The advertisement is a vertical, ornate design. At the top is a rectangular illustration of a large, leafy tree. Below this is a large circular frame containing a detailed illustration of a multi-story building with a central tower. Surrounding this central circle are six smaller circular portraits of individuals. The names of these individuals are printed in small boxes around the portraits: 'HARRIS' (top left), 'MILSON GEORGE' (middle left), 'G. W. WIGGINS' (bottom left), 'M. H. JOHNS, M. E.' (middle right), 'J. W. STEWART' (bottom right), and 'COLLEGE & ISLAND' (top center, above the main circle). The text 'BUSINESS' and 'FIRST CITY' is prominently displayed in the center, below the main circle. The entire composition is enclosed in a decorative border with floral and scrollwork motifs.
