WERE FINED HEAVILY

ed by Magistrate Livingston Today.

Although they pleaded hard before Magistrate Livingston for another chance this morning, Edward and prisonment, but they were given the option of a fine.

The male defendant had a bad record and had been convicted in April, 1910, in Toronto, and fined $20 and costs, and convicted again on March 25, 1913 of keeping a disorderly house and fined $50 and costs or six months. His wife, Lucy, was also convicted on the second occasion and allowed to go on suspended sentence. She had told the same tale be fore the Toronto Bench as she had told this morning.

The magistrate said he did not think that Gains had the instincts of a man, to which defendant replied that he had worked ever since he had been in Brantford. This, the chief asserted was not correct. Reflecting
