of congestion of the lungs—and saved me from an attack of consumption, as many

In Canada and United States, 25c., 5oc. and $1.00 a bottle. Great Britain, 18/11., 28/3d and 48/6d.

Dyson Walker, now temporarily absent from the city. Dr. Walker evidently did not see eye to eye with the reporter, as when, after the object of the visit had been stated, the scribe ventured to ask, "Have you any property in Rothesay?" Dr. Walker's reply was vigorous and to the point. "growing time" of liberal principles it remarked: "Take my compliments to the Sun and tell them that it is none of their business where I own Then he showed the reporter to the door and briskly wished him good night. H. J. Anderson and W. Lantalum said they were not Rothesay men and had never applied for the right to vote there. One of St. John's free and intelligent electors accosted a Sun reporter on Canterbury street yesterday. "Do you want to invest in some desirable real estate?" he asked, with the lofty dignity of a prosperous land owner. incredulously inquired the reporter. "In Kings county," was the reply

"In Rothesay," and the reporter grin-

"I'm giving it to you straight," sisted the aggrieved capitalist. just been notified that there is a fine lot coming to me; I don't know just where, but it's in a great location and worth $100. There's a vote in connection, too, but I don't know much about the management of large estates and I want to sell, with a lib eral discount for cash.

The reporter offered fifty cents. "Is that cash?" he asked, doubtfully, and the reporter was obliged admit that, in the present stringent condition of the money market, he would have to tender an I O U until next pay day. After some meditation the land-owner declined to negotiate. "For," he said, "the trip up the line election day is worth more than that, and I may be able to work a little something out of the vote."

SWAMP VOTERS.

(Star.)

The holders of lately acquired property in Rothesay are called "swamp voters." The term originated from an occurrence similar in some respects to the present one, that has made so many new Kings county voters. In the early sixties, when a party contest was raging somewhat warmly, a number of men purchased a swamp out on the Loch Lomond road and divided it up into small sections. By giving freehold possession of these plots county voters were made wholesale. (Star.)

sale. So far as can be learned there has been no such purchase of property in Rothesay for this philanthropic purpose. Thos. Gilliland, one of the assessors, who is in town today, said that application, not personal had been made for each of the names placed on the list. In at least one case one of the voters, whose name appears among the four hundred odd, is dead. It appears that there are altogether about four hundred names acked who have absolutely no property rights in Rothesay.

DR. PUGSLEY AMAZED. (Globe.)

(Globe.)

The Globe this morning interviewed Hon. Wm. Pugsley, attorney general, on the Kings county non-resident vote. The attorney general said he had returned from Nova Scotla this morning and only knew of the matter by what he had seen in the press. He had immediately opened communication with the government revisor in Kings county, and if it appeared that names had been added to the list that were not entitled to be added, then he would at once take steps to have the lists corrected, and would see that the legitimate vote of the county was not swamped by those not legally entitled to vote. Mr. Pugsley added that if no other way opened, and if it became necessary, he would have the Kings county election delayed until after the opening of the session of the legislature, so that an act could be passed that would prevent those voting who have no right to the vote.

To the Editor of the Globe: To the Editor of the Globe:

Sir-Last evening's issue of your paper conveys to me the intimation that I have been added with almost hundreds of others to the list of non-resident voters of Kings county. As I do not recognize any right to exercise a franchise obtained under the circumstances, may I be permitted to say that I will not make any use of it. If such action has been taken in the supposed interests of the liberal party, it does not commend itself to the judgment of those who wish liberalism to be free from reproach.

Yours.

Yours, W. H. TRUEMAN.

REVISOR GILBERT TALKS OUT. REVISOR GILBERT TARKS OUT.

To the Editor of the Globe:

Sir—I notice an article in your paper of recent date intimating that some queer work had been done with the non-resident list of voters of Kings county in the parish of Rothessy, and inferring that this queer work had been laid at the door of the revisors, Messrs. Gilliland, Thomson and myself. If the list published in your issue of last evening is supposed to be correct, I would suggest that you be more careful in future in obtaining your information, and would say that Mr. Thomson and myself were most careful in preparing the list of voters from the assessors' list furnished us by our assessors, and vouch for its correctness. Mr. Gilliland came to Rothessy and checked the list with the tax collectors' list, also furnished by the assessors. Messrs. Gilliland, Thomson and myself signed the list, and I personally gave it to Mr. Gilliland afterward told me that he had mailed the list to Mr. Otty. I have retained a facisimile copy of the list furnished. And if there has been any queer work, as you term To the Editor of the Globe: qualified to vote at Rothesay, and he Peter J. Hanlon was not desirous of naking any statement in reference to A. O. Skinner, when seen by the Sun, said he did not know that his name dent voters. He was not aware that or was otherwise qualified. He had not made any application for the ker's name was on the published list, as was also that of his son, Dr. T.

