"Early in my business career I made it a rigid rule to invest a third of my net yearly income in Life Insurance. Obituary.

EX-CORP. WM. J. TREBBLE.

It is with profound regret that the Telegram has to chronicle to-day, the passing out of a soldier and a man, in the person of one of our most esteemed townsmen, William J. Trebble, who breathed his last yesterday at the Sudbury Hospital, after a lingering illness. The deceased was one of the First Five Hundred, who left here with the Newfoundland Contingent on October 4th, 1914. After receiving his training at Salisbury Plains and Edinburgh Castle, he was one of the number taking part in the fighting at Gallipoli, having remained there until the evacuation took place. Later he proceeded to France, and many months had not passed before he received the rank of Corporal for his devotion and attention to duty. On the ever memorable first of July, 1916, Corp. Trebble was seriously wounded, and in the drive at Beaumont Hamel, from which he never recovered.

The deceased, who was in his thirty-fourth year, was the only son of District Chief Trebble of No 2 Fire Station, and leaves to mourn, besides his father, one sister, Mrs. W. Ryan. The funeral will take place to-morrow (Wednesday) from Myrick's Mortuary Rooms, at 2.30 p.m. The sympathy of the whole community will go out to the bereaved in their hour of sorrow.

CHARLES R. THOMPSON.

A cablegram was received from England this morning by Mr. Lloyd Chaplin, conveying the sad news that his father-in-law, Mr. Charles R. Thompson, had passed away there yesterday. The deceased, who was the popular manager of the Newfoundland Boot & Shoe Factory, was born at Perth, Scotland, Jan. 18th, 1851. He left "Burns' Land" at an early age with his father, for Halifax, N.S., where his education was received. After leaving school he became book-keeper and commercial traveller for the firm of R. Taylor & Co. of Halifax, then doing a large boot and shoe trade with Newfoundland, and "Charlie" was one of the best known and most popular travellers to the "Ancient Colony." In 1879 he came to reside in St. John's, having at that time accepted a position from the directorate of the St. John's Boot and Shoe Co. The business of the concern flourished and increased under his management, and about five years ago he retired from active life. The business was then carried on by Mr. William J. James, of Hr. Grace, as his successor until two years ago, when the management again changed hands.

Mr. James retired. Since then the business has been run under the management of Mr. Wm. Thompson, brother of the deceased. Mr. Thompson had been twice married. His first wife being Miss Kate E. Lynch of Shubenacadie, N.S., and his second wife Miss Mary A. Elliott of St. John's. The death of Mr. Thompson will be mourned by those who best knew him. He was a man of the type that St. John's could ill-afford to lose. In his time he was one of the very busiest of St. John's citizens, having always understood his business thoroughly and transacted it in a manner alike creditable to himself and satisfactory to the trade. To those who mourn the Telegram offers sincere condolence.

SARAH MOORE.

There passed peacefully away yesterday, Nov. 13th, the soul of Sarah Moore, at the ripe old age of 83 years to be forever with the Lord. Deceased was the widow of the late John Moore, of Trinity, whose husband and two sons perished in the Trinity Bay disaster some thirty-one years ago. She leaves to mourn her two sons, John C., of the Reid Mfd. Co., and Frederick, of the Martin Royal Stores Hardware Co., and two daughters, Mrs. Edward Rowe, Trinity, and Mrs. Levi Burser, Old Peruvian, and a number of grand-children and a large circle of friends. She was beloved of those who came in contact with her both as mother and friend. Truly it can be said of her "She hath done what she could." Her greatest joy was to bless and cheer others, and now she has gone to receive her reward from Him who has said "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto these the least of these my little ones ye have done it unto me." "Sleep on beloved, sleep and take thy rest. Lay down your head upon thy Saviour's breast; We loved thee well but Jesus loves you best. Good Night, Good Night, Good Night." The funeral takes place to-morrow at 2.30 p.m. from her son's residence, 223 Southside.
