GOSSIP.

Mr. Hudson Usher, Queenston, Ont., breeder of Shorthorn cattle, makes a change in his advertisement, and writes: "One of the bulls advertised is Queenston Montalis =50434=, a dark roan, two years old, sired by Lord Montalis, by Collynie Archer (bred by Wm. Duthie, and imported by Hon. John Dryden). His dam is Bessie's Maid =47779=, a Kinellar Bessie, by the great old sire, Royal Prince (imp.) =26062=. The other is a yearling—a show bull—got by our former great stock bull, Derby (imp.) =32059=. (See illustration in the "Farmer's Advocate" of Nov. 24th, 1904.) His dam is Veronica (imp.) =38282=, by the show bull and sire of show bulls, Mr. Kelly's $6,000 Brave Archer (imp.), sire of Royal Archer, first and championship Highland Society's Show, and of Deane Willis' former champion, C. I. V. Veronica is of same family as the noted sire and show bull, Choice Goods. This youngster is a remarkably straight, thick, even-fleshed bull, and comes by his quality honestly, as the breeding is the best that Scotland affords."

TRADE TOPIC.

STRAWBERRY CULTURE. — Great Crops of Strawberries and How to Grow Them is the title of a book written by the R. M. Kellogg Co., of Three Rivers, Mich. Every detail of strawberry-growing is made so plain that those who follow the directions of the book are bound to succeed. It contains nothing but common sense, and the results of actual experience in berry-growing. It will be sent free to all of our readers who will send their address to the publishers. See the announcement of the R. M. Kellogg Co. in another column, and read the free offer.

NO HAND RUBBING
The New Century Washer

Readers it quite unnecessary to use a washboard. Five or six minutes' easy movement of the machine while seated in a chair will thoroughly wash a tubful of clothes.