Dyson Walker, now temporarily ab-Thanking you, gentlemen, for your valued space, I have the honor to be

Yours truly. HENRY GILBERT, JR.,

To the Editor of the Sun:

Sir-No one who knows the attorney general could read without amusement his statement in tonight's Globe in reference to the crime committed against the electors of Kings county. In his most oily manner he assumes the position of an injured innocent announces that if necessary, legis lation will be obtained to redress the wrong that has been done. No one better than the attorney general that no such legislation is neces sary, for since Mr. Gilbert's repudiation of the crime it is clear to every one that the list as filed was obtained by fraud, perjury and forgery, and is in fact no list at all, and ample provision is made in the Election Act to meet such a case. If the attorney general is alive to the duties of his office he will at once take steps for the punishment in the criminal courts of the perpetrators of the attempt against electors of the county and of the gravest political scandal ever known in New Brunswick. The attorney gen eral, too, should not overlook the fact so well known that Councillor Gilliland, one of the revisors, who state yesterday that proper applications had been made to place all the bogus names upon the list, is a henchman of the local government, one of the leading liberals of the county, a close friend of his own, and the petitioner against Mr. Fowler's election. It is stated that it was to Mr. Gilliland that the correct list was entrusted by his brother revisors to be delivered to Secretary-Treasurer Otty, and was never received by him. A local election is now pending in Kings, and it was for the purpose of defeating the wishes of the bonest voters of the county in that election that the swamp vote was created. In talking about postponing the election Mr. Pugsley is grasping at the one hope of escaping defeat, for owing to the ever-increasing unpopularity of the local government and the lack of confidence in their candidate, who was nominated in consequence of a deal, it is daily becoming apparent that Kings will at the first opportunity return an opposition supporter. The attempt made by the local government heelers to fasten the responsibility of the outrage upon a gentleman who has for years been the most prominent figure in Kings county politics would be laughable were it not so despicable.

ROTHESAY.

Joseph N. Ellis, E. H. Acalpine, C. H. Ferguson, Col. Cunard, Henry Brennan, Frank B. Ellis, Richard O'Brien, A. O. Skinner, H. J. Anderson, W. Lantalum and others stated that they had no property in Rotheray and had not applied to have their names added to the voters' list. W. H. Trueman writes to the Globe to the same effect.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley assures the Globe and Telegraph that action will be taken in the matter and that a legal and proper list will be provided. E. S. Carter, editor of Progress, de nied today that he had anything to do with the scheme to place so many names on the big list. He says he had no connection with the matter at

ONLY EIGHTY-FIVE.

(From Monday's Daily Sun.) Who are legitimate non-resident voters in the parish of Rothesay is a question that possesses an exciting interest just now and will be dealt with by the county council of Kings, which body meets tomorrow. According to a list forwarded by registered letter to G. O. D. Otty, secretary treasurer of the municipality of Kings, between 400 and 500 non-residents have been added since the last revision. This list reached Mr. Otty duly signed by the three revisors, that is the two GRATEFUL & COMFORTING Distinguished everywhere for Delicacy of Flaveur, Superior Quality, and Nutritive Properties. Specially grateful and comforting to the nervous and dyspeptie. Sold in 1-4 lb. tins, labelled JAMES EPPS & Co., Ltd., Homosepathic Chemists, London, England. ists, London, England.

BREAKFAST

SUPPER

parish councillors, Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Gilliland, and Mr. Thomson, the government revisor.

