

BEST

THE MOVIES
THE PLAYERS

Barker, the youngest member of the Y. W. F. A. Others taking part were Miss Grimmer, Miss Gilmo, Miss Sheldon, Miss Killeen, Miss Campbell, Miss Dwing, Miss Burns, Miss Morrison, Miss Courtney, Miss Dodge assisted.

PERSONALS

Dr. A. J. and Mrs. Boyce returned from their honeymoon yesterday. Dr. S. D. Scott, who was editor of the Vancouver, B. C. News-Advertiser for a number of years, is now chief editorial writer on the Province, of the same city. Dr. Scott changed over to the Province when the Sun absorbed the News-Advertiser.—The Fourth Estate.

Miss Bird A. Price, of the purchasing office of T. McArthur & Sons, Ltd., Water street, is spending a few days at her home Havelock, from there she will proceed to Halifax with friends where she will stay the remainder of her vacation.

Miss Athuretha Branscombe, matron of Chipman Memorial Hospital, St. Stephen, is visiting friends in the city.

Dr. W. G. Chamberlain and wife, of Port Fairfield, Me., who have been touring the province by automobile, left on Wednesday for home.

Mrs. Bennett Wilson of St. John.

and Mrs. Richard McDonald of Fred. erickson, have returned from Havelock N. B., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parry.

Hon. A. R. Sillip, of Fredericton, was a visitor in the city yesterday. He left last night for the capital.

F. E. Barrett, of Sussex, was registered at the Dufferin yesterday.

Lewis Connors, of Black's Harbor, was also registered at the Dufferin.

H. McNeil was a visitor to the city yesterday from Dalhousie. He registered at the Victoria.

W. T. Ball was at the Victoria from Moncton.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Boyce returned to the city yesterday after spending a pleasant vacation outside the province.

British War Office
Cinematograph Committee With the Approval of the Department of Militia and Defence, CanadaThe Battle of Arras

Showing the Victorious Canadians at Vimy Ridge and the Retreat of the Germans

Actual Pictures of
OUR GREAT VICTORY

Exclusively in This City at IMPERIAL THEATRE

And to Be Shown in 2-Reel Groups STARTING MON., Oct 1st

See the Start—At 7 Sharp Tonight

OPERA HOUSE

AFTERNOON
at 2.30 15c—10c.

EVENING
at 7.30 and 9 25c—15c—10c.

5 Acts of High Class, Refined Vaudeville
INCLUDING SCHEPP'S COMEDY DOG—PONY and MONKEY
CIRCUS
Billie Burke in GLORIA'S ROMANCE

One of George Randolph Chester's Powerful Vitaphone Stories

AT THE IMPERIAL TODAY

Wonderful Six-Reel Masterpiece

"THE MESSAGE OF THE MOUSE"

Featuring Such Stars As

ANITA STEWART, L. ROGERS LYTTON, JULIA SWAYNE GORDON AND RUDOLPH CAMERON

Bushman-Bayne Serial Story

"The Great Secret"

A Budget of Surprises Again.

MONDAY Beginning of Vimy Ridge Pictures Ethel Barrymore, "White Raven"

STAR THEATRE TONIGHT

"The Masked Stranger"
CHAPTER 2

"THE DOUBLE CROSS"

Who is the Girl of the Double Cross?

This is Probably the Best Comedy We Have Shown in Months.

"LONESOME LUKE ON TIN CAN ALLEY"

A Hen-Pecked Chink
A Wide-Awake Cop
A Restaurant Keeper
A Prize-Fighter
Lonesome Luke as the Champion Cyclist TWO REELS OF GIGGLES AND LAUGHS

SELIG DRAMA
"ONLY A ROSE"
HELEN GIBSON IN
"The Girl on The Bridge"

THE LATEST
METHOD

WEAK STOCK

Declines to 64 1-2, 4 1-2 Below Closing of Wednesday

—Most All Securities Are Heavy.

Special to The Standard.
Montreal, Sept. 27.—Canadian securities were heavy today, with some weakness and a heavier volume of selling in special issues. Toronto

Halifax further declines, carrying the price to 64 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased offerings. There was a partial recovery towards the close, but final prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market was paid to the railways, which declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points

below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

THE LATEST
METHOD

WEAK STOCK

Declines to 64 1-2, 4 1-2 Be-

low Closing of Wednesday

—Most All Securities Are
Heavy.

Special to The Standard.
Montreal, Sept. 27.—Canadian securities were heavy today, with some

weakness and a heavier volume of
selling in special issues. Toronto

Halifax further declines, carrying
the price to 64 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the lowest of the day.

