DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

American Boat Won Tuesday.

Montreal, Aug. 10.—The fourth race for the Seawanhauk Cup, which took place on Lake St. Louis yesterday afternoon, resulted in another win for the American boat, the White Bear of St. Paul, Minn. She crossed the finish line 1 minute and 2 seconds ahead of the Noona. The final race will be sailed to-day.

VERY REMARKABLE CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

"About six years ago, for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment, without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by All Druggists.

Premier's Daughter Weds.

Toronto, Aug. 10.—The wedding took place yesterday at the residence of Hon. G. W. Ross of his daughter, Miss Florence Ross, and Mr. Ernest Gunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Gunn, Rosedale. The service was performed by Rev. E. W. Mackay, B.A., of Madoc, and Rev. Dr. Neil of Westminster Presbyterian Church. Miss Mabel Ross was bridesmaid, and Norma Smallpiece was best man. Only relatives and a few friends were present. The gifts were numerous and handsome.

CATARH, PNEUMONIA, CONSUMPTION.

Death's fatal trinity they are often called. Catarrh is the first stage, pneumonia often follows, and consumption finally exacts the full penalty. This can all be averted by using healing, balsamic Catarrhzone, an antiseptic that penetrates the remotest air cells of the lungs. Catarrhzone reaches the entire mucous surface of the throat and breathing apparatus; it carries health wherever it goes, brings instant relief and is absolutely certain to cure. Don't delay, get Catarrhzone to-day. It means health, certain cure. Two months' treatment $1.00, trial size 25c. Catarrhzone is guaranteed.

Why Were They Fired?

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—Corporals Swallow, Zimmerman and Worrel of the 13th of Hamilton, and Corporals Bindon and Mitchell of the 43rd D. C.O.R., have been dismissed from the Canadian School of Musketry according to Lieut.-Col. Cartwright, the commanding officer, because they did not give enough time to study, but in the opinion of many people simply because they made themselves conspicuous in the Dundonald demonstration.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject. It can be cured, however, when properly treated. All that is necessary is to give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, as directed with each bottle, and a cure is certain. For sale by All Druggists.

Metal Worker Killed.

Hamilton, Aug. 10.—Austin Kane, a metal worker employed by Ald. Finlay, was killed some time during Monday night by a T. H. & B. train, near Ainslie woods. His body was not found until about seven o'clock yesterday morning, when another train passed over it. The dead man was a member of B Company, 13th Regiment.

"BEST MAN" IS SCOTCH

GROOMSMAN'S DUTIES IN THE OLDEN TIMES WERE ONEROUS.

He Gave the Bride Away After Having Lifted the Bride Over the Threshold—Ancient and Widespread Custom Which Has Caused Much Shedding of Ink—He Also Passed the Cake and Cups.

It may be a surprise to some people to know, says The London Globe, that the phrase "best man"—the bridegroom's nearest attendant—is of Scottish origin. In the North, also, the principal bridesmaid used to be called the "best maid." Neither expression has much to recommend it. It is a great pity, indeed, that "best man," an inelegant and in itself meaningless phrase, should have so completely ousted from our common everyday speech the good old English name of "bridesman" or "bridesman." Another old name is "groomsman," and in days gone by the bridegroom was attended, not by one friend, but by several, who were known as the bridesmen or groomsmen.

The term "best man" came into use, presumably, to indicate the one of these who took the lead in performing their various duties and was in closest attendance on the bridegroom. In recent years the custom of having groomsmen has been occasionally revived, but it has not become general. At a fashionable wedding, four or five years ago, the bride was attended by five bridesmaids and two pages, whereas the bridegrooms was supported by no fewer than nine groomsmen.

But at the present time such an array has by no means the same meaning, nor are those attendant friends of so much use, as in days of old. The forerunner of the bridesman was the brideleader, whose duty it was to bring the bride to the bridegroom. In most countries where the real or pretended capture of the bride was an essential part of the ceremony, and wherever traces of the very ancient custom of bride capture existed, the friend or friends of the bridegroom had the important office of capturing the lady and bringing her to her lord.

In one of Dryden's plays there is the line: "Betwixt her guards she seemed by bridesmen led," and Brand tells us that at many old English weddings the bridegroom was led to the church between two maids, and the bride by two young men, holding her by the arms as if unwilling. This was evidently a survival of the idea of capture.

The same idea, somewhat more disguised, can be traced in the custom which is still unknown at old-fashioned weddings less than a century ago, in the North of England, and in the West of Scotland, of the bridegroom's "best man" escorting the bride to the church. It has been disputed, naturally, whether the groom's nearest friend was chosen as escort with the idea of protecting the lady from seizure by others, or whether he might be regarded as the leader in the act of capture. But whichever idea lay at the back of the practice, it was clearly a survival connected with the custom of marriage by capture. Later, the bridesman had various functions to perform, which have now become obsolete. There was still a trace of the capture idea in the old duty at one time assigned to the bridesman of giving the bride away. He led her to the church and then acted the part now filled by the lady's father or other near male relative.

In the old Scotch century ballad of the "Golden Glove," which used to be a great favorite at rural gatherings in all parts of the country in the old, unsophisticated days, before the melancholy monotony of the modern music hall had driven the genuine old English ballads and songs out of use, and memory—in this ballad there are the lines which allude to the custom named:

"I thought you had been at the wedding,"
"To wait on the squire and give him his bride."

And it has been pointed out that the same custom may be hinted at in the marriage service rubric—"The minister receiving the woman at her father's or friend's hands."

