OBITUARY.

The death of Mr. James O'Donnell, a well known boiler maker, took place at noon Tuesday. He was a life long resident of the North End, where he was much esteemed. He leaves a wife, two sons and a sister. The sons are Mr. John O'Donnell, with the First Contingent at Salisbury Plain, and Mr. Frank O'Donnell at home. The sister is Mrs. Margaret Bradley, of Riverside. The funeral will be held from his late residence, 382 Main street, on Thursday.

Mrs. J. S. Hall.

The many friends of Mrs. Deborah Hall, wife of Major John S. Hall, will be shocked to learn of her death at an early hour yesterday morning at her late residence, 160 King Street East, after a brief illness. Mrs. Hall was taken ill on Friday morning, and died at 4 o'clock this morning, death result-

SUSSEX GIRL WRITES FROM THE WAR ZONE

Miss Georgie McKenzie engaged in Red Cross work-tells of experiences in Paris military hospitals.

Miss Mabel Campbell of this city has received an interesting letter from her cousin, Miss Georgie McKenzie, daughter of John McKenzie of Sussex. The letter is dated November 4, and is addressed from the quarters of the Ambulance of the American Hospital of Paris (section for the wounded), Lyons Pasteur, Neuilly-sur-Seine.

Miss McKenzie has been engaged in hospital work in New York for some years. When the United States hospital ship was fitted out some time ago her services at the front were refused because of her unwillingness to renounce her allegiance to the British crown. Soon afterwards, when the call was made for nurses and doctors to take up Red Cross work in France under American patronage she was one of twenty selected out of about 200 volunteers.

The letter is in part as follows:

"..... We had an all-night ride from Havre, where I landed, to Paris. In quiet times it only takes three hours, but we were continually sidetracked for the troops. There is a hospital there for the English wounded. I talked with a lot of them; they say very little about the war, are not allowed to. We have very few English soldiers, mostly French. The English are too far north for us to get their wounded; they treat them at base hospitals near the firing line, which, by the way, I'm going to if the opportunity presents itself. I came to nurse the 'Tommies,' not the 'Frenchmen.'"

"..... Everybody expects Paris will be besieged by the Germans before the winter is over. We get very little war news.

"The soldiers have the most awful wounds imaginable caused by shrapnel; the bullet wounds are small compared with those caused by shrapnel and explosives. Some have legs and arms blown right off, or big pieces of flesh blown away. There are all sorts of people working here, rich and poor alike; everybody for nothing. It is all voluntary, and we certainly have some jokes in the crowd, especially amongst the men. I think there must be on military ration for us to live very plainly, very seldom have butter; guess it is the scarest article in Paris. The French bread is abominable, the only thing that is really good is the pastry. Not one policeman in the place can speak English.

"Have had very little opportunity for sight-seeing; in fact, the place of interest are closed. Paris is really very beautiful; the river Seine, which runs through the centre of it, has the quaintest looking boats on it, covered with gay entertainments, as are the houses. Have no idea how long I shall stay. It takes so long to get letters here, they're held up by government for a few days, so we get nothing direct."

ANGELICAN CHURCH

MISSION WEEK

Large attendances and earnest addresses were features yesterday.

The mission services in the Anglican churches of the city were continued yesterday, and increased interest was evidenced by a much larger attendance in every case. The services will be held each day until Sunday next.

Rev. L. J. O. Donaldson, of Halifax, again took charge of the services. St. Luke's, and much impressed those who heard him. In St. Mary's Archdeacon Davidson, of Guelph (Ont.), gave a thoughtful address to women in the afternoon, when he spoke of Woman's Work.

In the evening, when there was a large congregation which joined in special singing, the missioner took for his subject: 'Let a man examine himself.' Rev. W. W. Craig, of Montreal, continued his work at St. James' church with much acceptance. Father Field, of Boston, officiated at the mission church, Paradise Row. In Trinity Very Rev. Dean Lloyd again took the services, a large number being present throughout the day. Rev. James Robertson, of Truro, was at St. Paul's. In the evening his theme was 'Christianity is Christ.' There were large and appreciative congregations during the day. Rev. W. W. Craig, of Montreal, again took the services at St. John's (Stone) church, there being many present. There were many in St. Jude's to hear Rev. A. H. Moore, of St. John's, (Que.) In the afternoon he spoke to women on the subject of 'Prayer.' In the evening 'The Wages of Sin is Death,' was his theme. Throughout the day great interest was shown in the work of the mission. A feature was an invitation to ask questions on the subject being dealt with, and in each case answers were cheerfully given by the missioner.

