DIPHTHERIA THREATENS PETIE POWERS

Ottawa Utility Man Laid Up and May Be Out for Several Days.

The Senators may lose the services of Petie Powers, the all-around utility man, who has been ailing since his return from the west and who it is feared may develop diphtheria. Powers has been in bed since Sunday morning and this morning his case was diagnosed and the exact nature of it will be better known this afternoon. Powers' absence from the club is already felt as it diminishes the team's hitting strength as well as necessitating the presence of a pitcher in the outfield.

WILL BE BIG EVENT

Indications point to as many if not more entry of rinks than ever attended the W. O. B. A. as all bowling tournaments this year have seen a greatly increased attendance and bowling seems to have grown so popular that the game has far exceeded all past experiences.

The London Thistles and the Queen City Club of Toronto, have each won the Labatt trophy on two occasions and will be out to possess it this year as three wins captures it. The Brantford Heathers, London K. C. and Aylmer have each won the big event once, since the London Rowing Club put the original Labatt trophy out of competition when Jim McDougall's rink won it in 1907.

THE CLIMBERS WON

The Climbers defeated the Maple Leafs in a League game, last night 14 to 0. Vanskirk allowed but one hit while Shuler and Anguish were hit at the corners of the lot.

Hurley, Herter and Sayles starred in the infield, having about 5 put-outs each. Hess and Carpenter were there as usual with the bat.

The score:—

What Ottawa Thinks

Ottawa, July 14.—The best the champions can now get from Brantford is an even break in the series in progress at Lansdowne Park. The Red Sox when here last were tail-enders, but were just starting to come. They appear to have arrived and are the most dangerous looking aggregation on the Fitzgerald wheel right now. It's a cinch they will give both Hamilton and Guelph all they can handle.

Following the Brantford series, the Guelph Leafs will open a four game engagement on Thursday. If Shag can take the next two from the Red Sox he will be well up to pull the Leafs out of first place. The race is an exceedingly close one, and quite as exciting as that in the National League.

The champs are in a batting slump for the time being, though all credit should be given Slab Warner, who pitched a swell game yesterday. Warner only allowed Hamilton one run on five hits and a side arm and under hand delivery that baffles the batter considerably. His control is exact and makes the batter hit at balls on the in or outside invariably.

The way the champs went down, one, two, three, in the last five innings was a shame Fast feuding and good pitching were the reasons for setting them down.

Pitcher Ryerson will likely be turned over to Brantford to-day. Hamilton is all agog over the showing of the Tigers this season. The daily papers carry full page streamers of the doings of the Hams and each player who accomplished anything of note comes in for a big paragraph.

The London papers are grilling Reising and his Cockneys. Something will have to start soon in London town or the fans will ride the team out on a rail.

Rabbit Fried picked a couple of nice drives out of the ozone yesterday. George Dunlop is covering quite as much ground as he did two years ago with London. He handles ground balls on any old hop and is sure.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE SCORES

Junior City League

ORIOLES DEFEATED

The Orioles went down to defeat last evening before the Junior Alerts by the close score of 2 to 0. Both teams played excellent ball and the game resulted in a pitchers' battle with Young being the victor. The umpiring was bad, especially on the bases, which was the cause of a loss for the Orioles. The batteries were as follows: Alerts—Young and Wel-ler; Orioles, Taylor and Baird.

PROVIDENCE WON.

Providence, R.I., July 15.—Joe Oeschger, the ex-Phillie, obtained from Manager Moran, on an optional agreement, pitched a no-hit, no-run game for the Grays in the second game of the series with Toronto yesterday, Luque riding to the sack on the only pass of the game in the ninth inning. The battle consumed only an hour and 14 minutes, and the champions took down the decision on a count of 1 to 0. The solitary tally was scored after one man was down in the ninth.

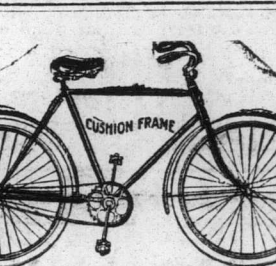

Oeschger's achievement was all the more remarkable in view of the fact that in the closing stages he was handicapped by a wet ball, rain falling intermittently and at one time threatening to put an end to hostilities. Only 27 batsmen looked over his slumps, three coming up each round. Walter Manning was on the hillock for the invaders, and he pitched high class ball every foot of the journey. old tough luck in the form of a pair of errors costing him the verdict. The veteran had a puzzling, slow ball with a drop like a hook and it was straight-ened to safe territory but six times, and the single by Manager Shean that beat him in the 9th after his fielders had thrown him down on a pair of errors was a scratch.

The score:—

Providence	000000000—1
Toronto	000000000—0
