NOTICE - The Subscribers to the ATHE-NEUM, Newspaper, are respectfully informed, that Mr. Wm. Scott, Merchant, of this City, has ances due to the Wesleyan Office for that Paper, Place.
On Sunday evening, 24th ult., by the Rev. Dr. Wil up to April last, and the said Subscribers are requested to pay the same to him with as little de-incidents of yesterday, a most lamentable occurrence. A young man, named John Invin, son of Mr. Irvin, City Marshall, while enjoying himself with a great number of others skating on Maynard's Lake, Dartmouth, suddenly disappeared through the ice, and was not seen afterwards. Wm. Hume, nephew of Dr. Hume, young Lessell, and another lad, nobly risked their lives by instantly diving under the ice in search of the poor fellow, but without success—Colonist.