PATRIOTIC MEETING HELD IN CARLETON CITY HALL WAS ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING

Large audience heard thrilling speeches by Hon. R. J. Ritchie and H. A. Powell, K. C. — Good musical programme added to pleasure of evening — Expected to boom recruiting.

A large and enthusiastic meeting in the Carleton City Hall last evening at which C. B. Lockhart, M. L. A., presided, and stirring speeches were made by Hon. R. J. Ritchie and H. A. Powell, K. C. The Carleton Cornet Band was in attendance and furnished music, while vocal selections were rendered by S. Herbert Mayes and Mrs. Walter A. Harrison.

Mr. Powell and Judge Ritchie pointed out that it was part of the German programme to take possession of British colonies, and that the Empire and Canada relied upon the young men to rally to the defence of the flag and the crushing of the ambitions of Prussian militarism.

C. B. Lockhart, in opening the meeting said New Brunswick had been asked to furnish 1,100 men. So far recruits had been coming forward in a fairly satisfactory manner, but it was felt there should be a reader response. Continuing he pointed out that privates would get $1.10 a day with a separation allowance of $20 for their wives, if they had any, and also allowances for their children according to age. If men were wounded they would be given a pension, if killed their families would become wards of the Canadian government. If their families needed supplementary help, they would be supplied by the Canadian patriotic committee. He urged young men who could possibly do so to rally to the call to arms and enlist in the defence of the Empire.

S. Herbert Mayes then sang 'The Boys of the Old Brigade,' while a squad of enlisted men marched out on the platform and were given a hearty cheer.

Hon. R. J. Ritchie
Hon. R. J. Ritchie, the first speaker, said he had addressed audiences in Carleton before on important subjects, but the subject he had to deal with tonight was of infinitely more importance than politics or temperance. Men were being called upon to fight for the mother country and for the Empire, and what it stood for. We in Canada had something to fight for. Canada was the freest country under the canopy of heaven. We began to appreciate the blessings, the privileges we enjoyed under the British flag when we compared our condition with that of the tyrannical people in some other lands.

All we had in Canada we got from Great Britain. The fight for the Empire government in Canada meant that the aristocrats had to take a back seat and the Democrats came to the front. Today Great Britain, our benefactor, was in danger. Should we lie down and allow the big bluffing German bully to down the mother country?

Continuing His Honor gave an eloquent description of the way the English and Irish had ceased faction fighting to rally to the call of the Empire. In England there was no politics, race, or religion, and it was the same in Canada. Everything gave way before the desire to rally to the support of the honor of the Empire. United we will defeat the Germans, and it will be the best for civilization.

The Fighting Irish
Ireland with 4,300,000 population immediately enrolled 143,000 men to defend the Empire. The 143,000 men meant 143,000 fighters. Did you ever know an Irishman who would not fight?

Great Britain has been a great colonial empire, but it is not a colonial empire, it is a free country. The British flag meant not only civil and religious liberty, but Christianity itself. That is why we are proud to rally to its defence.

In conclusion His Honor appealed to eligible young men to respond to the mother country's call to arms and fight in the cause, a great cause, the cause of honor, liberty and righteousness. If Germany triumphed over Britain, Canadians would become vassals of the Kaiser. The young men of Carleton should not slumber at home while their kinsmen were fighting a formidable but barbaric foe. They should rally to the flag and prove themselves worthy sons of their loyalist sires.

Mrs. Walter A. Harrison then sang 'Your King and Country Need You' with great spirit and feeling, and was enthusiastically applauded.

H. A. Powell.
H. A. Powell, the next speaker, in opening said that if any inspiration was needed it was furnished by Mrs. Harrison, who was willing that her husband should go to the front.

When the war broke out the admiral in charge of the fleet was an Irishman named Callaghan. The King was reported to be opposed to the war, but an Irishman in Cork said: 'If the King is opposed to the war why did he put a man by the name of Callaghan in charge of the fleet?'

Ireland notwithstanding the view of the Kaiser that it was on the verge of rebellion, had raised more soldiers in proportion to its population to defend the flag than any other portion of the Empire.

In eloquent language Mr. Powell spoke of the growth of the Empire, made possible by the teachings of Christianity, and of the hope of humanity that national differences might be settled by arbitration.

A Rude Awakening.
'We had anticipated the reign of peace on earth and goodwill among men. But we had had a rude awakening. The Kaiser had turned back civil-

OPEN SEASON WITH BANQUET

German Street Brotherhood favors federation for city organizations.

The Brotherhood of German St. Baptist church opened the activities of the season with a banquet, followed by a meeting, in the German St. Institute last evening. The affair was one of the best ever held by this organization and all present took a deep interest in the proceedings. Rupri W. Wigmore, city commissioner of Water and Sewerage, president of the Brotherhood, occupied the chair.

