

Contention of the Masses.

(Twillingate Sun.)

Owing to the present rule of Government in this Colony, where many are living at the expense of the fisherman and the laborer, a feeling of dissatisfaction has been germinated and the weak minded or easily influenced masses of laborers are careless of trying to even maintain their families. Numerous officials have been appointed in different departments, drawing large salaries, which this country can hardly bear, and to keep up such an unworthy expenditure will cause hundreds more of our rising generation to leave our shores.

The country is overburdened with officials and owing to the examples planted by the rulers a tendency to base on the Government for support and relief has been created, while taxation remains at high water mark and once energetic producers become weary in earning a "hand to mouth" livelihood.

Strikes we do not encourage, but the root of these fruits spring up because of dissatisfaction among workers owing to those who are the wealth of the country's income then the blame must be laid at the proper place and the evils of waste, extravagance and taxation be done away with before other incoming industries are crippled and the development of our wealthy products become stunted.

Many avenues of expense must be eliminated even if some who reap the fruits of the treasury have to off and take to the pick and shovel. But why not engage in productive work as heretofore? It seems that part of the expense that the treasury has to bear could be lessened to allow the road to independence to become paved.

The Last Word in Screen Drama.

NICKEL PATRONS ENTHUSIASTIC OVER BIG PICTURE.

Unquestionably one of the greatest motion pictures produced in a decade is Cecil B. DeMille's tremendous production of "The Affairs of State" which scored an emphatic triumph at the Nickel Theatre yesterday. The picture, written by Jeanie Macpherson, and suggested by Arthur Benitzler's celebrated play of the same name in which John Barrymore starred some years ago, marks an epoch in American screen production.

Interpreted by an all star cast including such screen celebrities as Wallace Reid, who has the leading male role, Gloria Swanson, a Paramount star who is seen as the lead woman, Elliott Dexter, Bobe Danvers, Monte Blue, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayres, Theodore Lido, Polly Moran, Raymond Hatton and Julia Faye, this production ranked on the highest plane of artistry thus far achieved by Mr. DeMille. The story is satirical and filled with humor as well as moments that thrill to the core. The sumptuousness of the production, its ornate settings and wonderful gowns, not to speak of the artistry of the various character portrayals, place this Paramount picture in a class by itself.

On Thursday the Nickel will screen "The Sheikh" founded on the famous novel by E. M. Hull, which has been read by millions the world over. This is another remarkable picture and the principals in the cast are Rudolph Valentino and Agnes Ayres.

Committed to Trial

TO COME BEFORE SUPREME COURT.

Two men, Dawe and Buckley, recently captured, after breaking into the store of P. J. Fortune, Water St. West, were yesterday afternoon committed for trial during the Fall term of the Supreme Court. The preliminary hearing into the charge preferred against the men was concluded during the afternoon before Judge Harris, when the evidence of Constable Fred Churchill, who participated in the arrest was taken.

Children's Wearing Apparel

Showing that nicety of detail accorded to the attire of their elders. Coats are smartly simple in line and may be found in beautifully tailored styles of Velour, Tweeds and Blanket Cloths. Hats are gay little models as smart as those worn by older heads. They catch the spirit of youth in the bright colorings as well as in the shapes.

The New Coats

The wide inset sleeve often characterizes the new Coats which are so handsome that many of them may be dignified by the title of Wraps. Pleasingly varied in Silhouette, some of these models adhere to the straight lines, while others show the tight-fitting waist and smartly flaring lower edge. The more expensive models are trimmed with Otter and Beaver collars; the materials are mostly in rich autumn shades of Brown, Fawn and Green.
