 —The wheeling is excellent, and a very small amount of snow would make good sleighing.
 —Joseph Noles was arrested yesterday for non-payment of a Scott Act fine.
 —Mr. Wood, M. P., went yesterday morning to Moncton, from whence he left for Ottawa last night.
 —The band of the Household Troops of the Salvation Army will perform here to-morrow night. According to the posters, "They march, sing, and speak for God."

LOCAL MATTERS.

SINGING CLASS.—Prof. H. G. Addison, of Massachusetts, will give a free lesson in vocal music in Powell Hall next Tuesday evening, at 7:30 p. m., at which time he will organize a class. All interested are invited to be present.

A BIG PILE FACTORY.—The Maritime Pulp factory, at Chatham, is said to be one of the largest and best equipped establishments of its kind in the world. The wood goes into the factory in six feet lengths and is cut up into a web of about one and one half inches in thickness.

A DOUBLE WEDDING.—The twin daughters of Mr. Chas. Reid, of Newcastle, were married Tuesday evening to Mr. Chas. F. Stuts of Sussex, and Mr. Edw. Norrard. Rev. Sidney Welton, of Sussex, performed the ceremony. The brides are Presbyterian twins and the bridegrooms Baptist widowers.

FIRE.—The well known "Albion House," at Joliette, owned and formerly occupied by Mr. Clifford Chappell, of the Sackville House, was destroyed by fire on Monday evening, together with all the buildings and their contents, including a mowing machine and other farming implements. The house has been occupied for the last month, or so, by Mr. George Crossman, and it is supposed the fire was set by children playing in the grounds. There was about $1250 insurance on the house and buildings, but Mr. Chappell estimates his loss at about $1800 more than the insurance.

THE BAND CONCERT.—An excellent music given the first public appearance of the Sackville Cornet Band on Sunday evening, and very few seats in Music Hall were empty. The band pieces were executed in a manner very creditable to the performers and satisfactory to the audience. Considering the fact that the band was not organized till the 6th of last November and that their practice was occasionally interrupted, their skill in the use of their instruments was really remarkable and their success must have been highly gratifying to their talented instructor Mr. Hillcoat. The vocal and piano solos and songs as well as the male and brass quartets were of a high order and formed a pleasing variation, several of them being deservedly encored, but the audience would have gladly listened to more band music. The harmonious variations of Signor Giovanni, Jr., whose every day name is Gallant, proved a very attractive card, and he was forced to respond to numerous enthusiastic encores. Mr. J. L. Black, M. P., made a few well chosen remarks explanatory of the band's financial position, which showed that the instruments had cost $310, against which $436 had been paid on subscriptions, with $40 still due, leaving a balance of about $34 due for instruments, and about $100 due for instruction. The gross receipts last evening were about $85. Following is the programme:
 Love's Dreamland Waltzes.—Band.
 Vocal Solo: "The Song that reached my Heart."—Mr. W. E. Campbell.
 Piano Solo: "The Song that reached my Heart."—Miss Tina Smith.
 Vocal Solo: "Shells of the Ocean."—Mr. Bliss Fawcett.
 Cornet Solo: "Emily Polka."—Mr. A. Snowden.
 Harmonies Solo: "Variations."—Signor Giovanni, Jr.
 Kendals solo March.
 Stationary Solo: "Band Finances, &c."—Intermission.
 Quick Step.—Band.
 Piano Solo: "Fantasie," from Don Quixote.—Miss Ayer.
 Male Quartette: "Serenade."—Messrs. Dunn, Smith, Stoddard and Sharp.
 Harmonies Variations.—Giovanni, Jr.
 Cornet Solo, Band Accompaniment: "Kale Polka."—Mr. A. Snowden.
 Vocal Duet: Fly away Birdlings.—Misses Tina Smith and Grace.
 Brass Quartette: "Moonlight on the Lake."
 Piano Duet: Flick et Fleck.—Miss Black, Miss T. Smith.
 God Save the Queen.

Base Verte, Jan. 29th, 1889.

A terrible calamity occurred at De-light, Trinity Bay, N.B., Tuesday, the 19th, when the house and store of Edward Legge were destroyed by fire, and his two children burnt to death. The poor father and mother are in the greatest grief, and to add to their misery, they are entirely destitute, as the house and store contained all their winter's provisions, and they did not save an article.

Pleasant Valley.

—The snow bird, oh, whither has he winged his tireless flight. Is he looking for a better home to come over here this winter?
 —Mr. Beharrell's favorite band Bounce matched himself against an express train a few days ago, and though he sped well, yet the iron horse tore by and left poor Bounce headless. He hasn't run since.
 —Times again on the way-path evincing forcible determination to out-do all predecessors. If the first is any index to the last a general flooding of the marshes may be looked for especially if the winds blow southerly.
 —Since the loss of the horse by Messrs. Fisher, a rustic railing has been placed on that dangerous part of the road to guard against future mishaps. Any one wishing a patient and a new substantial railing can have one cheap.

Celebrated Gardens.

The celebrated "Hanging Gardens of Babylon" were within the precincts of the palace called "The Admiration of Man." They consisted of a series of terraces or arches 75 feet high and built in the form of a square, each side of which measured 400 Greek feet. The city of Babylon, with its famous gardens, was razed to its foundation, 690 B. C.
 Two Thousand, Five Hundred and Seventy-Nine years later we find the celebrated gardens of James Vick in Rochester, New York. For description, Catalogue of seeds, advice how to obtain free of charge a copy of Vick's Floral Guide and also of the famous new rose, called "Vick's Caprice," address, James Vick, Seedsmen, Rochester, N. Y.

A scene of wild excitement occurred at the Olympic theatre, St. Louis, on Saturday afternoon, near the end of the first act of the opera "Erminie." A small fire was noticed, and the great audience became panic-stricken. Then some one cried "fire," and for a time it looked as though there must be loss of life, as the audience was composed principally of women and children. Some women fainted, others went into hysterics, and it was with great difficulty that the few men present restored order.
