

GIVES CREDIT WHERE THE CREDIT IS DUE

Charlotte County Man, Though Staunch Liberal, is Fair Minded Enough to Praise Excellent Roads.

"The roads of Charlotte County were never in better condition than at present," said Charles Boyle, yesterday, when in the city. The section from St. George to Lepreau is particularly good and Mr. Boyle, the road commissioner, and the Charlotte County representatives to the Legislature, in praise for their work in connection with road improvements.

Mr. Boyle said that he was a Liberal, and always would be a Liberal. He had made a statement in regard to his political affiliations some time ago and the Telegraph had intimated that he was not a Liberal but that both he and his father had helped to oust the Laurier government from power. Mr. Boyle was very indignant on account of this accusation and yesterday, again affirmed that he had always supported the Liberal party and that his father, who had been dead thirty-eight years, would not have assisted in causing the downfall of the Laurier party.

CHARLES G. GATES DIED IN WYOMING

Cody, Wyo., Oct. 28.—Charles G. Gates, son of the late John W. Gates, died in his private car here at two o'clock this afternoon of a stroke of apoplexy. His body will be sent east.

LATE SHIPPING

Vineyard Haven, Oct. 28.—Ard schr Myrtle Leaf, Nova Scotia; Andrew Nebinger, Banor, Me.; Fannie H. Stewart, Windsor, N. S.; Brina P. Pendleton, Calais, Me.; Drake, Bentley, Apple River; Susie M. Davidson, Philadelphia; Farlin, Philadelphia; John Bracewell, Perth Amboy.

Lost His Nerve

"Your beau called on me yesterday, daughter." "Did he ask you for my hand, father?" "He may have intended to. If he did, he lost his nerve. Anyhow, he switched off into the world's series."

Girl's Nerves Fully Restored

Was Never Able to Obtain Lasting Benefit Until Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Was Used.

Too many girls grow up with weak, anemic bodies and exhausted nervous systems. Indoor life and too much application in school are sometimes the cause.

Mrs. J. Bagnall, 285 Woodville avenue, Toronto, writes: "My daughter suffered from nervousness since childhood, and any medicines she tried did not do any lasting good. We read in the papers about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and my daughter used it with wonderful results. This treatment has built up her system and so strengthened the nerves that she feels like another girl."

GOSSIPIES OF THE STAGE AS IN FRANCE

"What my pretty eyes have seen" is what a French comedienne calls the collection of memoirs which she has just issued, and which has caused considerable excitement and speculation in Paris. The author cloaks her identity under the nom de plume of "Mdlle. X." Nevertheless, she gives many clues to her personality in the course of her gossip sketches, and it ought not to be difficult to discover just who she is.

Ingenious Thespians. Very early she set her heart upon the stage, and at the age of sixteen was receiving $2 a month in a theatre on the outskirts of Paris. Other salaries must have been upon a relative scale of magnificence and the actors were often obliged to exercise their ingenuity in improving costumes.

Barnstorming

Her next engagement was with a road company that appears to have been composed chiefly of four or five performers, since on one occasion the house consisted of a solitary spectator. The outraged actors were for giving the money back to the manager, but he insisted that the performance should go on.

Stories of Mounet Sully

Later, when "Mdlle. X." came to Paris, and finally achieved the height of fame by being made a member of the Comedie Francaise, she came into contact with some of the great names in the world of literature and drama.

"Fake" Benefits

The financier was staggered, but he paid. On rejoining his colleagues at the theatre they expressed amazement that he should have demanded such an enormous sum. "Did I?" said Sully. "That's too bad. If he had offered me $20 I would have taken it. Sully and Clarette were great friends, but they had a quarrel, and Sully became convinced that the director had proved a traitor. The following day, when the members and directors of the company had risen from a meeting, Sully, whose privilege it was as dean of the company to withdraw first, walked and motioned Clarette to precede him. "It is for you to pass out before me," shouted Clarette. "Go ahead!" shouted Sully. "I fear you will stab me in the back."

LABORER BLOWN TO PIECES

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—An unidentified laborer was blown to pieces in the northern section of this city today, when six sticks of dynamite he was carrying under his arm exploded. Sparks from a pipe he was smoking while carrying the dynamite together with percussion caps and fuses, are believed to have caused the explosion.

