

June 1908

WAX MOTH

By E

U. S. DEPART
BUREAU
Bulle

It has genera
ers that, while considerable da
combs and in an unmixed evi
infected with b posed to remove on apiculture a
journals have statement. Evi
fit to look into
and it is the ob
to record some been made.

When a bee la
American foul b and the mass be small stick or p decayed mass and
rial adheres to it
an inch or more
dead larva is ve
brood disease.
makes it impossi
move the infected
decayed mass dries
which adheres so
wall of the cell th
without tearing t
As the disease p
the various cells
come to contain di
scales formed of d
able that after a c
tain a diseased lar
able for another la
in a healthy condi
number of bees w
condition is consta
the old field bees

PLATE I.—WORK OF THE LARGE WAX MOTH (GALLERIA MELLONELLA) IN COMB INFECTED WITH AMERICAN FOUL BROOD. (ORIGINAL.)