Toronto Railways.
The chief attention of the market

was paid to the railways, which
declined 1-2 to 63 1-2, or 52 points
below the closing price of Wednesday,

which had been the lowest quotation
in twenty years, was distributed to
the general market and unsettledness

was increased by a drive at the New
York market in the early afternoon.
The steel stocks, which had been

virtually inactive, and about steady
in the morning, yielded to increased
offerings. There was a partial re-

covery towards the close, but final
prices were not much above the low-

SNEEDING CAPE HAS

A PRETTY WEDDING

George L. Welling, Jr., and Miss Winnie Caroline Murray United in Marriage at Anglican Church of St. Martin-in-the-Wood.

Special to The Standard.
Shediac Cape, Sept. 27.—A very pretty wedding occurred in the Anglican church of St. Martin-in-the-Wood at 10.30 o'clock yesterday forenoon when Miss Winnie Caroline Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murray, and George L. Welling, Jr., younger son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Welling, were united in marriage by the rector, the Rev. Frederick Ellis. A large number of relatives and friends of the couple were present. The bride and bridegroom were unattended, the former being given away by her father.

The couple stood beneath a beautiful dossal, which with the decorations of green and yellow, gave the interior of the edifice an artistic appearance.

The bride was dressed in white embroided silk with trailing veil, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony the bride and groom, relatives and friends partook of luncheon at the home of the bride's parents. The presentations were numerous and beautiful.

The happy couple left on the St.
John express for St. John and are touring the Maritime Provinces. The bride's travelling costume is of brown cloth with hat of brown velvet.

COAL BILL REDUCED.
The fuel question has been solved.

You can easily reduce your coal bill 25 per cent. Scientists in England have made an important discovery.

A formula that can be prepared in your own home burns longer and gives greater heat. Every family should get this at once and save $1 a ton on coal this winter. Formula mailed to any address upon receipt of $1 which can be enclosed in envelope and mailed to "Fuel Saver," P. O. Box 1207, Halifax, N. S.

ONE OF TRIPLETS
PASSES AWAY

Child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller of Lower Springfield Dies.

Fredericton, Sept. 27.—One of the triplets born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller of Lower Springfield, York county, early in the summer has succumbed to a severe attack of cholera.

Infant, Dr. O. E. Morehouse, examined the child, but before he could reach it death had taken place. Up to the time of the illness of this child all of the triplets had been in the best of health.

Among the Fredericton soldiers who are reported to be in Canada on their way home as invalids are Lieut.

William Buswell, C. A. M. C., Band master James White and Private Robert King of the Infantry.

U. B. W. M. SOCIETY

At a business session of the United Baptist Women's Missionary Society, held in the schoolroom of the church this morning, officers were elected for the coming year.

Mrs. W. G. Clarke presided and Mrs.
J. R. Vanwart acted as recording secretary.

The officers elected were: Mrs. W.
G. Clarke, president (re-elected); 1st vice-president, Mrs. J. A. Fressa, Sussex; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. D. A.

Hamm, Grand Bay; corresponding secretary, Miss A. Sillip, Central Hampton; recording secretary, Mrs.

J. R. Vanwart (re-elected). Advise-ry board, Mrs. J. E. Wilson, Woodstock; Mrs. G. V. Lawson, Moncton; Mrs. N. G. Scott and Mrs. J. H. Mc-

Donald, St. John.

Plans were discussed of a proposed jubilee in 1918-20 in honor of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the society. Plans were made for the increase of efficiency in home mission work in the country districts of New Brunswick.

WEDDINGS

Duffy-Ring.
The marriage of Miss Odessa E.

Ring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W.
Ring, of 208 Queen street, west, and Otho B. Duffy of West St. John, took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison officiating. The bride was costumed in white satin with embroidered net and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Her travelling suit was of navy blue with a white picture hat and she wore white fox furs. Mr. and Mrs. Duffy were left on the Halifax train last evening for a tour of the Maritime Provinces.

On their return they will reside at 178

Rodney street, West St. John. Mr.
Duffy is on the Waring foundry staff.

Berry-Stevens.
Wesley Memorial parlour, Moncton.

was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 26, when Rev. P. P. Fitzpatrick united in marriage Purdy A. Berry of Turtle Creek, Albert Co., N. B., and Nettie M. Stevens of Stevens Mills, N. B. The bride was the young couple left on the C. P. R. express on their wedding trip.

NEW YEAR'S COLLECTIONS.
The Russian Refugee Committee of this city began their activity this season with the Hebrew New Year. The New Year's collections in the Carleton street and Hazen avenue synagogues were $46.91 and $48.65 respectively. Yoram Haddin (day of Atonement) collection, in both synagogues realized $88.03.

LILY WHITE
CORN SYRUP