

FROM HON. SIR HENRY PARKES, K.C.M.G., COLONIAL SECRETARY, NEW SOUTH WALES.

"Please send me 12 copies of your valuable work. The leading statesmen here have united in subscribing for it."

FROM J. C. YATES, Esq., SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA.

"All Canadians on the Pacific Slope desire to subscribe to the REGISTER. I send list of names with this, and will send a list with additional subscribers before the expiration of the week."

"This is a very complete and voluminous work, and will be highly useful to those persons who are interested in the Dominion, whether resident therein or not."—The Colonies and India (London, Eng.)

"It makes a volume of about 400 pages, exclusive of the advertisements. Some features are wanting which will naturally be supplied in future issues, but, even as it stands, this 'Register' will be found invaluable to anyone who wishes to study or write about Canadian affairs."—New York Nation.

"To the journalist and public man this volume must prove of great value. It contains a very full account of the leading events, political, historical and social, which have occurred in Canada since, and embracing a portion of the year 1867. This happily and succinctly summarized and placed in a way which makes it easy for consultation. The utmost impartiality is exercised in the preparation and presentation of the political matter, and no opinion either way is expressed or in any manner implied. This will give the REGISTER a real and permanent value, and make it acceptable alike to Reformer and Conservative."—Quebec Chronicle.

"Mr. Henry J. Morgan's reputation as an accurate and industrious editor of works of useful information and lasting value to publicists and politicians is already well known. The present volume detracts nothing from his credit. It is a first attempt at supplying for Canada that most valuable annual record of public events which has been found so useful in England, and to the compilation of which even the genius of Edmund Burke was ready to bind itself. As a first attempt it does not claim completeness; but the mass of material that is here afforded in a reasonably small space is ample warrant that industry will not be wanting to supply everything that the editor's pride in his work will lead him to supply in successive numbers."—Toronto Mail.

"It is but commonplace to say that his book supplies an undoubted want. The fact is the more evident to anyone who finds himself under the necessity of looking up the circumstances of any particular event in any particular year. Say it is a political event; he will probably refer, in the first place, to the files of the leading newspapers, but newspapers are not infallible guides in political matters and to make sure of his ground he must industriously search the pages of the Journals of Parliament, and rummage blue books without number. The ANNUAL REGISTER will save this labor in the vast majority of cases. But it will not be alone valuable in matters political. It is a compact repertoire of all the events of the year, political, social, financial, scientific and literary. Allison, the historian, has testified to the value of the British Register in terms of the highest praise; and should Mr. Morgan's book have a long existence, as we hope it will have, for it deserves it, the future historian of Canada will find in it much work ready to his hand. It is not to the historian alone, however, that it will be valuable. It will be extremely welcome in every journalist's room; to the public man, of whatever kind, it will be invaluable, while everyone who takes interest in the character of the stock upon his bookshelves, will feel that no more valuable work than this could find a place upon them. * * * The value of such a history is that it is impartial. A careful perusal of Mr. Morgan's review enables us to say, without any reserve whatever, that it leaves nothing to be desired on the score of impartiality. Governments come and go, the 'ins' of to-day are the 'outs' of to-morrow. To show any bias would be a fatal blot; but there is no bias in the political history for 1878. * * * Altogether, the book is extremely creditable to the editor. It shows great research and industry, and is written in good, strong English. Mr. Morgan has given abundant proof that those who regarded him as peculiarly fitted for the preparation of a work of this kind, were not mistaken in their opinion."—Canadian Monthly.
