What will the Reformers Reform? The "Reform" party, which has so miraculously arisen in St. John, had a mutual address meeting in Smith's Hall last night, and speeches were made by Mr. C. W. Weldon, Hon. I. Burpee, Mr. J. S. B. DeVeber, and Mr. J. W. Lawrence.

The report of one of Thomas Nast's admirable lectures, on the first page, is very interesting. Mr. Nast is a power in the land in which he lives and works, and this report gives a better insight into his genius than any dissertation would. He has done very much towards making Harper's Weekly (which really is the most influential paper, socially and politically, in the United States) Mr. Nast and Harper's Weekly overthrew the Tweed Ring, and have recently killed and interred the Herald's American Caesar scoundrel. The Herald devoted two or three columns a day of its valuable space to ridiculing Nast, but a single copy of his crayon turns the laugh against the great daily.

MEN AND THINGS AT OTTAWA. Clouds over the Capital—"There is No Sound of Revolver by Night!" What the Gossip Think About the New Ministry—Mackenzie Becomes Extravagant and Does a New Suit—Difficulties of the Operation.

"We're lonely since the Government died" is the heartfelt expression of fashionable and business Ottawa. No Socialist and Ministers' houses—where welcome; no brilliant balls—November; that all, except two Cabinet Ministers—Dixon, a generally Frenchman, who doesn't get outside a narrow circle of his own countrymen, and Letellier de St. Just, a six-foot-three un-fashionable, fierce-looking Frenchman, who doesn't get anywhere, except to his office and to bed. It is a pity that Ottawa is getting at more and more of a discount in the Capital. Why, every lady in the city—a man—would vote on the 6th to-morrow, if the right of suffrage, and why shouldn't they have it up here? Don't lots of old ladies in our country have it? Ain't Cutler and Ferris, and—and—the editor of the "Register" allowed to post a "Globe" one of them sit in Parliament, and wouldn't others of them like to?

The Henschel Smith Committee and the Institute Directors. The Directors of the Institute yesterday assessed the damage done to the building and furniture on Friday night at $150. They made a careful survey of the damaged articles, and only charged for such articles as must be replaced. Last evening they received a letter from the committee, who had the affair in charge, repudiating the bill for damages, and saying they had taken advice and would pay the rent. Messrs. E. Daniel and J. H. Cumberland, whose names were in the letter, were the parties who leased the hall from Mr. Rowan. There will, doubtless, be a lawsuit over it.

one more member than she is entitled to, and why not give New Brunswick one more also? A seat in the House could be easily found for him. By resigning Mr. Lawrence's talents in this way the Government will firmly secure the constituency which they have just carried by storm.

company, "to be pitted" in a snuff trial, and "to be" made of almost that of those who once clippit at the same state as himself; but I ken'd as gude could come of his crossing 'y' sic men as McMillan and Jay Cooke, and the rest of them eight 'Yankers', who flash, make about their asses that they're 'Yankers'. So saying he walked away whistling "Auld Lang Syne" in dead march time.

This celebrated suit is creating a good deal of comment. Some said it was one of those; but this is false. It's a very new Mackenzie was warned, when discussing the proposed purchase with other Cabinet ministers, that it might endanger the Government if he did not get it made up in time. One thing only, it is said, troubled him in the process of carrying out his compromise. He got in a rage when he found the tailor putting the usual "pistol pocket" in the back of the pants. "Aye, dat, mon?" he said; "ye ken I'm no' a gunner, but ye ken I'm aye in front?" "Hoot, mon," said the knight of the goose; "ye're no' ken, noo that ye're no' a siller about ye, an' will require another pocket, an' I'll ken ye' meanin' noo, mon, ye're in two o' them?" said the perceptive Premier; and it is said that the "gentleman" actually agreed with "ye're o' them in the back." I do not vouch for the truth of this anecdote, but Mackenzie has exaggerated the affair, and put one pocket too much in the back of the pants. Well, you have a dish of gossip about the new Ministers. When they get to work, you will hear faithfully what they are doing, and what they do not. Some of them have hardy bodies and brave brains. It is said that in point of energy and persistence of purpose, Mackenzie and Mitchell are very much alike; but if you ask society about their respective social qualities, it will quickly respond: "Better half an hour of Mitchell, than a century of Mack."

Board of Trade. The Board of Trade held its annual meeting yesterday afternoon. There was a good attendance of members, and considerable interest was manifested in the meeting. The Secretary, A. C. Fairweather, Esq., read a lengthy report of the work of the year, dealing with all matters that had been considered by the Board. The President, C. H. Fairweather, Esq., in a short speech thanked the members of the Board for their courtesy to him while occupying the chair. As he had been in the position three years he asked that, in the interest of the Board, a change be made. A vote of thanks was at once tendered him, with a request that he would continue to occupy the chair. J. W. Scammell, Esq., was also proposed for the position but declined to serve.

After some little discussion the officers were elected as before, Mr. Fairweather, President, and Mr. Scammell, Vice President. The following gentlemen were elected for the Council: Mr. R. S. DeVeber, Mr. H. A. Austin, Mr. S. D. Barton, The High Sheriff, Mr. Jeremiah Harrison, Hon. T. R. Jones, Mr. C. W. Watson, Mr. John Magee, Mr. M. Linday, Mr. Lake Stewart.

The harbor matter was discussed, and it was stated that the Committee of the Common Council were discussing the subject.

