To the Editor of the Carbonear Herald. THE RECTORY, CARBONEAR, Railway question.

Märch 31st. 1880. Dear Sir---

At a meeting of the Church people of Carbonear it was proposed, seconded and carried unanimously that-"the hearty thaks of this meeting be hereby most greatfully accorded to all those friends who so nobly aided the congregation in their efforts to subdue the fire which on Good Friday morning threatened the destruction of the Church."

I have only-with the request that you will kindly find space in your colums for this very inadequate acknowledge. ment of the hearty co-operation afforded on the trying occasion alluded to-to ex.
