

him and countersigned by two of the other Trustees in case they be five in number, or by three of the other Trustees in case they be more than five in number, shall be held to be good and valid to all intents and purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that the said Trustees, or a majority of them, may, by an instrument under their hands, revoke such appointment, and appoint in like manner any other of their number, manager as aforesaid; And provided also that nothing herein contained shall prevent, or be construed to prevent the Trustees, or the majority of them, from acting collectively for all the purposes of their trust and of this Ordinance, without appointing a manager as aforesaid: Provided also, that any majority of the said Trustees or of such of them as shall then be within this Province, shall have all the powers hereby vested in the said Trustees; and service of any summons, process, notice or document at the usual office of the said Trustees, shall be held in law to be a sufficient service of the same.

IX. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that the Roads to and over which the provisions of this Ordinance and the powers of the said Trustees shall extend are:—

Roads over which the powers of the trustees shall extend:

Firstly—The Cove or Beach Road between the Cliff and the River St. Lawrence, from the Boundary of the City and Town of Quebec, to the south-west extremity of Sillery Cove.

Secondly—The Road called St. Louis Road, or "La Grande Allée," and the continuation of the same, from the Boundary of the said City and Town to the north-eastern extremity of the Bridge over the Cap-Rouge River, and of the works appertaining to the same; and also the public cross-road now open at the place commonly called New Kilmarnock, and leading from the said St. Louis Road to the said Cove or Beach Road.

Thirdly—The Road called St. Foy Road, from the Boundary of the said City and Town to a point one hundred yards beyond the place where it is intersected by the Road next hereinafter mentioned.

Fourthly—The Road commonly called "La Suède," from the point where it intersects the road last mentioned, to the foot of the Hill commonly called "La Côte de Champigny."

Fifthly—The Road which joins the last mentioned near the said "Côte de Champigny," from the said point of junction to the south-western side of the land known as Hough's farm, a short distance beyond the point where the said road is intersected by the road crossing it nearly at right angles and leading downwards towards the Cap-Rouge Mill, and upwards towards the place commonly called the "Grand Désert."

Sixthly—
