Murder and Saichie in the Jurors' Room of incriminatory Documents.

Dublin, Feb, 5 .- The investigation into the murder conspiracy charges was bership of twenty-eight. During the resumed to day. The court was crowded careful discrimination in the issuing of the car man, was marched into the prisoners' dock between two policemen. new departure caused much speculation. The prisoner has a low retreating forehead, s nister appearance, and looks anxious and nervous. A little girl witness, named Ellen Brophy, identified Kava-nagh as the driver of the car containing including hand grenades.

After the hearing of evidence against the prisoners accused of attempting to kill Field the two Carey's two Mullets, Whelan, Brady, Kelly and Kavanagh were charged with the murder of Cavendish and Burke. The identification of Kavanagh by E.len Brophy was particu-larly complete. She says she asked him whom he was waiting for. She saw him when going on messages three times in half an hour. After her return the third time she heard cries of "murder" and ran to the door. There were then men besides the driver on the car. The third was just mounting. She was only able to identify Kavanagh. She was severely cross-examined but never falter-ed. When Kavanagh was identified he blushed and smiled uneasily. Brady entered the dock swaggering. Kelly was pale and defiant looking. James Mullet laughed when the charge concerning the Phoenix park murders was read, but none of his companions joined him. Much time was occupied in proving the letting of a large room on Peter street to James Carey, ostensibly as a reading room, but really for the purpose of drilling men. He let the room in Oct. 1879.

Wm. Winter was placed on the stand to prove the letting of Temperance hall to Patrick Whelan for drilling purposes, but failed to identify the prisoner in the dock. The witness, amid great laughter, denied that the term, "witness for the crown," was applicable to him. The witness Clinton, who let the room on Peter street, used as a drill room, identified Brady and James Carey as having been at a meeting there. The seizure of a quantity of arms in Whelan's house was then formally proved.

After evidence of the finding of ammunition, revolvers and two daggers in Joseph Mullet's house, the prisoners were remanded until Saturday.

The first sensation of the day was caused by the reading of extracts from books found when the Fenian armory in Crosskeven street was seized. One in the form of a diary by Patrick Whelan, records his appointment as treasurer of the executive of the Irish republican brotherhood, purchases in London of Snyder rifles and Bunsen's electric batsider resolutions afterwards proposed at a rotunda meeting of the land league by the nationalists, and a meeting to consult on the advised by the nationalists, and a meeting to consult on the advised by the nationalists. sult on the advisability of sending James Maher to America to consult "our chief," James Stephens. The reference to Stephens caused laughter among the prisoners and the audience. The inspec-tor admitted that Whelan was formerly arrested but not tried. Another book contained a list of the workman's club

John Parker, murderer of Mike Payton to-day shot and killed his wife in the jury room of the court and afterwards tatally Several persons were preshot himself. sent. It is thought Mrs. Parker furnished the weapon. Among the entries in Whelan's diary is the following: "Prior to the death of John O'Mahony, I. R. B. lost its former effectiveness and prestige; no longer dreaded as a revolutionary body, it has become a mere tool in the hands of parliamentary aspirants " During the examination to-day policemen deposed to finding the murdered body of the informer, Bailey. The prisoner's counsel de-clared this wholly irrelevant. Murphy replied that he was prepared to prove the prisoners were members of a spiracy, to which he would trace all the murders in the city during the last few years. Bailey was connected with the discovery of a Fenian armory.

There is great excitement over a report that Kavanagh, the car driver, has turned approver.

In New York, the other day, Prof. C. A. Young said "that the earth was a little ball of water and rock—not hung in space as the old geographers taught, but rushing through space, around the sun, rushing through space, around the sun, carrying with it a moon It was about 8,000 miles in diameter. A railroad traingoing forty miles an hour without stopping would make the journey around the earth in twenty-six days. The moon was 240,000 miles away, and the sun 93,000, at forty miles an hour, a little over 265 at forty miles an hour, a little over 265 that forty miles an hour, a little over 265 that forty miles an hour, a little over 265 that forty miles an hour, a little over 265 that forty miles an hour, a little over 265 that forty miles an hour, a little over 265 that forty miles an hour, a little over 265 that forty miles an hour, a little over 265 that forty miles an hour, a little over 265 that forty miles are the carth to the sun. at forty miles an hour, a little over 265 years to go from the earth to the sun, while the stars were 200,0 0 times further away than the sun. Starlight was three and a half years traveling to the earth." It is important to know that the starlight we are getting is three and a half years old. It might have been palmed off on an unsuspecting people by unscrupulous persons as a fresh article.

What threatened to be a clerical scandal in Brantford has turned out to be something like an attempt at blackmail. The woman in the case, after making a serious charge against a respected clergy-man, has disappeared; so that the whole affair may be said to have collapsed. This shows the necessity of people being slow to make up their minds in matters of this sort. It is the easiest thing in slow to make up their minds in matters and the matter of this sort. It is the easiest thing in the world for a designing woman to make a charge against a clergyman or a doctor, and attempt to extert money from him married them will read the burial sergular threats of an exposure.

An effort will likely be made by our people to build at no distant date, but as most of that on the retirement of Miss Bond the named Ellen Brophy, identified Kavanagh as the driver of the car containing the men who intended to assassinate Field the juror. Besides Kavanagh, Joseph Brady and T. Kelly were also arraigned in connection with the attempt to murder Field. The evidence elicited to-day proved that James Cary, member of the corporation, rented several houses in which the constant drilling of men occurred, and also that in one house a perfect military arenal was discovered, including hand grenades.

After the hearing of evidence against the prisoners accused of attempting to kill Field the two Carey's two Mullets, Whelan, Brady, Kelly and Kavanagh were charged with the murder of Caven-large and the driver of the car containing the men who intended to assassinate Field the two Carey's two Mullets, the containing the men who intended to assassinate Field the two Carey's two Mullets, the containing the men who intended to assassinate Field the two Carey's two Mullets, the containing the men who intended to assassinate Field the two Carey's two Mullets, the settlers are as yet comparatively that as most of the attempt would be very acceptable. At Doe Lake there is a union church, in which Divine service is held both by Methodists and Presbyterians and the proon; Miss Blair to Miss Bond's room; Miss Bond's room hood, so that the attendance is usually good. At all the above named stations fortnightly supply of service is given, and Sabbath schools are also carried on when practicable. The prospects of the field, in regard to the work of the Church, are on the whole encouraging.

The United States did est city. not relish the Halifax award, and to this representative at Geneva, was very indignant over the award, but his ire had to fizzle out in pamphlet and article writing. Again England did not relish, or recognize the justice of, the Emperor William's decision in the San Juan affair.

Lt is assumed by the chief organ of the Conservatives that all who voted for the N. P. will vote for Mr. Meredith. Of course this is all nonsense. Mr. Mereor recognize the justice of, the Emperor William's decision in the San Juan affair. But in all these cases, having once agreed to arbitration, both the United States and England had in turn to swallow the unsavory morsels. Their wry faces could not and did not help them. As with those countries so it is with Canada and Ontario. The fact of our province being a portion of the country makes no difference. The Dominion through its then representatives, the Government at Ottawa, agreed to the arbitration and in honor it should be bound to abide by it. The composition of the board of arbitration has nothing to do with the question. Each party agreed to the tribunal in good faith and only in the Sorres of Liberals who woted for the N.
