

Hannah's
Scotch
Pickles

First—the pickles are sound and crisp. Second—they are preserved in genuine Malt vinegar which is brewed by the picklers themselves. Third—they are packed with scrupulous care. Fourth—the bottles bear very showy and most attractive labels. Could you ask more than all this for highest pickle quality? (10, 16, 20, 30 and 40-ounce bottles.)

Quality Tells!

Absolutely free from animal matter and hence free from any chance of decay.

No smells, no odors like ordinary soap. Contains 67 per cent. of pure oil—7 per cent. more than others.

For the skin or for fine laundry work it is unexcelled.

In pressed cakes and in bars.
