

Why Refer to Doctors

Because we make medicines for them. We tell them all about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and they prescribe it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. They trust it. Then you can afford to trust it. Ask your own doctor.

CHARLESTON

Everybody should subscribe for the Reporter—its story is worth the money.

H. E. Laffan and sister, Prescott, are visiting friends.

The Christmas tree entertainment held at the residence of Mr. John Cowan on Wednesday evening was a success in every way. Songs, recitations and dialogues were the chief features of the evening, interspersed with sweet music rendered by M. J. Kavanagh, the well known violinist. Miss E. Slack, organ, and W. Morris, clarinet. A tree, well laden with gifts for the little folks, attracted much attention. At the close of the entertainment Mr. John Cowan, Sunday-school teacher, was presented with a very handsome pair of fur mittens. The proceeds were for the Charleston Sunday school. We understand that in the near future, there is to be erected in Charleston a hall for the purpose of having school and entertainments.

A number from here attended the Christmas tree entertainment given by Miss Eva Johnston, teacher at Union Valley.

Mr. D. R. Slack and T. M. Slack, Long Point, are visiting friends and attended the entertainment given by Miss Gladys Johnston at Glen Morris school on Friday evening.

Our school closed on Friday for the Christmas holidays. The teacher, Miss Mabel Morris, treated the pupils to candy, oranges, etc., and they in turn presented her with a very handsome gold locket. We are very much pleased to know that Miss Morris is to remain with us for another year.

A number of our people attended the entertainment at the town hall, Athens, on Thursday evening.

E. Letimer has kindly given the use of his house to hold Sunday school every Sunday afternoon.

W. Crozier made his first trip to Charleston on the ice on Tuesday. The crossing is good to Keisey's Bay, and skating is much enjoyed.

What Not to Say

An article by Bertha Gaus in the New Idea Woman's Magazine for January takes up the polite art of conversation from a negative point of view. The "don'ts" enumerated by the writer for those wishing to be good talkers, are "Don't tell long stories of personal experiences. Don't ask trifling questions. Don't air your prejudices. Don't talk of melancholy or gruesome matters. Don't speak in a low, monotonous tone. Don't ride conversation too hard. Don't hinder the conversation by trying to be too accurate over details. Don't go back and add appendices to a subject after you have left it. Don't run one story into another. Don't stop a discussion by the clinching use of a proverb. Don't make a point of always agreeing with a speaker. Don't harp too long on one string. Don't affect a stilted style." After discussing these prohibitions to talkers at some length the writer concludes: "Still, it must be confessed that there are people who are constitutionally incapable of following out these rules, and who, in spite of all their violations, are interesting people. They have native strength and make their own rules of self-expression. They are the stuff out of which novelists make character impersonations. In real life, as in books, they add to the gaiety of nations. But they are not exemplars of the art of conversation, which requires harmonious balance in all the give-and-take of conversational exchange."

An Important Question

Mr. Isaac Doles, Indianapolis, Ind. Dear Sir: Is Chromatic Two Step included with "Old Fellows Grand March and St. George Commandery March, in your 3 for 25cts list? I think Chromatic Two Step and march is the most interesting and prettiest I have ever heard. Mrs. Kuno Kiekisch, 431 Locust St. ANSWER—YES, I will send them for 10cts each, two for 18c or 3 for 25c in two-cent stamps. (Introduction price). Address Isaac Doles, Indianapolis, Ind.

Minister vs. Editor

A preacher came at a newspaper man in this way: You editors do not tell the truth. If you did you could not live; your newspapers would be a failure. The editor replied: You are right and the minister who writes at all times and under all circumstances tell the whole truth about his members, alive or dead, will not occupy his pulpit more than one Sunday, and then he will find it necessary to leave town in a hurry. The press and the pulpit go hand in hand with white wash brushes and pleasant words, magnifying little virtues into big ones. The pulpit, and the pen, and the grave stone are the great saints making triumvirate. An't the great minister went away locking very thoughtful while the editor turned to his work, and told of the surpassing beauty of the bride, while in fact she was as homely as a mud fence.

Aches and Pains

You know by experience that the aches and pains of rheumatism are not permanent, but only temporarily, relieved by external remedies. Then why not use an internal remedy—Hood's Sarsaparilla, which corrects the acidity of the blood on which rheumatism depends and cures the disease? This medicine has done more for the rheumatic than any other medicine in the world.

TRY THIS FOR YOUR COUGH

To relieve a cough or break up a cold in twenty four hours, the following simple formula, the ingredients of which can be obtained of any good prescription druggist at small cost, is all that will be required: Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), one-half ounce; Glycerine, two ounces; good Whisky, a half pint. Shake well and take in teaspoonful doses every four hours. The desired results can not be obtained unless the ingredients are pure. It is therefore better to purchase the ingredients separately and prepare the mixture yourself. Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) should be purchased in the original half-ounce vials, which druggists buy for dispensing. Each vial is securely sealed in a round wooden case which protects the Oil from exposure to light. Around the wooden case is an engraved wrapper with the name—"Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure)"—plainly printed thereon. There are many imitations and cheap productions of Pine, but these only create nausea, and never effect the desired results.