Among the Shropshire peasantry in quite recent years something of the old custom seems to have prevailed. Miss Burne, in her delightful book on "Shropshire Folklore," says that at weddings in humble life the bride's father is seldom and her mother never present. As a rule the only companions of the bride are the bridesmaid, the best man and the bridesmaid. In such circumstances it is obvious that the lady must be given away by her lover's friend, on whose arm she has walked to church.

A still more curious thing is that it is considered lucky, Miss Burke tells us, for either the best man or the bridesmaid to be already married. "I have really seen," she writes, "a married woman acting as 'bridesmaid'!" Less than twenty years ago a Newport newspaper, describing a village wedding, said that Mr. and Mrs. So-and-so, of "accompanied the happy couple and performed the offices of best man and bridesmaid, respectively."

Another old function of the bridesman, or bridesquies, as they were sometimes called, was to carry round the cake and the bride bowl. The bride bowl, or cup, was handed round at a wedding, so that the friends might drink the health of the newly married pair—a kind of loving-cup ceremony.

But before the proceedings had reached this pleasant point, it had been the duty of the bridesman to lift the bride over the threshold. This is an ancient and widespread custom, the meaning of which has caused much shedding of ink. In the west of Scotland, of old, says Mr. Napier, his book on the folklores of that region, "the threshold of the house was disenchanted by charms, and by anointing it with certain unctuous perfumes, but as it was considered unlucky for the wife to tread upon the threshold on first entering her house, she was lifted over it and seated upon a piece of wood, a symbol of domestic industry."

The custom is not confined to European peoples, for a somewhat analogous practice exists in China, where the bride is carried into the house by a matron, and at the door is lifted over a pan of charcoal. Apart from marriage, even in this country, there are folk who are careful on entering a house to step over and not on the threshold. There is a world of lore, indeed, surrounding the subject of the threshold into which we cannot here enter.

The modern "best man" may feel thankful that his duties are not so onerous as those of his predecessors of long ago; nor need he trouble to be on his guard against unlucky omens, or on the watch to propitiate the uncertain goddess, Fate.

CAN'T SAY ENOUGH IN THEIR FAVOR

Why Miss Gusty V. Campbell Recommends Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets to all her Friends who have Stomach Troubles.

"I cannot say enough in favor of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets," so says Miss Gusty V. Campbell, Little Shippegan, Gloucester Co., N. B. Of course Miss Campbell has reasons for making a statement like this and here they are:

"I suffered from Dyspepsia for two months and was always getting worse till advertisements led me to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. One box cured me and I can honestly recommend them to anyone suffering from Dyspepsia."

The moral of this is that if you take your stomach trouble before it gets too firm a grip it is easily cured by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

VICTIMS NUMBER 100.

Several Persons Lose Their Minds Following the Shock.

Pueblo, Colo., Aug. 10.—Because of the railroad horror which cost 100 or more lives, many business houses were closed yesterday, and more than forty homes are in mourning. Several persons have lost their minds, following the shock of the deaths of loved ones.

The search for bodies was kept up all night. Bodies have been recovered more than ten miles from the scene of the disaster.

The death list shows a total of sixty-six identified dead, twenty-eight missing and six unidentified bodies, making an even 100 victims of the wreck.

A FAMILY NECESSITY

Is a remedy capable of affording immediate relief to the hundred and one ailments that constantly arise. It may be a cold, perhaps toothache, neuralgia, pain in the back—use Nerviline, it's more penetrating, pain-subduing and powerful than any other liniment. Nerviline is at least five times stronger than ordinary remedies and its worth in any household can't be over-estimated. For man or beast Nerviline is a panacea for all pain and costs only 25c. per bottle. Buy Nerviline to-day.

Senator Gibson Married.

London, Aug. 10.—Senator Gibson was married yesterday to Marjorie Mackie, second daughter of the late Alexander Mackie of Peterhead, north of Aberdeen. D. McKeller was best man. J. Grey, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her away. Miss Gibson, cousin of the Senator, was bridesmaid. The reception was at the house of Mr. Grey. Among the guests present were Wm. German, M. P., and Mr. Murray, Canadian Government agent, Cardiff. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson leave this evening for the continent.

NOTICE

To the Editor of The Planet:

Dear S.R.—To you and the numerous subscribers of The Planet I extend the compliments of the season, and take the opportunity of giving you some idea of my dealings with the public. While many dentists in speaking of specialties, or things their hands can specially, will point you to gold crowns, and such like, as their ideals of perfection. I have only to say that my specialties are comfort-fitting sets of teeth that give the appearance possessed by the face ten or fifteen years ago, before any teeth were lost, and the natural ones carefully filled. With respect to the former, in no other dental office in Ontario is this obtainable. When ordering a set of teeth a wax plate is made, and with the assistance of the patient, I decide for the length of the teeth, and the future appearance of the cheeks and lips. A set of teeth in my office never takes but a few minutes to insert, as no whittling or cutting the lips off the teeth to make a fit is ever necessary by me. With fillings, no cheap materials that would discolor the teeth ever used by me. Crowns, bridge work and gold, or other plating at reasonable rates and proportionate to size. Euclidean, a German discovery, has been in use for a number of years more than ten years, so after results follow its use, as with cocaine and other anaesthetics used in America which at the best are but modifications of cocaine. Mournful bands, or the blackest teeth, by the use of Stephens' Boston Process, are clear in twenty minutes at a cost of 25 cents. A fifty dollar guarantee goes with each set of teeth I send out to the effect that they are America's strongest and costliest. With respect to my dental education, I graduated, successfully, in Ontario Dental College, Haskell's School of High Class, or hosthetic dentistry, Chicago, and from Ohio's State Board of Dental Examiners.

Yours truly,
DR. R. S. LUDLOW.
