

XVII.

That every order of any Justice of this Court, which shall be obtained upon Summons in vacation, shall be subject to an appeal to this Court, and the validity thereof impeached, by moving the Court to set such order aside, or to set aside the proceedings, which have been had under it: it being nevertheless provided, that any such order which shall be made by consent or be otherwise acquiesced in, shall be as valid as any act of the Court.

XVIII.

That all proceedings upon Writs of certiorari prohibition, mandamus, quo warranto, and habeas corpus, and upon each of them respectively, be in all things similar to the proceedings upon such Writs in Her Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Westminster Hall.

XIX.

That every Suit or Action in which there shall have been no proceedings for and during two entire Terms of this Court, shall be removed to the Archives, and the Prothonotary shall be entitled to his costs in such suit or action as if the same was withdrawn by permission of the Court, but every such suit or action shall continue pending subject to peremption d'instance.

XX.

It is ordered that henceforth no contested cause be heard on the two last days of the Term.

 SECTION IV.
Of Process ad Respondendum.

IT IS ORDERED,

I.

That no Process ad Respondendum, of any description, sued out by the ministry of an Attorney ad litem, shall issue, until an appearance, for the person or persons requiring such Process, and a Præcipe for the same, under the signature of such Attorney, shall be filed, in the Office of the