CLIP THIS COUPON FREE COUPON IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY PATTERN OUTFIT PRESENTED BY THE STANDARD

THE IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY OUTFIT is guaranteed to be the greatest collection and biggest bargain in patterns ever offered. The 160 patterns have a retail value of 10 cents each or more than $10.00 in all.

AWAITING ACTION OF THE UNITED STATES TO RECORD PRICE NOW

Continued From Page One. Mexican Fugitives. Vera Cruz, Oct. 28.—The two Mexicans who sought refuge with General Felix Diaz on board the United States gunboat Wheeling during last night's sunburst, are awaiting action of the United States.

BEEF ON HOOF JUMPS TO RECORD PRICE NOW

East St. Louis, Ill., Oct. 28.—Beef on the hoof has soared to $9.75 a hundredweight at the nation's stock yards, the highest price at this time of the year ever reported here. That price was paid for two carloads of yearling steers sold by the Illinois and St. Louis, Mo. They averaged 911 pounds.

WILL TRY TO STEM THE TIDE OF DEFEAT

In preparation for the game with Mount Allison here on Saturday afternoon the St. John Athletic Club members are working hard to turn out a fast aggregation of pickin' chasers. As the game will be played on the home field the difficulty of taking men away will be lessened.

Diaz Was in Peril

Vera Cruz, Oct. 28.—John Lind, the personal representative of President Wilson, who received the order from Washington to afford protection to General Felix Diaz, has notified the State Department that everything possible has been done.

Only Eight Survivors

Mexico City, Oct. 28.—Only eight persons escaped alive when the troop train was dynamited by rebels west of Mexico City. The train was on the railway station of Lufu between the towns of Sattillo and Vanegas, in the State of Coahuila.

OPEN SCHOOL OF HOUSEKEEPING

900 DROPS CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson. In Use For Over Thirty Years CASTORIA

More than one hundred Washington (D. C.) society women are backing the project to establish a school of housekeeping in Washington. Preliminary work will be started at once by the Housekeepers' Alliance of Washington.

PROVINCES AGREE UPON RESOLUTIONS REQUESTING LARGER FEDERAL SUBSIDY

Continued From Page One. required to be expended to maintain the efficiency of the services of their respective governments as by law provided, and to provide the moral and material progress of the people.

Resolution No. 2. "That the additional subsidy be paid to each province as follows: (a) There shall be set aside, out of such additional subsidy, an amount sufficient to pay each province a sum equal to fifty per cent of the amount now payable to each province for government and legislative expenses.

Resolution No. 3. "That in the case of the government of Canada concurring in the views of the Lieutenant-Governors and there is also one asking that their titles be changed to governor.

Resolution No. 4. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 5. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 6. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 7. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 8. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 9. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 10. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 11. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 12. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 13. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 14. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 15. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

Resolution No. 16. "That the balance of such additional subsidy shall be payable to each province according to its population, as ascertained at the last census.

AMERICAN GIRL TO BE BRIDE OF DUKE OF CROY

The engagement of Miss Nancy Leishman, daughter of Mrs. John G. A. Leishman, former American Ambassador to Berlin, to the Duke of Croy will soon be announced. It is said the marriage will take place October 28 in Geneva.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Dr. Fred White, Moncton, yesterday, when Miss Jennie Louise Webster, youngest daughter of the late James Webster, of Shediac, was united in marriage to Francis C. Dixon, of Montreal.

The bride entered the drawing room, which was attractively decorated for the occasion, on the arm of Dr. White, with Miss Keith, of Pettitcodiac, as bridesmaid, Thomas Dixon, a brother of the groom, was best man.

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Tommy had been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hand and allowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Save Your Salary Increase We offer our Savings Department as a depository allowing you 3% interest, compounded twice a year.

The Bank of Nova Scotia ST. JOHN BRANCHES Main Office, 119 Prince William Street, St. John, N. B. 22 Charlotte St., 266 Main St., 105 Water St., 105 Union St., West.

DISAGREEMENT OVER SEAMENS SERVITUDE BILL Washington, Oct. 28.—Disagreement between the senate and house over protection of life on vessels plying the Great Lakes and the inland waters of the United States, was predicted today, when the "Seamen's Servitude" bill, which recently passed the senate, went to the lower house for approval.

