

July 31st, 1918.

Dear Sir -

Replying to your letter of the 22nd inst., addressed to the Hon. W. J. Roche, late Minister of the Department of the Interior, I would state that the leasing of Indian lands in the western provinces is being dealt with by Mr. W. M. Graham, Commissioner, Regina, Sask., who was specially appointed last spring for this purpose..

I have wired him your application and I would ask that you communicate direct with him.

Yours very truly,

Deputy Superintendent General.

T. G. Lanegraff, Esq.,
Prince, Sask.
