

IV. And be it enacted, That the authorities hereby empowered to grant certificates for tavern licenses, shall not grant any such certificate, unless the party applying for the same shall prove to their satisfaction that he holds, Party claiming certificate to prove that he has certain real estate.
 5 at the place at which his intention is to keep a Tavern, real property of the value of at least one hundred and fifty pounds currency, free of all incumbrances, and shall furnish two good and sufficient sureties in the sum of two hundred pounds each and himself in four hundred pounds,
 10 for his good behaviour; nor unless he shall also produce a certificate from two Justices of the Peace or ten municipal electors in his municipality, to the effect that he enjoys an unblemished reputation and is not addicted to drink; and such certificate shall be published and posted up
 15 at the Church door or at the School House at least eight days before his application for a certificate, with the names of the signers thereof thereunto attached.

V. And be it enacted, That on production of such certificate, it shall be lawful for the Governor of this Province Governor may grant license.
 20 or any other person whom he shall authorise for that purpose, to grant a tavern license to the party producing the same, on payment by the said party of the sum of ten pounds currency; over and above the duty imposed by Act of the Imperial Parliament; provided that all such
 25 licenses shall be in force until the first day of June next after the granting thereof.

VI. And be it enacted, That if any tavern keeper shall be convicted on the oath of two witnesses, before a Justice of the Peace of having contributed to the intoxication of any person, either by selling, giving or delivering to him in any manner, by himself or by any one of his household, any intoxicating liquor whatsoever, within the six hours immediately preceding such intoxication, such tavern keeper shall thereby incur a penalty of ten pounds
 30 currency.
Penalty on Tavern-keepers contributing to intoxicate any person

VII. And be it enacted, That when any family shall have suffered damage by reason of any of its members losing his time or his money at a tavern, either by drinking or causing others to drink, or by gambling or otherwise, any other member of such family may lodge a complaint before any Justice of the Peace against the keeper of such tavern, who shall on conviction be condemned to pay to the said family an indemnity of not less than five shillings for every half day which shall be proved to have 40 been lost by such party as aforesaid: Provided always, Proviso. that it shall be lawful for any tavern keeper, not only to refuse to give any spirituous liquors to any party demanding the same, but also summarily to eject such party from his premises.

50 VIII. And whereas it has often happened that unfortunate persons have lost their lives when in a state of in- Recital.