Widowed Mother - Recent Marriages and Deaths.

CHARLOTTETOWN, Dec. 19.—About 150 guests assembled at the Lansdowne hotel. Cape Traverse Tuesday night, where a reception was held in honor of Sergt. Sing W. Muncey, who had just returned from South Africa. A toast list was duly honored, after which dancing was indulged in. Sergt Muncey is a son of T. C. Muncey, telegraph operator at Cape Traverse. He emisted at Winnipeg in January last, and went to Africa with the second contingent. He afterwards enlisted in Gat Howard's Scouts, remaining with them for three months, until November 4th. He was at that time wounded so severely that he had to shandon active service, His detachment was carrying despatches at the time, during General French's movement east. The scouts, twelve in number, encountered 150 Boers. A skirmish followed, in which one scout was killed and three, including Muncey, were wounded. The builet entered his left shoulder and came out through the spine. The pain was very intense, and his eyesight was gone for two or three hours. The Boers took his horse and ammunition, but left his clothing, example his boots, and two bottles of water. Muncey was afterwards transferred from one hospital to another, June 16th, when he was sent to Netley hospital in England, where he remained until November 12th.

A cablegram from Capt. Alfred McLeod, Lisbon, Portugal, who crossed the Atlantic in the schooner Blanche M. The schooner sailed from New London about two months ago, and afterwards loaded with dried fish from Newfoundland.

Lawrence Kielly of Lower Montague left his home Saturday afternoon to go shooting, and did not return. On Sunday morning a search party was organized, and his lifeless body was found near the edge of the woods on George Wright's farm. The body was face upwards, with the empty gun, an old-fashioned single muzzle loader, and four rabbits which he had shot, lying close beside. One side of the head was completely blown away, and every particle of clothing, excepting a portion of underclothing on the back, had been burnt off down to the tops of the boots. The flesh was a charred mass and the features disfigured beyond semblance of human shape. Deceased had followed the sea for several years. His vessel, the Irene, had been laid up the day previous to the accident. He was in his 30th year and was the sole support of his widowed mother, whose condition is pittable in the extreme. Hon.
