It always gives us pleasure to draw attention to articles which are deserving of public patronage. Probably no article ever offered to the public has met with the same success as GRAY'S SYRUP OF RED SPURGE GUM. Thousands of families in the Dominion keep it in their homes as the Standard Cough Remedy. The sale of this article has assumed enormous proportions. Our advice to the public at large is to try its virtues if they should be offered for sale, many of which are at any time unfortunately contract either Coughs or Colds. It is sold by all chemists.

WHO IS MRS WINSLOW!

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly spent her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and as a result of this effort and practical know- ledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Sooth- ing Syrup, for children teething, which operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover, sure to regulate the bow- els. In consequence of this article, Mrs Winslow is becoming world renowned, as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do miss it and bless her, especially in this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use. That million unborn will share its benefits and unite in calling her "blessed." No mother has die- charged her duty to her suffering little one in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it mothers—try it now.—Ladies Visitor, New York City.
Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN

The Scientific American is a large first- class Weekly Newspaper of Sixteen Pages printed in the most beautiful style, profusely illustrated with splendid engravings, representing the newest Inventions and the most recent Advances in the Arts and Science, including New and Interesting Facts in Agriculture, Horticulture, the Home Health, Medical Progress, Social Science, Natural History, Geology, Astronomy. The most valuable practical papers, by eminent writers in all departments of Science, will be found in the Scientific American. Terms, $3.20 per year, $1.60 half year, which includes postage. Discounts to Agents. Single copies ten cents. Sold by all News- dealers. Remit by order to MUNN & CO., Publishers, 37 Park Row, New York. In connection with the Scientific American Patents, Scientific American Patent Agency, have had 25 years' experience, and now have the largest estab- lishment in the world. Patents are obtained on the best terms. A special notice is given in the Scientific American of all inventions patented through this Agency, with the name and residence of the patentee. By the immense circulation thus given, prompt attention is directed to the merits of the new patents, and sales or introduction are easily effected. Any person who has made a new discovery or invention, can ascertain free of charge, whether a patent can probably be obtained, by writing to MUNN & CO. We also send free our Hand Book about the Patent Laws, Patents, Copyrights, Trade-Marks, their costs, and how procure with hints for procuring advances on inven- tions. The Independent.

The foremost religious newspaper of United States.—JOSEPH COOK.

The Independent seeks the patronage of the public on three grounds, as follows:

1st It is the largest weekly religious newspaper published in the world.

2d It employs as contributors more writers, at home and abroad, than any other weekly newspaper.

3d It gives its readers a wider range of topics and more and fuller departments than they can find elsewhere in any journal.

The Independent consists of 32 pages, neatly cut and printed in a fine clear type [we stereotype the pages weekly, and hence, every issue is really printed with new type] and on good paper, mechanically it is unexcelled.

There is no question of prominence in religion, politics, science, education, finance or any other department of human knowledge which the Independent does not discuss. It has regular departments devoted to Biblical Research, Missions, Religious Intelligence, Book Reviews and Literary News, the Sunday-school, Education, Science, Sanitary questions, Fine Arts, Movements of ministers, Personalities, &c. of the week, Financial and Commercial matters, including weekly prices current Market Reports, Cattle Market, Dry Goods quotations, Flowers and Farming, &c.

Insurance. In its religious department gives news and statistics of all denominations of Christians, everywhere. In full accuracy, and comprehensiveness this department is unequalled. Several pages of poems adapted to Old and Young given every week, with a column of Puzzles.

From time to time Sermons by eminent ministers are published. The current topics of the day are discussed in our editorial columns freely and vigorously. We are afraid to state our opinions.

These reduced prices ($2 per annum clubs of five or more) are very much less than any of the standard religious weeklies though the paper is much larger and better as compared with all others.
