NEW BIRDS FOR ANNAPOLIS COUNTY

The Spectator says —A. D. Thomas, of South Milford, received recently by express from the statebird farm of Mass achusetts, three pheasants, ore female and two males. They are very much like the partridge especially the female bird which especially the female bird which is the same color, only a little larger. The male birds are a very much prettier bird, resembing in color ou rhantams with a very long slim full. t is Mr. Thomas' intention to breed these birds in captivity, letting the young go after they are able to care for themselves. It is to be hoped that these birds will increase, so that they will be as common as our other
