

P. 3

Off Hoodball

Page 3

2nd

I sent ~~him~~ back an hour and a half later to see if he could find him again. He returned with the same reply as before that the accused was not there. At approx 1245 hrs Thos 44, I lined the platoon up prior to embussing & called the roll. Rfn Russell was not present. We received orders to embuss at 1300 hrs & left Ident without Rfn Russell. I have not seen the accused from that time until the summary of evidence was taken a few days ago.

Cross: Examined by Defence.

My orders were given to me by the CSM & I warned the Sec. Commanders, whose duty it was to warn their sections. I could not warn my men individually as we were billeted around town. If a Sec. Cmdr did not warn his section they would not be

Examined by Court,

~~warned at all.~~

As Rfn Russell was still on my pl thought