A Sun representative went to Rothesay on Saturday to see the revisors. Mr. Gilliland was not to be found. Enquiry at the station and other places failed to discover traces of his presence in the village. The Sun man visited Mr. Gilbert at his store, and when a lull in trade came, for Mr. Gilbert's store is a busy spot at any time and particularly so on Saturdays, stated his business. Mr. Gilbert listened to the statement and promptly replied that he had nothing to conceal. As one of the revisors he had given a great deal of attention to the work, and in connection with Mr. Thomson had prepared a list which had been placed in the hands of Mr. Gilliland, to be forwarded to the secretary treasurer of the county. He had kept a copy of the list, which was now in Mr. Thomson's possession. Mr. Gilbert then took the reporter acros the street to Mr. Thomson's store and exchanged a few words with that gentleman. Mr. Thomson was busy at the time, so they went back to Mr. Gilbert's place, Soon after the copy of the list was sent over by Mr. Thomson and handed to the Sun reporter, who started to copy it, when Mr. Gilbert objected to this bit of work on the part of the scribe. Mr. Gilbert stated that the list was a matter in which his personal reputation was concerned, and until he had taken legal advice he did not feel like making its contents public through the press. He and his colleague had given a great deal of time to the revision of the list and were prepared to stand by what they had done. Until the meeting of council on Tuesday he did not feel like being party to any publicity through the newspapers.

The reporter had, however, gone through the list and found that it contained the names of but 85 non-resident electors of Rothesay parish, and Mr. Gilbert, on his attention being called to this point, said the list spoke for itself. It was the original copy, prepared by himself and his associate, and was the list they had given Coun-Gilliland to forward to the secretary treasurer of the county. He had nothing whatever to do with any other list received by Mr. Otty. This was the only one that he had signed, and he would stand by it. The list examined by the reporter in Mr. Gilbert's store was typewritten and bore marks of having been corrected for clerical errors, but did not contain the names of the host of nonresidents that figure on the list now on file in Mr. Otty's office. Mr. Gilbert admitted, incidentally, that he had unofficially given Mr. Otty a copy of this list for the purpose of facilitat ing his work, but this was only a per sonal action as between friends. The plain fact evolved from the interview with Mr. Gilbert is that while the revision of the electoral list of Rothesay parish, as done with great care by himself and the government revisor, shows only 85 nonresident voters, there is a list now on file in the county offices of Kings county that contains the names of between 400 and 500 non-resident electors in Rothesay parish. Mr. Otty says this list was mailed to him, in a registered letter, and bears signature of the revisors. Mr. Gilbert and M son say they never signed this big list. Mr. Gilbert retains in his hand the original list, and this list he will no doubt carry with him when he goes to Hampton tomorrow to attend the meeting of Kings county council How Coun. Gilliland will explain the discrepancy between the two lists remains to be seen. That a satisfactory explanation must be forthcoming will be insisted upon by the people of Rothesay, who now feel that their good name has been brought in question.

The matter is the sole topic of discussion at Rothesay and Hampton and all along the railway line through Kings.

To the Editor of the Sun: Sir-No event of late years has caused so much interest in Kings county as the attempt to stifle the honest vote of the county by the riff raff and off-scourings of the worst element of the liberal party in the city of St. John. Liberals and conservatives alike are filled with indignation, and demand the thorough investigation and will be satisfied with mothing else-for if it is true that the lists were changed after leaving Mr. Gilbert's hands and the original oath made by the revisors affixed to the bogus list, it is quite certain that the penitentiar is the proper place for the criminals who plotted and worked out the scheme. The people who did the wrong should be ferreted out and the responsibility placed upon the proper shoulders, for the people will not b satisfied with the excuse given by the few friends the local government has left ir Kings county that the whole thing "was the work of Domville and Carter." Where does a north end dentist come in, and can it be believed that the plot could have been devised and carried out in such a wholesale manner without the attorney general, who is a member for the county, having at least a shrewd suspicion of what was going on? KINGS COUNTY.

MONCTON, Jan. 19, 1901. To the Editor of the Sun:

Sir-The interview with Mr. Pugsley in last night's Globe was read with interest here. In view of recent events, however, but little stock will be taken in Albert county at least in his promise to hold an investigation. Your readers may not be familiar with the fact that last year a liberal swamp vote of over eighty was created in the parish of Elgin. At the last bye election when these swamp voters appeared at the polling booth they were challenged for qualification. Some refused to swear, others took the oath like little men. Arrests for perjury followed and the proceedings were brought to a close by the attorney general instructing the justices before whom the informations were laid not to proceed with the cases before them. This is the way justice is now administered in New Brunswick, and it is the same Mr. Pugsley who restrained the arm of justice so as to prevent the punhment of the orime of perjury in Albert, who now promises an inves tigation in Kings. MONCTON.

(Saturday's Globe.) E. S. Carter today asked the Globe to state that he had no connection with the preparation of the Rothesay non-resident list.

A WELCOME HOME

A Thanksgiving Service and a Banquet.