SCHOONER R. BOWERS ASHORE. Rockland, Oct. 28.—The three-masted schooner R. Bowers ran onto Spears Rock near the battery today while working into Rockland harbor for coals. She was damaged and will leave the harbor for St. John.

TO SAIL FOR ST. JOHN. Schooner Annie M. Parker, which put into Saunderson, with part of sail and deckload carried away, has been surveyed and will leave for St. John. The Parker is bringing a cargo of pitch pine from Florida for Mr. J. A. Likely.

BATTLE LINE. Battle Line steamer Pandora, Capt. Wright, bound from Puerto Borgh to Rotterdam, passed Rio Janeiro on Monday. Battle Line steamer Leucera, Captain Butler, sailed from Sharpness today for Swansea.

STEAMER MOVEMENTS. Munson Line steamer Grib, Capt. Roring, sailed yesterday for Havana, Cuba, via Halifax. The steamer Stur Wabana, Capt. Reese, sailed yesterday for Sydney.

PASSED ILL-FATED STEAMER. Stur Star of Ireland (Br), reports Oct. 16, at 47 13 N, lon 36 45 W, passed the derelict stur Volturno on fire, smoke issuing from No. 1 and No. 2 hatch.

MINIATURE ALMANAC. October Phases of the Moon. First Quarter, 6th . . . 21h. 49m. Full moon, 15th . . . 11h. 52m. Last Quarter, 23d . . . 11h. 52m. New moon, 29th . . . 10h. 29m.

THE LATEST MARINE NOTES OF THE WORLD CHARTERED FOR SOUTH AMERICA The British bark Lovisa, which has made many voyages from Boston to South America in the lumber trade, has just been chartered to take on another cargo. She is now at St. John's, Nfld, and will proceed to Boston at once to begin loading her cargo of about 1,000,000 feet of lumber for exportation to Paysandu, Uruguay. For her return voyage she has secured a charter to bring a cargo of bone fertilizer to a port north of Hatteras.

LONG PASSAGE. The three-masted schooner Ruth Robinson reached Boston last Sunday, after a trip of 24 days from New York. The first 12 days were consumed between New York and Vineyard Haven. The schooner was delayed by head winds, sales and heavy fog. She brought in a cargo of paving blocks for the new fish wharf, Boston.

FAILS TO FLOAT SCHOONER. Vineyard Haven, Mass., Oct. 28.—The revenue cutter Gresham pulled on the schooner Rebecca J. Moulton, which is ashore on East Chop, at high water today, but did not float her. The Moulton is from New York for Portland, and ran ashore yesterday afternoon while putting back to this port.

SCHOONER R. BOWERS ASHORE. Rockland, Oct. 28.—The three-masted schooner R. Bowers ran onto Spears Rock near the battery today while working into Rockland harbor for coals. She was damaged and will leave the harbor for St. John.

TO SAIL FOR ST. JOHN. Schooner Annie M. Parker, which put into Saunderson, with part of sail and deckload carried away, has been surveyed and will leave for St. John. The Parker is bringing a cargo of pitch pine from Florida for Mr. J. A. Likely.

BATTLE LINE. Battle Line steamer Pandora, Capt. Wright, bound from Puerto Borgh to Rotterdam, passed Rio Janeiro on Monday. Battle Line steamer Leucera, Captain Butler, sailed from Sharpness today for Swansea.

STEAMER MOVEMENTS. Munson Line steamer Grib, Capt. Roring, sailed yesterday for Havana, Cuba, via Halifax. The steamer Stur Wabana, Capt. Reese, sailed yesterday for Sydney.

PASSED ILL-FATED STEAMER. Stur Star of Ireland (Br), reports Oct. 16, at 47 13 N, lon 36 45 W, passed the derelict stur Volturno on fire, smoke issuing from No. 1 and No. 2 hatch.

MINIATURE ALMANAC. October Phases of the Moon. First Quarter, 6th . . . 21h. 49m. Full moon, 15th . . . 11h. 52m. Last Quarter, 23d . . . 11h. 52m. New moon, 29th . . . 10h. 29m.