

PHOTOGRAPHIC COLLECTION

On the Wall Behind the Door of the Post Office.

Pictures From All Over the World Which Are Awaiting the Identification of Owners.

On the wall, behind the door in the postoffice there is a collection of photographs which is not there to advertise the business of any local photograph gallery, or anything of the sort. Neither is it a collection of photographs representing the caste of a theatrical company. It has a much more serious purpose, and there is a side to it which may well be considered pathetic.

There are over 100 of the pictures ranging in size from the carte de visite to the 8x10 variety on large white mounts, and it is safe to say that there is not one of the whole collection that was not mailed from some far off home, with loving thoughts and kind solicitude, to the wanderer, whose disposition or necessities had carried so far from home that a glimpse of aliburn paper and cardboard bearing the likeness of some dear one, or family group, would come like the sight of green foliage and running streams.

These pictures have been mailed from almost every conceivable place covered by mail routes to people supposed to get mail in Dawson, and for a variety of reasons have been posted upon the wall for identification.

In some cases the wrappers have been destroyed or the addresses disfigured beyond deciphering in transmission, and in others the pictures have simply lain uncalled for so long that it seemed the only way offering any hope of final delivery was to post them upon the office wall in the hope that among those who visit for mail or stop to chat would be found the owners of the unclaimed pictures.

To look over the collection is like going through the family album of a newly made acquaintance. They are all there and may be easily selected, from the infant of three months with the interesting expression, to the group of school children containing the small brothers and sisters. There is the family group and the single portrait, and while none of them are of any particular interest to the stranger who looks at them without recognition, no doubt there are many in the country who would give a great deal if they only knew what was waiting for them on the dingy wall behind the postoffice door.

Canadian News.

New Glasgow, Sept. 21.—Hon. Messrs. Paterson and Fielding addressed a crowded house here last night in the interest of the Liberal government. Both ministers repudiated the charges of mal-administration aimed at the government by Conservatives.

Woodbridge, Sept. 21.—While out driving with his two children yesterday afternoon, Hon. Clarke Wallace was thrown from a buggy by the ponies running into a ditch, becoming frightened at a thresher at work. The children were unhurt, but Mr. Wallace had his face and arm cut and was badly shaken up. His injuries, however, are not serious.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Sept. 21.—The Liberals of East Prince have nominated the sitting member, J. H. Bell, to oppose Mr. Lefurgy, Conservative candidate at the forthcoming general elections.

Lachute, Sept. 21.—Argenteuil Conservatives have chosen W. J. Simpson, of Lachute, to oppose Dr. Christie, Liberal member, at the next general elections.

Ottawa, Sept. 21.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier will start the Liberal political ball rolling in the province of Quebec by a speech in Montreal. He leaves this afternoon for Three Rivers, where he takes part in the opening of the exhibition tomorrow.

Toronto, Sept. 21.—Archbishop Campbell, the well known Liberal member for Kent county since 1887, has declined renomination despite the fact that he has been presented with a numerously signed petition asking him to run again. It is thought Mr. Campbell has another constituency in view, likely West York, where he will try to defeat Hon. Clarke Wallace.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Sept. 21.—For burglary and attempting to shoot a constable at Webbwood recently, Wm. McGuire, of Bay City, Mich., was yesterday sentenced by Justice Johnston to 14 years in the penitentiary. Jas. Dowling, an accomplice, also from Bay

City, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. Both men will be taken to Kingston.

Sydney, C. B., Sept. 21.—Lew Bridges, a native of Charlottetown, now insurance agent at East Boston, Mass., was found dead on the track near Louisburg this morning. He is supposed to have fallen off a train. He leaves a widow and five children.

Quiet on Eldorado.

Mr. Andrew Olsen, of 33 Eldorado, is in the city for a few days on business. He reports things as being quiet on that creek at present, the majority of the owners having suspended mine work until the beginning of the coming year. Mr. Olsen will return to Eldorado tomorrow.

Slavin Party Afloat.

J. A. Gerow, who returned yesterday evening from Clear creek, called at the Nugget office last night to report that the Slavin party reported in yesterday's paper as being lost in the fog on the ridge between Indian river and Clear creek is all right and when met by him was on the ridge between Barlow and Clear creeks and but a few hours' travel from discovery claim on the latter.

COMING AND GOING.

Capt. McNeil came down from Stewart river yesterday.

J. C. Morton, of Whitehorse, arrived from the terminal town yesterday.

Roy R. Reid and wife, of French Hill, are stopping at the Regina.

H. A. Munn, of Victoria, is registered at the Regina.

Mrs. H. D. Wright is down from No. 21 Upper Bonanza, and is registered at the Fairview.

Yesterday the health officer sent another case of smallpox to the island. This time it came from the Forks.

Billy Gorham has fitted up a new place in George Apple's location on Third street and has moved from the Orpheum building.