After the dinner, which was provided by the young lady members of the pastor's bible class, Mr. Wigmore outlined the objects of the organization and reviewed some of the more important activities of the members. He thought the Brotherhood movement in this city was a good thing for the community in general and he hoped to see the influence of the organization spread.

Rev. Mr. Porter also delivered an address dealing with the prospects for the coming season.

Rev. W. H. Barracough of Centenary church, and Rev. J. A. MacKell of St. David's, spoke in favor of the federation of the different brotherhoods of the city. They believed that the federation would greatly assist in the work. As a result of their remarks a resolution favoring the federation of the brotherhoods of the city was introduced and passed.

A committee was selected to visit the other brotherhoods in the city and request them to appoint members to form a central committee to arrange for the closer union of the brotherhoods.

W. F. Burditt was heard in an interesting and instructive address on Community Work.

Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Holman and Mrs. Hatheway were introduced during the evening and made a strong plea for assistance for the free kindergarten in the city. The matter of more assistance will be dealt with by the German Street Brotherhood and an effort will be made to get more financial support for this undertaking.

T. H. Estabrooks spoke on the aims and objects of the Home Guards and similar organizations. Elmer A. Beid and Dr. Bonnell were heard in vocal selections.

Appointed Chaplains.

Rev. Gustav A. Kuhring, rector of St. John's (Stone) church, and Rev. Dr. J. H. MacDonald, editor of the Maritime Baptist, have been accepted as chaplains with the second contingent of the Canadian expeditionary force. Dr. MacDonald already has a son with the first contingent and Rev. Mr. Kuhring's sons expect to enlist in the second contingent.

Smith, Walter K. Ganong, John Glynn (absent), Frederick C. Godsoe, Walter H. Golding, A. Ernest Everett, James S. Gregory, James S. Harding, Harry H. Hayward, Ernest J. Hiett, Harry E. Green, George D. Wainmaker (absent), George W. Parker, Andrew Jack, Harry G. Weeks, David J. Hamilton, Frank S. Skinner and William A. Simonds.

The petit jurors summoned were: J. Charles Salmon, James A. Brown, John Jackson (absent), Charles H. Kerr, Isaac Webster, James J. Whelley (absent), Victor A. Scott, Beverly R. Allen, William L. Walsh, Thomas H. Tonge, Robert N. Thorne, John E. Sweeney (excused), William G. Stratton, Christopher Spence, Frank C. Suttell, A. B. Dean, Gandy Thomas S. O'Brien, Robert W. Carson, Charles A. Nevins, G. Holland Lounsbury, Harold Lyman.

The grand jury returned a true bill in every case except that of King Daigle, in which no bill was found. In this case the grand jury were instructed by His Honor that the principal witness was absent from the city.

In the case of the King vs. Beyer, a true bill was found only on the account charging common assault.

D. Mullin, K. C., appeared for the Attorney General.

Was Troubled With Choking Spells and Shortness of Breath.

When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, and dizziness and a weak, sinking, all-over feeling of oppression and anxiety.

Many men and women drag along with weary step, and become worn out and haggard, when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first signs of heart or nerve trouble. On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be given a fair trial and you will find that they will soon correct both these organs.

Mr. James Leard, Tryon, P.E.I., writes: 'Just a few lines to let you know that Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I had choking spells, and was troubled with weakness of the heart and shortness of breath. I tried three doctors but they all failed. A neighbor recommended me to try your pills, so I got a box and they helped me so much I have taken six boxes. I highly recommend them to all who are troubled with their heart and nerves. I was not able to do any work for over two years; now I can do quite a bit.'

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 20 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ITCHING RASH SPREAD OVER BODY

Could Not Sleep. Clothing Irritated. Impossible to Keep from Scratching. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In Ten Days Well.

220 Dufferin Ave., Windsor, Man.—'I became troubled with a rash similar to hives on my face and arms. Later it spread over my body. This rash itched and burned, and if I scratched the skin would become hot and red. It got so very itchy I could not sleep. The more I scratched the worse it got. I sat many minutes at a time with clenched hands to keep from irritating the rash and give my skin time to cool. The first few days the spots increased so rapidly that my body was dotted with them.

"The spots on my face and neck were so plainly visible, especially if I scratched them, that I avoided the folks in the house to hide my disfigurement. Every time my body became over-heated my clothing irritated the rash so much that it was impossible to keep from scratching the parts. Over two weeks of torture and sleepless nights I suffered.

"Knowing from experience that Cuticura Soap and Ointment were good I sent out to the drug store for some. I followed the directions and in a few days I noticed the rash was less; the spots began fading. In ten days I was completely well." (Signed) Mrs. John Lamb, June 11, 1914.