Woodstock Gives a Magnificent Reception to Her Returned Soldiers -The Men Presented With Watches.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Jan. 18 .- The panquet and presentation of watches to the Carleton county quota of "E" battery, last night, was a very pleasant and successful affair. The first part of the programme was a thanksgiving service at St. Luke's church, which was so well attended that by the time the service began there was not a spare seat in the church. Archdeacon Neales' address to the congregation, and particularly to the boys, was most touching and effective. The banquet was altogether a suc-When the time came for the presentation of the watches, Major Good and his men lined up in the middle of the house, and as the warden of the county handed each man his watch there was a round of hearty applause. The toast list had te be somewhat curtailed owing to the lateness of the hour when the speechmaking began. It consisted of The Contingent, proposed by Rev. W. F. Chapman, and responded to by Major Good, Gr. Parker and Corp. Gray; Dominion Parliament, proposed by J. C. Hartley, responded to by Senator Baird; United States, by Wm. Dibblee, responded to by Mr. Denison, consul at this port, and Rev. Mr. Martin; Provincial Government, proposed by H. Paxton Baird, replied to by Messrs. Dunn, Hill and McKeown; Provincial Legislature, proposed by W. S. Sanders, responded to by Messrs, McCain and Flemming; Militla of Canada, proposed by Archdeacon Neales, responded to by Lieut. Col. Vince and Major Tompkins; The Clergy, proposed by T. C. L. Ketchum, responded to by Rev. J.

W. Clark. Rev. Father Chapman, who proposed the first toast, The Contingent, was in an extremely happy vein and was warmly applauded throughout a very bright address. Senator Baird replied to the Parliament of Canada in a well thought out speech. Messrs. Hill and McKeown, who spoke for the Provincial Government, were listened to very attentively, and Mr. Fleming, who did the honor for the Legislature, as usual, eloquent. Mr. Denison, responding to the toast of the United States, was in good form and was most heartily, applauded during a first rate ten minute speech. C. J. Tabor catered for the banquet and deserves much credit for the excellent mnner in which he carried out the affair. A large number of ladies were present during the greater part of the entertainment, occupying seats in the gallery. The Opera House was really artistically arranged. The decorations were in good taste, and with the prettily decorated tables, added materially to the general effect of the whole affair.

LIVELY ADVENTURE OF AN M. P.

An imperialist M. P. was the hero of a lively adventure at one of the most fashionable halls the other evening. The M. P. had his soul stirred within him by hearing a crazy, well-dressed Frenchman orating wildly in favor of the Boers in one of the refreshment bars. In, his enthusiasm the wretched foreigner mounted a table. Thea came the M. P.'s opportunity. With a skilful turn of his stick he hooked the foreigner's leg and jerked him on to the floor. The stalwart janitors of the door were called and "chucked out" the M. P. No whit dismayed he went to the box office, paid his seven and sixpence, and was again admitted. Going straight for his enemy he found him gesticulating madly as to what punishment he would inflict on "Le diable Anglais" if only he could lay hold of him. The M. P. went for him, and had succeeded in mauling him pretty well before the "chuckers-out" again intervened, and he was put out.—Birmingham Gazette.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

KINGS COUN NON-RESID

> The Names of P Added to In the Parish

> > Majority Live

The following n added to the non-

> in the parish of F Armstrong, Armstrong, Armstrong. Armstrong, Armstrong. Anderson, Avery, John Allan, Adams, Z. Abbott, Fran Anderson, Ja Allan, C. B. Abbott, John Bent, Stanley Bowes, John Bowes, Josep Bell, W. T. Blaine, Colo Brennan, Her Bennett, Wi Brophy, Dar Barnhill, Ge Barnhill, A. Beatty, George Barbour, Fra Boyer, Arth Bain. P. Baxter, Geo Black, Ed. Barton, Me Bond, Jame Bond, John Berton, Geo Beck, Hugh Brinnen, Ja Brown, Sch Blair, A. G. Burpee, Jo Bostwick, Clark, Wm. Coster, C. Clinch, D. Christie, D

Campbell Cromwell, Connors. Campbell, Carter, B. Courtney, Codner. E Craigie, G Carleton. Callaghan, Callaghan, Chambers. Coughlin, Callan, Ge Cruikshanl Clark, Ern Cochran. Cameron. Caird, Ch Campbell, Cummings Callaghan Cronin, T. Cronin. Carney. Carroll, Carney, Caples. H Campbell Corkery. Currie, Coleman Clark. W Carvill. Carter, Collins,

Coughlin,

Clark, C