Steamer City of St. John. The City of St. John has made her last trip to the St. Croix this season. She was forced to leave her wharf at St. Stephen on Saturday, to keep her from being frozen in, and to the Leidge. On Monday she tried to get up river again, and stuck in the ice before reaching McAllister's wharf. She got clear and arrived here last evening. The steamer Riparian is frozen in at St. George. The City of St. John has made her trips with regularity, with safety for her passengers and freight, and to the satisfaction of all concerned. She has been of great service to St. George, St. Andrews and St. Stephen, and also to the trade of St. John, and everybody will be glad to see her on the route again in the spring.

ACQUAELLE Vignettes and Miniatures at NORMAN'S. Power of Speaking Restored. NEWARK, Ontario, D. C., March 30, 1870. Mr. FELLOWS—Sir: Some two months ago my son lost his voice. I became very anxious about him. None of the physicians could do him any good. Having heard of your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, I obtained a bottle. Strange to say, my son's voice was restored about two hours after taking the second dose. You are at liberty to publish this for the benefit of other sufferers. JONAS FORBESMILL.

If People Who Suffer from the dull stupidity that meets us everywhere in spring, and too often in all seasons of the year, knew how quick it could be cured by taking LAY'S SAFETY-PAPER to purify the bile from their system, we should have better neighbors as well as clearer heads to deal with.

Shipping Notes. The schooner Kitty Stevens, Anderson, master, at Philadelphia, 28th ult., from this port, reports having encountered heavy weather on the passage and lost deckload. The bark Silver Cloud, from Antwerp for New York, put into Gravesend on the 29th ult., having been damaged by collision. The bark Besie Parker (of this port), Wren, master, at New York 28th ult., from Belfast, L., reports that on the 17th November, in lat. 42 04, lon. 49 54, saw a bark steering W. N. W., with loss of fore and mainmasts; it was blowing a gale at the time so that they could not ascertain her name. The brig Java (of Brigewater, N.S.), from Salt Key, T. I., 17 days, reports, having encountered heavy S. W. and N. W. gales, off Bermuda, carried away foremast backstays, lanyards of rigging, etc.; thence got right across the Gulf; Nov. 25, lat. 30 20 N., lon. 74 W., experienced a violent hurricane from N. W. in which the vessel became unmanageable and rolled fearfully, the sea making a complete break over her, and in consequence of the heavy sea running in different quarters carried away foremast, with everything attached, struck mainmast and received other damage to the hull and boats; the rigging of foremast was cut away to relieve the vessel of flummint dunnage; temporary sail was then put on the vessel and endeavored to reach Sandy Hook. The schooner A. C. Watson (of this port) MacKay, master, hence, for Vineyard Haven, with lads, drove ashore at Tennen's Cove during the late gale. Having discharged deckload she was got off without damage and proceeded. H. M. S. Sirius.—The naval authorities at Halifax have received advices by cable that H. M. S. Sirius from the Cape before reported missing, arrived in England the 21st ult. Sch. Maud C.—This fine new schooner was built at Salmon River, St. John Co., by Mr. N. H. Foster. The builder, Messrs. Leonard of this city, and Captain H. H. Foster, are the owners. Her dimensions are as follows: Length of keel 96 feet; breadth of beam 28 feet; depth of hold 10 feet 6 inches. She is well built of spruce and hard wood and is classed for 30 years in American Lloyd's. The Maud C. was built for the West India trade and will probably charter in this port. Capt. H. J. Foster will command her.

St. Andrews Celebration. The St. Andrews Social Conversations at the Victoria last evening was a great success. The attendance of ladies and gentlemen was large, the supper good, the speeches short, and the dancing spirited. The speakers in reply to toasts were Lake Stewart, President of the Society, J. G. Forbes, W. C. Watson, M. P. F., M. E. C., Wm. Elder, C. Armstrong, J. L. Stewart, and M. Lindsay. The ladies drank the toasts, and did not seem shocked at the Penitentiary when indulged in, but none of them made a speech. The next St. Andrew's Day, we hope, will be celebrated in the same manner.

Pure Confections. The makers of candies, either for retail or for their own use, should always call for those manufactured at the Victoria Steam Confectionery Works. Messrs. Woodburn & Co. are determined to sustain their reputation for making a pure article. See advt. on this page.

Police Court. The advance in the price of drunks had a beautiful effect, as fewer were seen in the dock each morning. Charles Johnston was charged with being drunk in Prince Wm. street and admitted the charge. A fine of $4, with an additional 25 cents for cartage, was imposed. Wm. Carvey not only got drunk, but assaulted Mary Langan, and in her own house. The woman did not appear to press the charge of assault, and $8 or two months in the Penitentiary were given as a reward for his night's disposition. Daniel Gunn was again in the dock. Drunk and disorderly on British street was all he had to answer for. Two months with Mr. Quilton in the same place across the Bay will satisfy him that too many shots in the locker are not good for any man. Then Miss Diamond, black diamond, confessed that she had no home or place of abode, and was sent to the Penitentiary for two months.

Fortland Police Court. James Robinson was the only prisoner; more than celebrate St. Andrew's Day, and coming from Musquash he called several times and imbibed. The result was that one or two drinks fixed him when he got to Fortland. The magis-trate took a reasonable view of the case, and in honor of St. Andrew let him off without a fine. A farmer in Kansas recently found himself short of kaus, when at midnight a pair of burglars called upon him. He had a gun, and he had powder, and he had a box of fever pills. Into the gun went the pills, and after a moment into the burglars, one of whom was killed and the other severely wounded. Neither of the scoundrels is prepared to certify that the pills did him any good.

At the Provincial Exhibition to be held in Halifax next year, the prizes for $6,000, and it is proposed besides this to have prizes for ornamental plants and flowers.
