Hockey Golden Bears quietly build up record

by Mark Spector
The hockey Bears just keep rolling right along.

With a pair of victories out on the coast over the UBC Thunderbirds (5-1 and 6-4), the Bears upped their seasonal record to a league leading 7-1. Including exhibition play, Alberta's 1985-86 record stands at

Not bad for a rebuilding year. Friday night it was Craig Dill scoring two goals while singles were, added by Colin Chisholm (1st), Gerald Koebel (5th) and Stacey Wakabayashi.

John Krill played in goal for the Bears, allowing only a shot from UBC forward Mark Didcott past him at 11:54 of the second period. Krill stopped 33 pucks on the night.

In that game, the Alberta penalty killing continued to shine. Heading into the weekend, Alberta had allowed only 11 powerplay goals against in 53 opportunities. That's an efficiency percentage of 79.2. On Friday night in Vancouver, the T-Birds were 0-6 on powerplay chances while the Bears went 1-3.

The next night, UBC came out just a little bit hungrier for a win over Alberta. It's no wonder, really, as Alberta holds the edge over the last two seasons to the tune of 11-0. In the opening series for both clubs this year, the Bears swept UBC 7-4

And the game wasn't on ice until Dennis Cranston fired home an empty net goal with 30 seconds remaining for his sixth of the season to give Alberta the 6-4 victory.

Craig Dill had the winner at 15:11 of the third period, notching his second two-goal game in as many nights. Dill now has seven goals on seventh, while Wakabayashi had one goal (number five) and two assists. Koebel had three helpers while Eric Thurston had a couple.

Making his first appearance in a Golden Bear uniform was goaltender Darren Turner. He stopped 34 of 38 shots on the night, and three of the four shots that eluded him were powerplay goals.

Scoring for UBC was Al Perich (two goals), Kevin Griffin, and Rick Amann. The T-Birds record now falls to 2-6. Chances are that the Bears have seen the last of UBC for this season, unless the T-Birds can pull off a miracle and make the playoffs.

Alberta's next action is at home against the Manitoba Bisons this weekend. Friday night's game is free tuition night so one lucky fan will get a shot at winning this year's tuition courtesy of Athletics deBear Facts — Friday night's game will feature a pregame tribute to Clare Drake for becoming the winningest college coach ever, earlier this year... This weekend is the Hockey Alumni's reunion weekend and they have a tournament planned for Sunday morning. They're expecting over 100 alumni to make it to Edmonton for the event. . .

Everyone around the Athletics department is hush hush about the Alumni's hockey banner night which is scheduled for Friday. Apparently the Alumni has orderd championship banners made for all the way back to the 1920's and would like to have them hanging for the Manitoba series. But no one is sure if they'll be ready by then, so we'll just have to wait and see.
