Millions in Dividends The Hollinger in six years produced $15,466,444 in bullion, and paid $7,456,000 in dividends. The Dome in four years had an output of $6,183,241 and paid out $1,200,000 in dividends. The Porcupine Crown in four years produced $2,-156,304 and paid $720,000 in dividends. The McIntyre in five years produced $2,672,138, and started paying dividends this year. NEWRAY the next big producer ! The company owns 320 acres in the Hollinger-Mc-Intyre-Newray section of the Porcupine camp, and will start the 10-stamp mill on May the First. The big profits in the mining market are made by investors who buy stock in a company which has brought its property from the "prospect" into the "mine" stage.

We advise the Purchase of Newray-NOW!