Miss Jennie Maclean, niece of Duncan McDonald, was one of the arrivals of yesterday. The young lady will spend the winter in Dawson.

Mrs. Wm. Perkinson arrived from Seattle yesterday, and it is understood will return at once after a brief visit to her husband who is a well known Eldorado miner.

T. J. Watson, one of the pioneer residents of Skagway, also of Atlin when that camp was in the halcyon period of youth, after a week's sojourn in Dawson, has decided to remain here and will probably embark in business.

J. S. Tenant was a passenger on the Bailey arriving this morning from Whitehorse. Mr. Tenant is well known both here and in Skagway, both as a member of the firm as Tenant & Hansen, and as a prince of good fellows.

Yesterday there was piled up against the side of the sheriff's office two cords of galvanized iron ballot boxes, each provided with a nice round hold in the top for poking ballots in, and a hasp and padlock. The sheriff evidently does not intend to pay any hundred dollar fines for failure to provide ballot boxes.

"Mrs. et Madame Adriene Barrett" is the name which appears on the register of the Fairview hotel this morning, and the place of former residence is given opposite the name as Barthelemy. As there is nothing to indicate where Barthelemy is, and the lady cannot speak a word of English, her identity and where she hails from is shrouded in mystery.

E. S. Strait Capias.

The capias habit is fast reaching grave proportions, likewise the habit of forgetfulness in the matter of satisfying little outstanding accounts before taking passage up the river in a steamer or down the stream in a small boat.

Among recent capias actions E. S. Strait has figured as the wronged one, and only a few brief days ago issued a capias warrant against a hurried traveler bound towards Whitehorse, with the result that his little bill received the attention he desired for it.

Yesterday T. M. Jones bethought him that he had not seen Mr. Strait for 10, these many days, and filled with concern lest perchance his friend Strait might be stricken by illness, he sought for him in the haunts of men, where he found him not. What he did learn, however, was that Mr. Strait had become suddenly filled with the spirit of unrest, and had taken passage on board the Yukoner, presumably for parts beyond the border. When this came to the knowledge of Mr. Jones, he was reminded that among other reasons for thinking of the absent Strait and remembering him in times to come, was an unsatisfied account, amounting to $2060.

On this account he asked his friend the sheriff to telegraph Capt. Primrose at Whitehorse to remind Mr. Strait of the matter, and if he could not recall it to mind with sufficient vividness to settle, to insist on his remaining a guest with him till such time as he could remember or desired to return to Dawson.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

In Magistrate McDonell's court yesterday morning John Niberg, Albert Effie and a man named Blondin were given judgment against Geo. E. Ames, of Chechako Hill for $37.50, $167.50 and $65.25 respectively. The claims were not contested. Ten days were allowed in which to make payment.

Instead of going home sober Saturday night W. Cubee went to the barracks for being drunk and disorderly. Yesterday morning he looked blue and said "guilty." A fine of $10 and cost or ten days was imposed and conditions and circumstances were such as to require the acceptance of the latter by Mr. Cubee.

This morning two men, Henry McDonald and John Crow, were each fined $5 and costs for having been so negligent as to omit squeezing a little lemon in it.

Chas. E. Severance, who was returned from Whitehorse for the alleged misappropriation of money, will be given a hearing Thursday morning.

He Never Cheated

Charles Hanse, or Juneau Joe, as he is known, is waiting the time when Judge Dugas shall arrive and the jury trials, of which quite an accumulation is waiting shall be heard. He is waiting anxiously for this, because he says he wants to do more business in Dawson, and as it is now he stands charged with a grievous thing, and he believes the jury will wipe away the stain from the escutcheon and send him forth marked innocent.

However this may seem to him, and he says he had no thought of guile or wrong in his heart when he left here for Whitehorse previous to his arrest and return here, he was remanded by the police court for trial in the higher court, and that is why he is awaiting the arrival of Judge Dugas.

"I never stole anything in my life," he said yesterday, "never so much as 24 cents, let alone $2400."

"All I did was to postpone the payment of some money I owed Mr. Bonfield till I could go to the outside and bring in a load of cattle, when I fully intended to pay him every dollar I owed him."

"How much did I owe him? Five thousand four hundred dollars. But I didn't intend to cheat him. I never cheated anyone in my life. I have been doing business here for a long time and I never cheated anyone."

A New Warehouse.

Work was started today for the foundation of a new warehouse on the vacant lot between the Nugget office and the brick warehouse on Third street. The new structure is being put up by John Gilson, of the Dawson Warehouse Co. Being intended for cold storage the building will be erected of corrugated iron. It will be 100x40 feet.

A Rabbit Ranch.

W. A. Ryan, of Clark & Ryan, has started a new industry in Dawson, its nucleus being eight full grown Belgian hares. As these animals increase very rapidly and in a short time, Mr. Ryan expects to supply the Dawson market with fresh game from his "bunnery." The hares are frisky and give every evidence that the climate of this country is to their liking.
